

TYNGSBORO MAN SANDBAGGED

MARRIED EATON
TO SAVE HIS LIFEMrs. Eaton Denies That She Tried to Have Her Husband
Sent to Insane Asylum

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton by poison, was again the chief witness when the trial was resumed here today.

Attorney Morse asked Mrs. Eaton a single question in direct examination before the district attorney took up cross-examination.

"Did you know, Mrs. Eaton, that your husband's income stopped with his death?" she queried.

"I did," Mrs. Eaton replied.

The defendant was bright and cheerful and a smile played about her lips. The court room was packed.

Dist. Atty. Barker took the witness first over some of the details of her early life and questioned her about the members of her family.

Admiral Dead Drunk, Says Widow

Mrs. Eaton again told of her marriage at Washington to D. H. Almsworth, her first husband, of Almsworth's losing position after position and of the falling fortunes of the family as a result. The break with Almsworth came after 12 years of married life, then having turned to nursing as a profession, Mrs. Almsworth was sent to the home of Admiral Eaton to attend his wife. She found the admiral "dead drunk most of the time," she said.

Admiral Eaton continued to drink heavily a month after his wife's death and the nurse remained at the Eaton household in an attempt to reform the husband.

"He was like a child," she said.

Mrs. Eaton said that the admiral requested that she "take care of him." On her orders, the admiral reduced his drinking considerably. Then he asked Mrs. Eaton to marry him.

"He said it would be a very good thing for him and for me. It was only when I saw he was going to kill himself and die that I married him," she said.

Married to Save Admiral's Life

"Then you married him to save his life?" the district attorney asked.

"Yes; I married him to save his life."

Some time late Admiral Eaton accompanied his nurse to Chicago where she divorced her first husband and two weeks later they were married in Boston. The family, including Mrs. Eaton's two daughters, June and Dorothy Almsworth lived in Brookline. "The admiral played the stocks and lost," Mrs. Eaton said.

The family removed to Assinippi to better the admiral's physical condition, not because of lack of finances, Mrs. Eaton insisted in reply to repeated questioning. She said she did all the work of getting the new home ready for occupancy, "making it a very beautiful country home."

"Did Not Know He Had 40 Cents"

Admiral Eaton gave her $30,000 after their marriage, all of which she returned to him later. She denied she had told State Officer Scott that she kept $10,000. She did not know that $30,000 came from his first wife, nor that the admiral had $40,000 when she married.

"I did not know he had 40 cents," she said.

Mrs. Eaton denied that she tried through Dr. Colgate of Rockland to have her husband committed to the insane asylum. She said only that he looked queer and that she wanted him examined. The admiral was under the influence of drugs at the time.

"Dr. Colgate was under the impression that I was a young woman who wanted to get rid of an old husband and I was very indignant," said Mrs. Eaton.

Letter From Widow Read

The district attorney read a letter from Mrs. Eaton to Dr. Colgate, and called upon her to explain some of its passages. She said at the time of writing she feared she was being poisoned by the admiral and his careless mess while under the influence of drugs might result in burning their home. His mind was diseased, Mrs. Eaton said, confirming a statement in the letter.

Scars on her arms and ankles that have been cancelled. Instead:

Owing to the condition of Congressman Gardner's voice the outdoor rallies advertised for tonight

TONIGHT AT 8 O'CLOCK

CONGRESSMAN

A. P. Gardner

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

FOR

Governor

U. S. SENATOR

A. B. CUMMINS

OF IOWA

And Others Will Positively

Speak at

Associate Hall

(Gallery Reserved for Ladies)

Congressman Rogers Will

Preside

Music by the Sixth Regiment Band

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

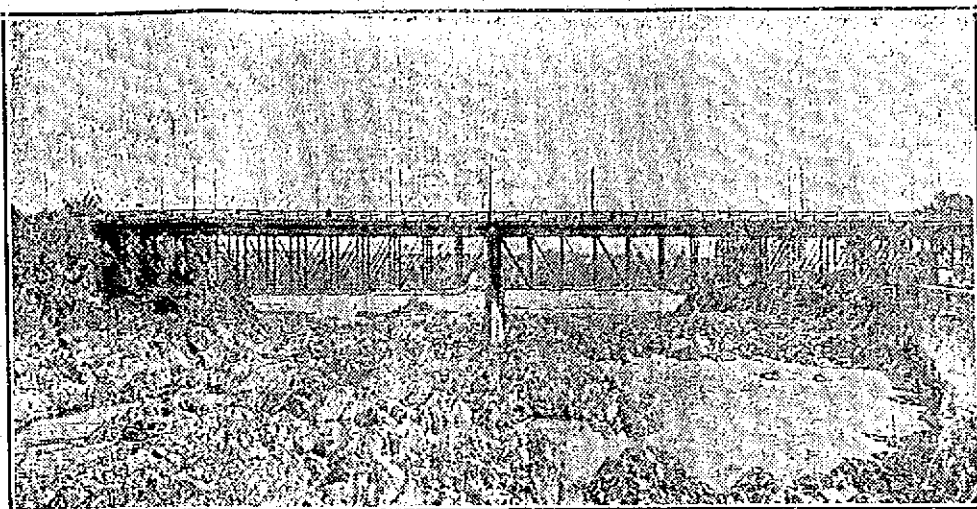

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Advertisement.

Moody St. Bridge Finished and Will be Opened for Vehicles Wednesday

THE MOODY STREET BRIDGE REOPENED TO CAR SERVICE

Work on the Moody street bridge over the Merrimack river is finished, and although the electric cars are allowed to cross the bridge, the same will not be open for other vehicles until Wednesday, in order to insure good pavement.

The original bridge was constructed by the Groton Bridge & Mfg. Co. in 1896, with a brick pavement. Since that time not a red cent was spent for the upkeep of this construction. A short time ago it was noticed that the pavement was in poor condition and it was decided to rebuild it, and a sum of money was appropriated for this purpose.

Work was begun on Aug. 25, when the brick floor was tipped up and the flooring which supported the pavement was found to be well rotted and was a menace to the bridge. New kyanized spruce timbers were put in and a five-inch reinforced concrete pavement was substituted for the brick. The Bay State Street Railway Co. replaced its rails with new and up-to-date girder rails, and changes were also made in the drainage of the bridge. The whole job of renovating the bridge was finished two weeks ago last Saturday, and yesterday for the first time the electric cars were allowed to run over the bridge, but in order to insure good pavement, that is, give the cement a good chance to dry, the bridge will not be open to other vehicles until Wednesday morning. The cost of improving the bridge is about $14,000.

That Cement Band Stand

Mayor O'Donnell this morning gave out the following statement relative to the cement band stand on the South common, for which the municipal council appropriated $2000 some time ago, but which is still to be constructed: "The municipal council has voted a sum of money to be used for the erection of a cement band stand on the South common. If in the opinion of men familiar with cement construction it is feasible to erect the same at the present time, I believe it should be constructed. If not, by no means should it be attempted."

New Horses

In the course of the past year the health department was forced to kill six horses, which had become too old to be of any real value, and to replace the faithful animals, eight new horses were purchased.

Sewer Outlets

Although the employees of the water department have finished working in the bed of the Merrimack river, the Alken street sewer outlet is still as it was some time ago, that is in a very bad condition, but this is due to the fact that the water is so high.

It was understood that the sewer men could not work in the river while the water department employees were busy there, and it was a question of how soon the latter would finish their task, so that the sewer men could go right in and extend the Alken street outlet. The water department has been away from the river bed for several days now, but on account of the rising of the water the outlet has not been extended. This work will be tackled as soon as convenient.

In about ten days, it is believed the job of rebuilding the Moody street canal bridge will be completed. A large force is now busy repairing the bridge and work is being hurried along.

she showed to Dr. Colgate at the time, Mrs. Eaton said, she attributed to hypodermic injections made by Admiral Eaton while she slept.

Tampered With Teeth

A tooth that decayed overnight, Mrs. Eaton said, she knew her husband had tampered with in her sleep. The defendant bared her teeth, at the request of the district attorney, and he looked into her mouth to find what she said were the results of the poison.

Indignities toward June were described by the witness, who explained that the admiral was not in his right mind.

Mrs. Eaton said after the district attorney had read another letter written by her to Dr. Colgate that she thought that if the physician had taken care of the admiral the Eaton's adopted baby would not have died.

Well Versed in Poisons

"I'm afraid I did believe the admiral had poisoned the child," Mrs. Eaton said. She added he was very well versed in poisons and fiddled in them continually yet she never saw any."

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Michael O'Day of Manchester, N. H., and Miss Maria Mullin of this city were united in marriage at St. Michael's rectory by Rev. Denis Murphy. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Boyle of this city while the groom's attendant was Mr. Martin Stanton of Manchester, N. H. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rourke, 24 A street. Mr. and Mrs. O'Day will reside at 113 Rockland avenue, Manchester.

ASST. TREAS. OF U. S.

Martin Vogel Was Inducted Into Office Today—Will Begin Work of Counting $170,000,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Martin Vogel, who was recently appointed assistant treasurer of the United States here was formally inducted into office today. Mr. Vogel, who is a New York lawyer, furnished a bond of $500,000. The work of counting the $170,000,000 now in the vaults of the sub-treasury for which the new assistant treasurer assumed responsibility, will begin tomorrow.

R. J. HARVEY

Caterer

RESTAURANT, 572 GORHAM ST.

Near Davis Sq. Tel. 4373

"Banquets, weddings, etc. Dishes, tables, chairs, to let. 15 years' experience."

More Candidates

The candidates for municipal election who have taken out their nomination papers since Saturday noon are as follows:

For mayor: George H. Brown, Fourth avenue; John A. Osgood, 17 Bowers street.

For commissioner: Andrew E. Barrett, Herbert L. Chapman, East Merrimack street, and James J. Gallagher, Cumberland road.

Expense Accounts

The following have filed their election expense accounts with the city clerk since Saturday afternoon: Thomas J. Mullarkey, democrat, Sept. 22, Courier-Citizen, $1.80.

John J. Gilbride, democrat: Oct. 2, Tobin Printing Co., $28.50; Oct. 3, Charles A. Cole, auto service, $16; Oct. 3, Lowell Auto Co., $1.25; Sept. 20, advertising $3; Sept. 22, The Sun, $3.60.

Park Department

Three hundred small trees are expected in this city tomorrow, and weather permitting, the same will be immediately planted at Fort Hill park. A lot of shrubbery is also expected for the Lucy Larcom park.

Employees of the park department, better known as the tree-gang, are at work on cutting dangerous trees in the vicinity of the court house in Gorham street. Tomorrow morning a gang of men will be put to work on regrading a portion of the South common, from Summer street to the pond.

Supt. J. W. Kernan is today entertaining his close friend, Matthew J. Curtin, of Boston, engineer for the Bay State Street Railway Co.

GOV. FOSS TO SPEAK

Gov. Eugene N. Foss will speak from the city hall steps this evening. The governor, telephoned to city hall this afternoon, informing City Messenger Monahan that he will arrive in Lowell this evening and will address the voters of the Seaside City from the city hall, steps in Worthen street.

INTEREST BEGINS

SATURDAY,

NOV. 1

—AT—

THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK

55 CENTRAL STREET

Owned and managed by Lowell business men, offers its services to the commercial banking public.

Assets over One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars.

GEORGE E. KING, President.

MARCUS T. PIERCE, Cashier

Deposits received from one dollar to one thousand dollars.

Money Deposited now goes on Interest Nov. 8.

JOHN J. HOGAN, President.

THOS. H. MURPHY, Treas.

WASHINGTON

SAVINGS INSTITUTION

267 CENTRAL STREET

Over Lowell Trust Company.

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

4%

CHAS. MARINEL FOUND DYINGDastardly Assault Occurred Nearly ly Opposite Entrance to Vesper
Country Club at Midnight

In one of the most vicious assaults that has been perpetrated in this vicinity for many years Charles Marinel, a well known resident of Tyngsboro, was sandbagged and beaten nearly to death last night on the state highway nearly opposite the entrance to the Vesper Country club. The dastardly assault occurred about 11:40 p. m., the time he left the Tyngsboro car, and five minutes before midnight, the time when he was found.

Mr. William Collins, one of the Tyngsboro police force, found the huddled up body of the victim of the assassin's weapon as he was hurrying along toward his home. At first Mr. Collins thought that the man, whose dim outline he could only just discern, was either drunk or asleep and he stepped over to arouse him.

A hasty examination, however, served to tell the officer that the man who lay before him had met with foul play. Blood from a gash in his head was flowing freely and the man was in an unnatural position, evidently falling when the first blow landed upon his skull.

Assistance was hastily summoned and when a lantern was produced the true nature of the man's wounds were discovered. His head was in a terribly lacerated condition. Not only was he losing a lot of blood but his head was battered badly from the blows delivered by the death-dealing weapon and those who first saw the victim of the assault thought that he was dying.

He was carried to a nearby house as soon as possible and medical aid summoned. He was still unconscious. Dr. Lambert of Tyngsboro attended the man and announced that he was in a very dangerous condition and that he might possibly die before the night was out. His skull, however, was not fractured.

He pulled through the night, although several times he was all but given up by those who watched at his bedside. This morning Mr. Marinel was much improved though in a semi-conscious condition. Although all danger is not over yet, Dr. Lambert and Dr. Case who was called in consultation both hold out hopes for his recovery.

The motive for the brutal assault seems to be missing so far as is known. Marinel did not have much money with him when he left his home and nearly two dollars in change remained in his clothes when he was found after the assault. As near as his wife can tell no money was taken from him by the desperadoes who committed the inhuman act.

Mr. Marinel took the last Tyngsboro car which left Merrimack square last night. On the same car were two young men who are neighbors of his but who live a few hundred yards nearer the car line. The three men walked up the state road, although Mr. Marinel lives on the back road just above the entrance to the Vesper Country club. The walking was better on the state road and he chose it last night for this reason.

This is all that is known of the sand bagging. Neither of the young men heard a sound of any description before they entered their respective homes and both are of the opinion that if the victim had made an outcry of any kind that they would have heard it even after they were indoors. The natural deduction seems to be that

Mr. Marinel was struck down without a word and without having an opportunity to stave off the blow.

The wounds upon his head show conclusively that he was struck from behind. The probable method of the person or persons who struck the blows was to creep up behind their victim and deliver their dastardly blows without him ever knowing of their presence. The rain and darkness of last night would greatly aid such an attack.

Mr. Marinel has been a resident of Tyngsboro for years and is very well and favorably known. He is employed at the Moore mills of North Chelmsford. He is married and lives with his family only a small fraction of a mile from the spot where he was struck down last night.

Progressives

Gov. Hiram W.

JOHNSON

OF CALIFORNIA

WILL SPEAK AT

LOWELL MACHINE SHOP GATES

DUTTON ST.

Tuesday--12:30-- Noon

He was vice-presidential candidate with Colonel Roosevelt last year and is a progressive governor of a progressive state.

ALL UP TO DO HONOR TO THE GOV. ERMOR OF CALIFORNIA.

A. S. GOLDMAN,

255 Branch Street.

BANK

SIGNS

We have noticed that banks are interested in conservative advertising.

We have therefore complied some very interesting figures on electric signs.

Conservative banking

men! We invite you

to give these figures

your careful consideration.

Lowell Electric Light Corp.

50 Central St.

4%

4%

4%

4%

PROGRESS ON ISTHMIUS

France, Builder of Suez Canal, Follows American Work at Panama

PARIS, Oct. 27.—France, the builder of the Suez canal and first to begin the work in Panama, has followed American progress on the isthmus more earnestly perhaps than any other European country. Regret that France could not have completed the work so nobly conceived tinges the appreciative comment of French observers on the completion of the vast enterprise.

The French government has made a study of the effects of the opening of the canal on French commerce. The ministries of the navy, of commerce and the colonies appointed a commission of four members, M. Jullien, engineer in chief of the board of bridges and highways; M. Douvry, an engineer in the bureau of arts and manufactures of the ministry of commerce, and two naval officers, Lieutenants Hubert and Guyenne, to inquire into the effects of the opening of the canal on French shipping and trade in general, and particularly on French colonies in the Antilles and Oceania. The commission visited the canal zone and the French colonies concerned, and examined and sifted an immense amount of material.

The commissioners, after a full consideration of all the facts at their disposal, have reported that French commerce will not be greatly affected by the canal. Only 250,000 tons of French shipping will use the new route during the first year of its opening, nor can the commission perceive that French tonnage passing through the canal will be likely to increase greatly because the French mercantile marine generally tends rather toward a reduction than an expansion.

Declines of Canal

England and Germany, who hold the greater part of the maritime transport trade, will be the principal immediate beneficiaries of the canal, but America will, in the opinion of the commission, certainly take steps to promote a rapid growth of her mercantile shipping.

One of the most important consequences of the opening of the canal, the commission finds, will be not merely to provide facilities for existing commerce, but to create a new traffic which will result in the economic conquest of the Pacific and the exploitation of the natural riches of the western part of the two American continents by the capital and industry of the eastern states of the Union.

The canal, the commission predicts, will profoundly modify the situation of the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico ports of the United States from the point of view of the world's commerce. When the American manufacturer has the same advantage in respect to transport that he now has in the cost of production over his European competitor, the world's markets will be his. The rapidity with which business will increase in the United States will have far-reaching effects on the economic life of Europe, which will be obliged to transform present wasteful methods into a more scientific use of labor.

The United States, the French government investigators affirm, will obtain an insuperable advantage from the new canal, and Europe may even find its industrial activity diminished. While impossible to express in figures the economic consequences, some considerations are mentioned. The day before the opening of the canal, France, so far as transportation is concerned, will be nearer to all points of the west coast of South America than the eastern ports of the United States. The day after the opening of the Panama canal, the situation will be reversed. Guayaquil, Callao and Valparaiso will be more than 2000 miles nearer New York than to France, and New Orleans 3000 miles. The cutting of the isthmus will permit ships from the Eastern United States to reach far eastern Australia more easily.

Europe benefits now, not only by the non-opening of the Panama canal, but by the existence of the Suez canal, but if the Americans will have an advantage in their nearness to the markets of the west coast of South America and Australia, foreign ships will carry the imports and exports of the United States should the conditions now existing continue. Thus, the commission finds, if Europe does not benefit commercially by the opening of the canal, certain nations possessing a powerful mercantile marine, such as England and Germany, will have an important part in the economic conquest of the Pacific by the Americans.

The French colonies in the West Indies, the commission avers, are too far out of the track of commerce to count upon any great increase in traffic. Therefore, the commission does not recommend large expenditures on harbor improvements. In Oceania the commissioners found that practically all ships going through the canal to Australia and New Zealand will necessarily call at Tahiti, and recommend the expenditure of the equivalent of $1,400,000 on the improvement of Papeete harbor. Lighthouses should be built, the channel deepened and a proper coaling station constructed.

Explosive Oil Engine

The commission does not believe it necessary to make extensive arrangements for coaling at Papeete, because, in its opinion and that of the principal French shipowners consulted by the commission, the explosive oil engine for ships will entirely supersede the steam engine within from fifteen to twenty-five years. While the passage of so many more ships cannot fail to benefit the colonies in Oceania, the commission is not optimistic. The scarcity of labor will retard expansion. Cheaper freights, however, will enable such products as coconut fibre, plentiful in the colonies there and much in demand in Europe, to be profitably exported.

M. David-Mennet, the president of the Paris chamber of commerce, has made a study of the effect on French trade of the opening of the Panama canal, and in talking of the subject to the Associated Press correspondent said:

"I do not think that French manufacturers expect much immediate change in the exports of France. The principal advantages, as we look upon them, will go to the United States, and next after the United States, to England.

"The canal will open up trade with the west coast of North and South America. The exports of France are largely fine fabrics and other articles of taste and luxury. The considerable trade which we already have with the western coast of the Americas will increase with the development of those countries. We cannot help but profit in the future. But I feel that England and some other countries of Europe are better organized for sea traffic with the western coast of the Americas than is France.

"France does not offer the heavy freights which encourage the increase, not only in the number of American lines, but in the class of ships which carry heavy freights and which form such a material adjunct to the mercantile marine of England.

"Of course, the Panama canal will develop the trade of China, Australia and the Indies. The easier access to the enormous Chinese markets will not immediately benefit France. We have allowed ourselves to be outdistanced by England, and the requirements in those markets have not been of the kind that especially encourages French manufacturers. The textiles so largely shipped from England and the United States to China are far coarser and are made in much larger quantities than the fabrics we produce in France. We make a specialty of finer articles, such as are not manufactured in enormous quantities.

"As the taste of the Chinese people becomes Europeanized, they will find that France can better supply them with finer goods than other countries. In this way, France will benefit in the far east in the future more than immediately.

FOR WOMEN ONLY

Do You Feel This Way?

Backache or Headache
Dragging Down Sensations
Nervous—Drains
Tenderness Low Down.

It is because of some derangement or disease distinctly feminine. Write Dr. R. V. Pierce's Faculty at Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Consultation is free and advice is strictly in confidence.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

restores the health and spirits and removes those painful symptoms mentioned above. It has been sold by druggists for over 40 years, in fluid form, at $1.00 per bottle, giving general satisfaction. It can now be had in tablet form, as modified by R. V. Pierce, M.D.

Sold by Medicine Dealers or trial box by mail on receipt of 50c in stamps.

Who Saw An Axe?

Buck Saws 50c, 75c, and $1.00

Saw Bucks 25c and 35c

Axes 75c, $1.00 and $1.25

Axe Handles 10c and 25c

Handy House Axe 50c

(Free Auto Delivery)

ADAMS HARDWARE & Paint Co. 404-414 Middlesex St.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring Back Its Gloss, Lustre, Charm and Get Rid of Dandruff

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderline.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderline now—all drug stores carry it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, softness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderline is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and scalp itching; and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderline and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

Immediately after the opening of the Panama canal.

The Suez Canal

The Suez canal, created by a French enterprise, has its head offices in Paris. A study has been made there of the probable effect of the opening of the Panama canal. The expectation is that the tonnage passing through the Suez canal will not be reduced by more than five to eight per cent. This reduction will almost certainly be made up within three or four years, possibly in less time, by the natural expansion of the Suez canal traffic. The best relations have already been established between the officials of the Suez canal and those of the Panama canal. Prof. Emory Johnson, the American commissioner, was in consultation with the Suez canal management during the latter half of September, and it is understood that he will report in favor of using in Panama exactly the same rules of tonnage measurement as are now used in the Suez canal. It had been expected by the Suez people that the American tonnage charges, although nominally precisely the same as the Suez—$12.00 per net ton—were in reality, owing to the difference in American measurements, three per cent less.

"Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals," said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez Canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two different needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French official of Panama's rival waterway praised eloquently the methods which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Bertrand, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the revenues of the company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

OFFICERS BURNED

Explosion in Neponset Shoe Shop Caused by Gas Leak

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Patrolman George D. Kennedy of Neponset was seriously burned about the face and hands, Patrolman Daniel F. McLaughlin, also of Neponset, was burned about the hands, and scores of residents near 11 Copley highway, Neponset, were roused out of their homes at 8 o'clock last night by a loud explosion, heard for half a mile.

The whole front of the one-story wooden building occupied by David Bryn as a shoe shop, was blown out, doors were ripped from the hinges, partitions were cracked and plaster fell from the walls and ceilings as the building rocked from the force of the explosion, the cause of which is laid to a gas leak. All the windows in the place were broken and a small-sized pane followed the crash of glass into the street. An adjoining building remained untouched.

Directly in front of the shop at the time were several men and boys, but they got across the street before the destruction occurred. One of them, sounded box 254, which brought fire apparatus. The crews under Patrol Chief Neffernan kept the fire damage down to about $150.

About 10 minutes before the explosion, Patrolman Kennedy went to the building on information received from a lighting company man that there was a gas leak in the building. He entered, and in the darkness groped about to find the leak, carrying a lighted match. As soon as he reached the front of the shop the gas ignited with a roar. The officer was thrown to the floor and for a few minutes was lost to view lying in debris.

Patrolman Daniel F. McLaughlin arrived just before the explosion and was about to enter the building. He was hurled on his back to the sidewalk. Though not seriously hurt he picked himself up and got inside to the assistance of his brother officer. Both men were treated by Dr. C. J. Littlefield and then went home.

CONFISCATE FEATHERS

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—The national government's campaign against the importation of the feathers of tropical birds continued yesterday when customs officers confiscated some pheasant feathers worn by Mrs. Alice Osborne, of Cape Cod. Mrs. Osborne arrived on the Leyland liner Winfred from Liverpool.

GRAND CIRCUIT MEETING

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 27.—The stewards of the Grand Circuit will hold an informal meeting at the Holland house in New York on November 23 in which the betterment of several clubs of the circuit and the possible admission of two new tracks will be discussed.

The Narragansett track at Providence, R. I., and the Readville, Mass., track may be members of the big ring. It is said, and a discussion previous to the business meeting is deemed advisable.

GREET WILSON

South Gives President a Great Reception — Speaks at Mobile

ON BOARD PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPECIAL TRAIN, ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 27.—Thousands of southern folk in great, cheering throngs welcomed President Wilson to Dixie land yesterday as he sped through Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia, en route to the Southern Commercial congress at Mobile, Ala., where he delivered an address today.

The shrill notes of the rebel yell at Salisbury, N. C., awakened the president earlier than he had intended to rise, and as the autumn sunlight streaked over the Blue Ridge, a pilgrimage of admiring hosts began. At villages and hamlets where the president's train ran slowly, at cities where stops were made there were huge crowds, enthusiastic and happy at their first glimpse of Woodrow Wilson, the first native of the south elevated to the presidency since the Civil war.

"We walked 15 miles to see you," said a group of North Carolinians as the president appeared on the car platform at Charlotte.

They told Mr. Wilson they were from Davidson college, where he had prepared for Princeton. The president greeted them warmly.

"It's like coming home again," he said, and amid cheers hundreds of hands were stretched toward him. Mr. Wilson shook hands with many but refrained from making any speeches.

"Speech! Speech!" cried the crowd at Spartanburg, S. C.

"It's Sunday," smiled the president. "Well, we can't come for church, someone insisted. 'You could preach, you know.'"

"A political sermon," suggested a voice, and the president joined in the laugh that followed.

Among Familiar Scenes

Big boxes of flowers were presented to the president over the rail of his observation car at many points en route. The greatest demonstrations occurred at Salisbury and Charlotte, N. C., Spartanburg and Greenville, S. C., and Gainesville and Atlanta, Ga. Many of the cities brought familiar memories to mind, for Mr. Wilson spent his early life in this region. He practiced law in Atlanta. The Misses Margaret and Jessie Wilson were born at Gainesville and the president pointed out the house to Dr. Grayson, his aide, as the train rolled by.

Secretary Daniels, who is also to speak at Mobile, got a warm welcome on route, particularly in his home state—North Carolina.

Secretary Daniels had a brief talk with the president about the naval program in a preliminary way.

Secretary Daniels said that neither he nor the president had reached any final decision on the battleship program and that he would make no recommendations until he could obtain further information from Secretary McAdoo on expected revenues.

President Wilson is in sympathy with Secretary Daniels' idea of spending more money afloat and less on shore equipment, and also favors government ownership of an armor plate factory. It is the hope of Secretary Daniels that by economy on land, it may be possible to get three battleships without materially increasing the annual appropriation. Thus far, however, he has not committed himself as to the specific number of battleships he desires. He yesterday intimated he would later the matter for another week at least, as other important questions are now demanding the attention of the president.

SHORTAGE OF $2500

DIRECTORS OF OLD COLONY NATIONAL BANK OF TAUNTON FIND DISCREPANCY IN ACCOUNTS

TAUNTON, Oct. 27.—The directors of the Old Colony National bank refused yesterday to discuss further their announcement that a shortage of $2500 in cash had been discovered in the account of the paying teller, Charles P. Foster. The alleged shortage has not been called to the attention of the police.

The directors issued a statement at the close of a special meeting Saturday, saying briefly that a shortage of more than $2500 had been discovered in Mr. Foster's accounts following the visit of the bank examiners, that the loss would be covered by the teller's bond and that the teller was no longer in the bank's service.

Mr. Foster refuses to talk about the matter. He is well known in municipal affairs and has served several terms in the city government. He has been an employee of the bank for 20 years.

TEDDY LEAVES RIO JANEIRO

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 27.—Col. Roosevelt left Rio Janeiro at 8 o'clock yesterday evening by special train for Sao Paulo. The party was accompanied to the train by a representative of President Fonseca, by all the ministers, the members of the diplomatic corps, members of parliament and higher officials. The crowd cheered the departing visitors. Earlier in the day Col. Roosevelt, accompanied by the foreign minister, Dr. Lauro Muller and a committee, went on an excursion to Petropolis.

FOR THE KIDDIES

Our Toy Department is like Christmas all the time. New things arriving every day. Don't forget to take home something to the little one today.

—Toy Department—
100-108 North Main St.

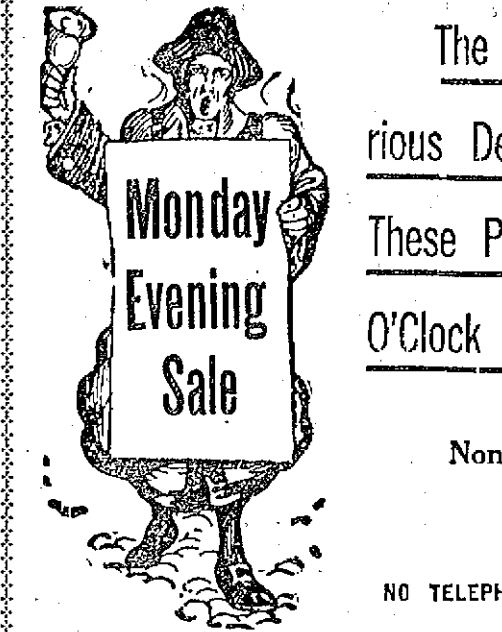

Shop With Us or We Both Lose

The Bon Marche

DRY GOODS CO.

SATISFACTION OR YOUR MONEY BACK

Read Our Advertisements Carefully. It Pays

MEN'S AND BOYS' SILK NECKWEAR.....16c
(Near Kirk Street Entrance)

Men's four-in-hand and open end ties, reversible, large assortment of neat patterns to select from. Regular price 25c. Monday Evening Price.....16c

MEN'S COAT SWEATERS.....95c
(Near Kirk Street Entrance)

Broken sizes, in gray, navy blue and cardinal. Regular price $1.50 and $2.00. Monday Evening Price.....95c

BOYS' NEGLIGEE SHIRTS.....38c
(Near Kirk Street Entrance)

Coat style with detachable collar, in light and dark patterns. Sizes 12 to 14. Regular price 50c. Monday Evening Price.....38c

SILVER AND GOLD SASH PINS.....17c
(Jewelry Dept.)

Handsome variety of patterns, some plain and some with stone settings. Regular price 25c. Monday Evening Price.....17c

BUNGALOW APRONS.....29c
(Second Floor)

Dark, medium and light colors in figures, stripes and polka dots. Regular price 39c. Monday Evening Price.....29c

WHITE LAWN AND BATISTE WAISTS.....98c

196 in the lot in about 25 different styles, mostly low neck and 3-4 sleeves, slightly mussed. Regular price $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. Monday Evening Price.....98c

EIGHTEEN INCH FLOUNCINGS, PER YARD 19c

Good variety of handsome patterns. Regular price 29c per yard. Monday Evening Price 19c

WOMEN'S HEAVY COTTON HOSE.....10c

Black or tan, double soles. Regular price 15c. Monday Evening Price.....10c

WOMEN'S JERSEY WOOL UNDERWEAR, PER GARMENT.....69c

Extra sizes in vests and pants, slightly imperfect. Regular price $1.25. Monday Evening Price.....69c

WOMEN'S NECKWEAR.....12 1-2c

Fancy collars and lace jabots. Regular price 25c. Monday Evening Price.....12 1-2c

112 PIECE DINNER SETS.....$6.95
(Basement)

Fine American porcelain with new spray decoration in gold and blue, each piece has gold lines, full set of 112 pieces. Regular price $10.00. Monday Evening Price $6.95

ALUMINUM PERCOLATORS.....$1.69
(Basement)

Made of pure Aluminum with glass top, six cup size. Regular price $3.00. Monday Evening Price.....$1.69

WALSH BY 40,000

Chairman of Democratic State Committee is Confident

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Predictions of victory in the state election Nov. 4, came from the rival camps last night together with announcements of plans for giving some vigorous finishing touches to the campaign during the closing week.

Judge Thos. P. Riley, chairman of the democratic state committee, issued a statement in which he said: "Observers who know every side of the political situation unanimously admit that Lieut.-Gov. Walsh will be elected governor by a plurality estimated at 40,000."

Gov. Foss, who is running for re-

The Following Specials From Various Departments Are on Sale at These Prices Tonight Only From 6 O'Clock to 9.30 O'Clock.

None Sold Before or After at These Special Prices

NO TELEPHONE ORDERS FILLED ON THESE ITEMS

LINEN FINISHED THREAD, 3 SPOOLS FOR 5c
(Notion Dept.)

"Regent" brand in black or white, all numbers. Regular price 3c per spool. Monday Evening Price.....3 Spools for 5c

ASBESTOS IRONING PADS.....2 FOR 5c
(Notion Dept.)

Cloth covered, asbestos lined. Regular price 5c. Monday Evening Price.....2 for 5c

GOLLAR PINS.....9c PER SET
(Jewelry Dept.)

Gold filled, two in a set. Regular price 25c. Monday Evening Price.....9c Per Set

WRITING PAPER AND ENVELOPES, PER BOX.....8c

Good quality paper, ruled and plain with envelopes to match. Regular price 15c. Monday Evening Price.....Per Box 8c

WOMEN'S HAND BAGS.....69c
(Near Elevator)

Made of real leather with change purse, in all shapes. Regular price $1.00. Monday Evening Price.....69c

MISSIE CHAMOIS Lisle GLOVES.....25c

Long style in white and natural. Regular price 59c. Monday Evening Price.....25c

WOMEN'S HOUSE DRESSES.....75c
(Second Floor)

All sizes up to 42. Made of fine percales and gingham in dark and medium colors, some were wet and slightly soiled in transportation. Regular price $1.50, $1.69 and $2.00. Monday Evening Price.....75c

TALCUM POWDER.....7c PER CAN
(Toilet Goods Dept.)

"Sweetland Violet," large sized can. Regular price 15c. Monday Evening Price, 7c Per Can

HOT WATER BOTTLES.....59c
(Toilet Goods Dept.)

Good quality, new rubber, two quart size. Regular price $1. Monday Evening Price 59c

ROGERS' TEA SPOONS.....6 FOR 49c
(Basement)

The genuine "William Rogers" sterling silver plated, guaranteed for ten years. Regular price $2.00 per dozen. Monday Evening Price.....6 for 49c

ASH CANS.....$1.39
(Basement)

Heavy galvanized iron, strongly made, with re-inforced sides. Regular price $2.00. Monday Evening Price.....$1.39

WOMEN'S GAITERS.....19c
(Shoe Dept.)

Black beaver cloth, ten button patterns, sizes 3 to 7. Regular price 25c. Monday Evening Price.....19c

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

THE 11th HOUR
ASBESTOS STOVE LINING

For lining or repairing linings of RANGES, FURNACES AND STOVES

For sale by The Quinn Stove Repair Co., 160 Middlesex St., H. H. Wilder, 20-31 Market St. Wholesale and Retail. Manufactured by Hartig & Miller, Louisiana.

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT OUR Remodeled Store

THIS WEEK

The changes in our store are completed and we are better equipped than ever before to serve the music-loving public

The remodeling of our store is but the exterior evidence of the superior facilities and greater advantages we offer in our various departments. To satisfy the most critical of the musical public, to give the largest measure of honest and reliable value for every dollar received, to render the most prompt, courteous and intelligent service in all musical lines—these have always been bed-rock principles of the Steinert policy.

To the practice of these principles rather than to the attractiveness of externals, we trust for the continuance of your patronage but we hope the appointments of the new store will make this a place which you will take greater pleasure in visiting.

We Invite Our Patrons

—TO INSPECT—

Our New Victor Rooms

ON THE STREET FLOOR

Our VICTOR department is now more conveniently located. Its stocks are larger. Its demonstration booths are more comfortable and are perfectly appointed. Come in and let us entertain you with an informal recital of the latest VICTOR records. Visitors always welcome.

A CLEARANCE SALE

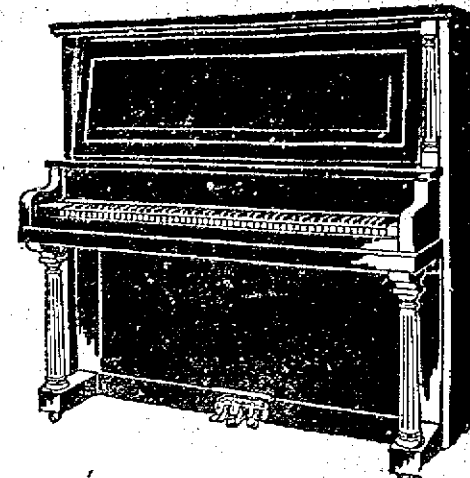

OF OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF

SECOND-HAND PIANOS

Besides the WOODBURY PIANOS to which we call special attention, we offer all our USED PIANOS of other makes at greatly reduced prices. We offer large savings and very low terms as we want to make room for more new goods.

THIS WEEK

We Offer at Greatly Reduced Prices a Number of the Well-Known and Reliable

WOODBURY PIANOS

Most of Them Are of the Style Which is Regularly Sold by Us For

$325

Handsome PIANOS of pure sweet tone, reliably made by New England workmen—durable in every part—the best piano values at their price—a price made possible by the economies of manufacturing and distribution effected by the great Steinert system. Prices for these rented pianos now in perfect condition as low as

$225

Small monthly sums convenient for you will be accepted in payment for any pianos offered this week for we want every one to be able to participate in this money saving opportunity. You can own a reliable, high grade piano you will be proud to possess as easily as an inferior one offered at inflated price.

M. STEINERT & SONS CO.

130 Merrimack Street, Lowell

NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST PIANO HOUSE

STORES IN ALL PRINCIPAL CITIES

HAPPY ENGAGEMENT PARTY HELD

Miss Rose Feldman Formally Betrothed to Sergt. Harry Whine

The Gallant Young Man Had Varied Experience in the U. S. Army

SERG. HARRY WHINE

A happy reunion of friends and relatives took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wiener, 33 Ware street, the occasion being the engagement of Miss Rose Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Feldman of Chelmsford street, and sister to Mrs. Wiener, to Mr. Harry Whine, a popular merchant of this city.

There were nearly a hundred people present, including relatives from Haverhill, Chelsea, Lawrence, Boston and the state of Maine, as well as several from this city. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Elias Wolfson, who delivered a fine address, giving the young couple considerable advice as to their future doings.

At the conclusion of the engagement ceremony a dainty dinner was served by the hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Wiener and a very pleasant evening was spent. The happy gathering broke up at a seasonable hour, extending their best wishes to Mr. Whine and Miss Feldman.

Mr. Whine, who is a nephew of Mr. Sam H. Roster, the Middlesex street merchant, is favorably known in this city, where he has been conducting a business for the past year. He was born in Austria 27 years ago and at the age of 16 years he came to this country, coming straight to Lowell, where he secured employment. In 1906 he was the opportunity offered a young man in Uncle Sam's army and enlisted in the service at Providence, R. I., after having been refused in Lowell.

He was immediately assigned to Fort Slocum, N. Y., where he became a member of the 51st artillery company. A short time later he was transferred to Fort Slocum, N. Y., remaining there until 1908, when he was assigned to Fort Howard, Maryland. In 1908 the artillery companies were divided by the war department and Private Whine joined the 140th artillery company, and in June of the same year he was promoted to lance corporal and 13 days later he was made corporal.

Corp. Whine soon gained a reputation for himself as being a well disciplined officer and his good behavior and military knowledge gained him a promotion to sergeant on May 7, 1909. However, the young officer did not want to stop there so he studied electricity and on June 19 of the same year successfully passed the examination for case mate electrician, one of the most important positions an enlisted man can obtain under Uncle Sam's rules. His work consisted of taking care of the mine fields, and accordingly he had to be constantly on duty. He was stationed about five miles from the shore and every morning his duty was to test the mines in the harbor by means of electrical switches. This position meant for the young soldier a liberal increase of wages. In 1910 he tried for master electrician, but inasmuch as his knowledge was limited, he did not pass, but nevertheless he was satisfied, for he claims this examination gave an opportunity to acquire considerable knowledge.

The young sergeant traveled considerably during his service, going from coast to coast, and from north to south. His first enlistment finished on Oct. 7, 1909, and he re-enlisted for three more years. He went to Ft. Houston in Texas with the mobilization camp in March, 1912, but did not remain there long for he was transferred to Fort Meyers, Va., and then to Ft. Howard, Md.

Sergt. Whine always took an active part in athletics and was catcher for the 10th artillery company's baseball team. A short time prior to his leaving the service he took part in a target practice for mines and received 100 points, and later was highly complimented by Gen. Wood on the condition of his wires and mines.

Sergt. Whine left the U. S. army in October, 1912, and came to Lowell, where he purchased a business at 505 Bridge street, which he has been conducting successfully since. His marriage to Miss Feldman will take place in the early part of January.

PREMIERS MEET

Important Question to be Discussed at Conference in Ottawa

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 27.—A protest against a reduction in the representation of the maritime provinces in the Canadian parliament is announced as the chief matter to be voiced by the premiers of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island at the conference of provincial premiers, which opens at Ottawa today. The maritime premiers contend that such a reduction in consequence of the more rapid growth of population of the other provinces would be contrary to the intention of the confederate agreement.

They will also bring up the question of compensation for the lands allotted to Manitoba and Quebec when their boundaries were increased in 1912. The maritime provinces claim that they are provinces of the confederation, and an equal right in those lands. Since the widening of the boundaries of the other provinces gave those portions of Canada further parliamentary representation, the maritime men claim that part of the compensation due the provinces by the sea should be in the form of a guarantee of "unreduced representation for them."

TO CALL TROOPS

Gov. Ammons to Declare a State of Insurrection if Strike Continues

DENVER, Oct. 27.—Governor Ammons today said that if the strike in the southern coal fields is not settled at once a state of insurrection will be declared and the militia will be ordered out to conduct a general disarmament of strikers and mine guards and the importation of strikebreakers will be suppressed. At a conference arranged for today Governor Ammons and former U. S. Senator Patterson will receive propositions for a settlement from the operators and submit them to the strike leaders.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY

COMMITTEE OF LOWELL BOARD OF TRADE IS PREPARING FOR LOCAL OBSERVANCE

The various sub-committees of the Lowell board of trade are becoming very active in preparing and outlining their fall and winter activities, and it is the intention of all to enter into the work of planning and executing the various projects concerning the city's welfare, in a manner that will be appreciated by the citizens. At half past three this afternoon the executive committee met and transacted the usual routine business. Tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock the members of the fire prevention committee will convene at the rooms of the board in the Central building, to outline plans and make arrangements for the observance of Fire Prevention day, which, according to the proclamation of the governor, is to be celebrated on Nov. 3. It is believed that this committee will arrange for an observance that will bring home to the people of this city the real significance of the day.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE
The program of the concert to be given next Wednesday evening by the Boston Philharmonic band, in the auditorium of the First Baptist church, has been received, and promises to be most enjoyable. The numbers are as follows: March, "Mayer Fitzgerald," dedicated to the mayor of Boston by Gustave Holm at the dedication of the

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

DEFENDS PRES. HUERTA

Dr. Howland Also Denies That Executive Had Share in Murder of Madero

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—The defense of Provisional President Huerta's administration in Mexico and denial that the Mexican executive had a share in the murder of former President Madero and Vice President Suarez was made by the Rev. John Howland, Guadalajara, a missionary in an address before the annual meeting of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions of the National Council of Congregational churches here today. He also paid a strong tribute to the role of Porfirio Diaz as worthy of the epigram "He made a nation and destroyed a people."

Dr. Howland has lived for 31 years in Mexico as head of the Collegio Internacional at Guadalajara. "The widespread idea that General Huerta seized the presidency," he said, "or that he came in through the door of assassination is entirely incorrect. His acceptance of the provisional presidency precluded his being a candidate in the present election and his government was established and both officially and popularly accepted days before the death of President Madero. Huerta had nothing to gain by the death of Madero."

President Madero left the treasury bankrupt and revenues were immensely reduced by the closing of most of the ports of entry, the interruption of traffic and general disturbance. The hostile attitude of American authorities against Huerta caused the bankers who had arranged a large loan to delay the promised payments and this has greatly impeded the pacification of the country. Mexico should be left alone. It is well able to take care of itself."

Parkman band stand on Boston common; overture, "Orpheus," by Offenbach; cornet solo, "My Native Land," by G. F. Helm; soprano solo, "Romeo and Juliette" waltz song, by Gounod. Miss Evelyn Blair; Hungarian dances, numbers five and six, by Brahms; overture, "Pique Dame," by Suppe; "Middles Serenade," solo for flute and saxophone; soprano solo, "Magic Song," Helmsund, by Miss Evelyn Blair; waltz, "L'Etudiant," by Waldteufel; selection, "Robin Hood," by R. DeKoven.

The other numbers in the course of entertainments will be the reading of the play, "Friend Hannah," by Elizabeth Penner Rice, on Nov. 12; the lecture of Hon. Homer Hulbert on "China and the Far East," Dec. 10; Lorado Taft, sculptor, Jan. 7, and the Lyric male quartet, March 4.

Course tickets may be obtained at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A.

Sneezing?

There's no need of it. Sniff a Little

Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly

There's no need of it. Sniff a Little Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly leged assault. He moved to another location shortly after the trouble. Constable John McManus was the first witness for the defense and he said that he, together with Margosian, the defendant and owner of the property in which the plaintiff lived, went to the house occupied by the plaintiff on the day of the alleged assault and that he did not witness any striking or pushing.

He also stated that he served several notices, asking Manuel J. Sousa to vacate the property owned by Margosian.

THE TEACHERS' MEETING

WILL BE HELD IN BOSTON NEXT FRIDAY—PROGRAM OF THE CONVENTION

The sixty-first annual meeting of the Middlesex County Teachers' association will be held at Tremont temple, Boston, next Friday, and the schools throughout the county will be closed on that day. The membership of the association consists of nearly 4000 teachers, and all meetings are largely attended. Mr. C. W. Irish, principal of the Lowell high school, is president of the association.

Some of the subjects to be discussed are as follows: "Teachers' Retirement Law," "Freedom in Early Education," "The Fundamentals in Teaching," "The Use of the Question in the Classroom" and "The School and the Citizen." In the afternoon there will be an entertainment and Mr. Henry H. Harris of this city will talk on "Teachers' Annuity Guild." Dr. Thomas F. Harrington, doctor of hygiene in the Boston schools, will speak on "Health Problems in the Schools."

SHOT FIVE TIMES

Woman Opened Bedroom Door to Investigate Noise She Heard

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 27.—Mrs. John Kuba was shot five times when she opened her bedroom door early today to investigate a noise she heard in the hall. The state police are searching for John McKiston, who is alleged to have quarreled with her husband last night. Mrs. Kuba is not expected to recover.

LOWELL ATHLETIC CLUB

ALL STAR SHOW

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1913

Charles Shepard of New York vs. Gus Leroy of Boston, 12 rounds; Harry Burns of Lawrence vs. Tommy McFarland of Boston, 8 rounds; Eddie Carr of Bennington vs. Young Brennan of Lowell, 8 rounds; Billy Brooks of Lowell vs. unknown, 8 rounds.

The VANDERBILT HOTEL

34 ST. EAST AT PARK AVE., NEW YORK.

"An hotel of distinction with moderate charges"

Within five minutes of principal railway terminals.

Situation ideal.

TARIFF: per day—$4.50, $5.00, $5.50, $6.00, $6.50, $7.00, $7.50, $8.00, $8.50, $9.00, $9.50, $10.00, $10.50, $11.00, $11.50, $12.00, $12.50, $13.00, $13.50, $14.00, $14.50, $15.00, $15.50, $16.00, $16.50, $17.00, $17.50, $18.00, $18.50, $19.00, $19.50, $20.00, $20.50, $21.00, $21.50, $22.00, $22.50, $23.00, $23.50, $24.00, $24.50, $25.00, $25.50, $26.00, $26.50, $27.00, $27.50, $28.00, $28.50, $29.00, $29.50, $30.00, $30.50, $31.00, $31.50, $32.00, $32.50, $33.00, $33.50, $34.00, $34.50, $35.00, $35.50, $36.00, $36.50, $37.00, $37.50, $38.00, $38.50, $39.00, $39.50, $40.00, $40.50, $41.00, $41.50, $42.00, $42.50, $43.00, $43.50, $44.00, $44.50, $45.00, $45.50, $46.00, $46.50, $47.00, $47.50, $48.00, $48.50, $49.00, $49.50, $50.00, $50.50, $51.00, $51.50, $52.00, $52.50, $53.00, $53.50, $54.00, $54.50, $55.00, $55.50, $56.00, $56.50, $57.00, $57.50, $58.00, $58.50, $59.00, $59.50, $60.00, $60.50, $61.00, $61.50, $62.00, $62.50, $63.00, $63.50, $64.00, $64.50, $65.00, $65.50, $66.00, $66.50, $67.00, $67.50, $68.00, $68.50, $69.00, $69.50, $70.00, $70.50, $71.00, $71.50, $72.00, $72.50, $73.00, $73.50, $74.00, $74.50, $75.00, $75.50, $76.00, $76.50, $77.00, $77.50, $78.00, $78.50, $79.00, $79.50, $80.00, $80.50, $81.00, $81.50, $82.00, $82.50, $83.00, $83.50, $84.00, $84.50, $85.00, $85.50, $86.00, $86.50, $87.00, $87.50, $88.00, $88.50, $89.00, $89.50, $90.00, $90.50, $91.00, $91.50, $92.00, $92.50, $93.00, $93.50, $94.00, $94.50, $95.00, $95.50, $96.00, $96.50, $97.00, $97.50, $98.00, $98.50, $99.00, $99.50, $100.00, $100.50, $101.00, $101.50, $102.00, $102.50, $103.00, $103.50, $104.00, $104.50, $105.00, $105.50, $106.00, $106.50, $107.00, $107.50, $108.00, $108.50, $109.00, $109.50, $110.00, $110.50, $111.00, $111.50, $112.00, $112.50, $113.00, $113.50, $114.00, $114.50, $115.00, $115.50, $116.00, $116.50, $117.00, $117.50, $118.00, $118.50, $119.00, $119.50, $120.00, $120.50, $121.00, $121.50, $122.00, $122.50, $123.00, $123.50, $124.00, $124.50, $125.00, $125.50, $126.00, $126.50, $127.00, $127.50, $128.00, $128.50, $129.00, $129.50, $130.00, $130.50, $131.00, $131.50, $132.00, $132.50, $133.00, $133.50, $134.00, $134.50, $135.00, $135.50, $136.00, $136.50, $137.00, $137.50, $138.00, $138.50, $139.00, $139.50, $140.00, $140.50, $141.00, $141.50, $142.00, $142.50, $143.00, $143.50, $144.00, $144.50, $145.00, $145.50, $146.00, $146.50, $147.00, $147.50, $148.00, $148.50, $149.00, $149.50, $150.00, $150.50, $151.00, $151.50, $152.00, $152.50, $153.00, $153.50, $154.00, $154.50, $155.00, $155.50, $156.00, $156.50, $157.00, $157.50, $158.00, $158.50, $159.00, $159.50, $160.00, $160.50, $161.00, $161.50, $162.00, $162.50, $163.00, $163.50, $164.00, $164.50, $165.00, $165.50, $166.00, $166.50, $167.00, $167.50, $168.00, $168.50, $169.00, $169.50, $170.00, $170.50, $171.00, $171.50, $172.00, $172.50, $173.00, $173.50, $174.00, $174.50, $175.00, $175.50, $176.00, $176.50, $177.00, $177.50, $178.00, $178.50, $179.00, $179.50, $180.00, $180.50, $181.00, $181.50, $182.00, $182.50, $183.00, $183.50, $184.00, $184.50, $185.00, $185.50, $186.00, $186.50, $187.00, $187.50, $188.00, $188.50, $189.00, $189.50, $190.00, $190.50, $191.00, $191.50, $192.00, $192.50, $193.00, $193.50, $194.00, $194.50, $195.00, $195.50, $196.00, $196.50, $197.00, $197.50, $198.00, $198.50, $199.00, $199.50, $200.00, $200.50, $201.00, $201.50, $202.00, $202.50, $203.00, $203.50, $204.00, $204.50, $205.00, $205.50, $206.00, $206.50, $207.00, $207.50, $208.00, $208.50, $209.00, $209.50, $210.00, $210.50, $211.00, $211.50, $212.00, $212.50, $213.00, $213.50, $214.00, $214.50, $215.00, $215.50, $216.00, $216.50, $217.00, $217.50, $218.00, $218.50, $219.00, $219.50, $220.00, $220.50, $221.00, $221.50, $222.00, $222.50, $223.00, $223.50, $224.00, $224.50, $225.00, $225.50, $226.00, $226.50, $227.00, $227.50, $228.00, $228.50, $229.00, $229.50, $230.00, $230.50, $231.00, $231.50, $232.00, $232.50, $233.00, $233.50, $234.00, $234.50, $235.00, $235.50, $236.00, $236.50, $237.00, $237.50, $238.00, $238.50, $239.00, $239.50, $240.00, $240.50, $241.00, $241.50, $242.00, $242.50, $243.00, $243.50, $244.00, $244.50, $245.00, $245.50, $246.00, $246.50, $247.00, $247.50, $248.00, $248.50, $249.00, $249.50, $250.00, $250.50, $251.00, $251.50, $252.00, $252.50, $253.00, $253.50, $254.00, $254.50, $255.00, $255.50, $256.00, $256.50, $257.00, $257.50, $258.00, $258.50, $259.00, $259.50, $260.00, $260.50, $261.00, $261.50, $262.00, $262.50, $263.00, $263.50, $264.00, $264.50, $265.00, $265.50, $266.00, $266.50, $267.00, $267.50, $268.00, $268.50, $269.00, $269.50, $270.00, $270.50, $271.00, $271.50, $272.00, $272.50, $273.00, $273.50, $274.00, $274.50, $275.00, $275.50, $276.00, $276.50, $277.00, $277.50, $278.00, $278.50, $279.00, $279.50, $280.00, $280.50, $281.00, $281.50, $282.00, $282.50, $283.00, $283.50, $284.00, $284.50, $285.00, $285.50, $286.00, $286.50, $287.00, $287.50, $288.00, $288.50, $289.00, $289.50, $290.00, $290.50, $291.00, $291.50, $292.00, $292.50, $293.00, $293.50, $294.00, $294.50, $295.00, $295.50, $296.00, $296.50, $297.00, $297.50, $298.00, $298.50, $299.00, $299.50, $300.00, $300.50, $301.00, $301.50, $302.00, $302.50, $303.00, $303.50, $304.00, $304.50, $305.00, $305.50, $306.00, $306.50, $307.00, $307.50, $308.00, $308.50, $309.00, $309.50, $310.00, $310.50, $311.00, $311.50, $312.00, $312.50, $313.00, $313.50, $314.00, $314.50, $315.00, $315.50, $316.00, $316.50, $317.00, $317.50, $318.00, $318.50, $319.00, $319.50, $320.00, $320.50, $321.00, $321.50, $322.00, $322.50, $323.00, $323.50, $324.00, $324.50, $325.00, $325.50, $326.00, $326.50, $327.00, $327.50, $328.00, $328.50, $329.00, $329.50, $330.00, $330.50, $331.00, $331.50, $332.00, $332.50, $333.00, $333.50, $334.00, $334.50, $335.00, $335.50, $336.00, $336.50, $337.00, $337.50, $338.00, $338.50, $339.00, $339.50, $340.00, $340.50, $341.00, $341.50, $342.00, $342.50, $343.00, $343.50, $344.00, $344.50, $345.00, $345.50, $346.00, $346.50, $347.00, $347.50, $348.00, $348.50, $349.00, $349.50, $350.00, $350.50, $351.00, $351.50, $352.00, $352.50, $353.00, $353.50, $354.00, $354.50, $355.00, $355.50, $356.00, $356.50, $357.00, $357.50, $358.00, $358.50, $359.00, $359.50, $360.00, $360.50, $361.00, $361.50, $362.00, $362.50, $363.00, $363.50, $364.00, $364.50, $365.00, $365.50, $366.00, $366.50, $367.00, $367.50, $368.00, $368.50, $369.00, $369.50, $370.00, $370.50, $371.00, $371.50, $372.00, $372.50, $373.00, $373.50, $374.00, $374.50, $375.00, $375.50, $376.00, $376.50, $377.00, $377.50, $378.00, $378.50, $379.00, $379.50, $380.00, $380.50, $381.00, $381.50, $382.0

CAPTURED BY DOG TO ASK DELAY

Man Confesses to Long List of Robberies—Never Used Gun

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—For five years William Bastain was accepted by business men as a responsible citizen, with a profitable wholesale jewelry business. His property investments were numerous and large; thousands of dollars were sent by him to support his mother in Germany and his young sister had the best educational and social advantages.

Today he lies in the City prison, a confessed robber with a record covering many years, captured by a pet bull pup who pinned him in a corner as he stole through a back yard in the night.

"My work has been so easy it has been laughable," Bastain told the detectives when he finally broke down. "I have never been disturbed while at work. The people I did business with believed me what I represented myself absolutely. Jewelers bought my diamonds and the mint took my melted gold without question."

"I have always been a natural thief and I have found it easy to steal things, but I am averse to killing or injuring. I had never been in a position where I had to shoot until Friday night. My reluctance to use my revolver caused my capture."

Bastain was making his way across the yard of the home of Ulrich Debrunner Friday night when Miss Jennie Debrunner's dog discovered him. The uproar brought the girl to the scene and while the dog held the man she summoned the police.

Evidence to substantiate Bastain's alleged confession is said by the police to have been found in his handsomely fitted apartment, where he lived with his young sister. The girl was ignorant of his source of revenue, he said, and the police were inclined to believe him.

Among the numerous burglaries to which Bastain is said to have confessed was the looting of the home of S. N. Wood, a wealthy merchant, of $8000 in jewelry last December.

A SHAVING AND SAVING PROPOSITION—

Shave Yourself With One of Our Safety Razors

GILLETTE.....$5.00 Up
GEM, JR.....$1.00
AUTO STROP.....$5.00
And all the popular makes.

SPECIAL—We offer the Duplex Safety Razor with one stick of Williams' Shaving Soap for 35c. We will send by Parcel Post at the same price.

Our Automatic Stropping Machine and Strop, regular price $1.50 98c

THE THOMPSON
HARDWARE CO.

254-256 Merrimack St.

Retiring From Business

READ THESE GOING-OUT-OF-BUSINESS PRICES AND COME GET YOUR SHARE.

Boys' Blouses 9c
Boys' Fleece Underwear..... 15c
Men's Fleece Underwear..... 28c
Men's Dress Shirts..... 25c
Men's Suits$5.00
Men's Trousers..... 89c
Boys' Pants 18c
Men's Overcoats$5.00

Everything Must Be Sold.

31-35 Merrimack Street.

Counsel for Thaw Wants Continuance in Extradition Proceedings

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 27.—Judge William A. Stone of Harrisburg, Pa., and Merrill Shurtlett of Lancaster, N. H., representing Harry K. Thaw, and Bernard Jacobs, also of Lancaster, representing the state of New York, left here this afternoon by auto for Rochester, where they will present before Governor Feltner at four o'clock the matter of a further continuance in the Thaw extradition proceedings which Thaw's counsel seek and which is opposed by William T. Jerome and Mr. Jacobs.

THAW AT HEARING
CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 27.—Harry K. Thaw, in the custody of Sheriff Draw, will attend the hearing before Governor Feltner at Rochester this afternoon, making the trip by automobile.

FLAGGED TRAIN

Another New Haven Wreck Prevented by Hartford Track Walker

HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 27.—The vigilance of a track walker averted a wreck on the western division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad near the Laurel-street bridge late yesterday afternoon. The recent heavy rains had undermined the roadbed, but had left an upper crust of earth and clinders, so that it was not apparent to the casual glance.

The track walker, noticing a small crevasse at the side of the tracks, jumped upon the ground and discovered to his surprise that he was sinking in a hole that was 10 feet deep and extended under two tracks for nearly 20 feet.

He rushed up the track and flagged an incoming train, which was due in 10 minutes, and later flagged an outgoing train. Traffic was tied up for some time until the damage was repaired.

THE TOWN OF BILLERICA

BOARD OF REGISTRARS HELD A LENGTHY MEETING SATURDAY—FOURTEEN NAMES ADDED

A long session of the board of registrars was held in the town hall last Saturday afternoon and evening and 14 names were added to the list, making a total of 701 voters in the town. There are 372 registered at Billerica Centre or precinct 1 and the remaining 329 at North Billerica, precinct 2. The meeting lasted from 12 o'clock Saturday noon until 10 p. m.

At the North Billerica church yesterday the pastor, Rev. Charles H. Williams, Ph. D., preached on the topic, "A Carpenter's Religion," and at the evening service his subject was "Grasshoppers." Special music was furnished by the choir under the direction of Miss Minnie Clifford.

Rev. Henry DeLong of Medford occupied the pulpit at the Unitarian church yesterday morning in exchange with the Rev. Lyman V. Rutledge, who went to Medford.

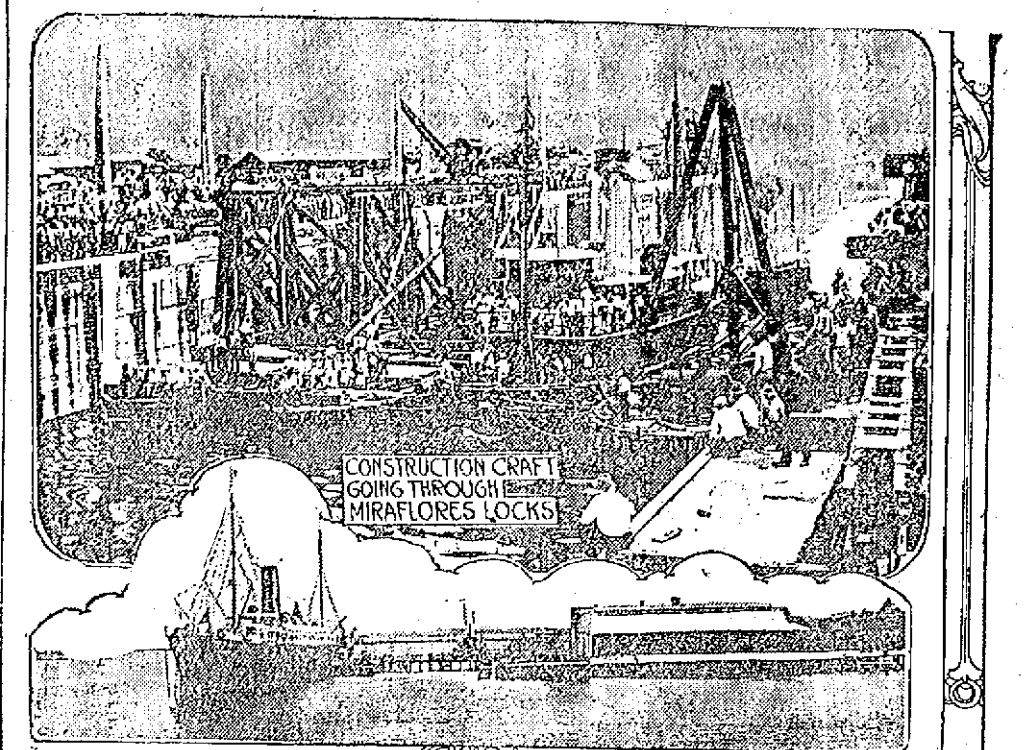

Mr. Ernest Rutledge of North Billerica has severed his connection with the Talbot mills to accept a position in Concord, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pleadwell of Quincy are visiting at the home of the latter's parents in the North village.

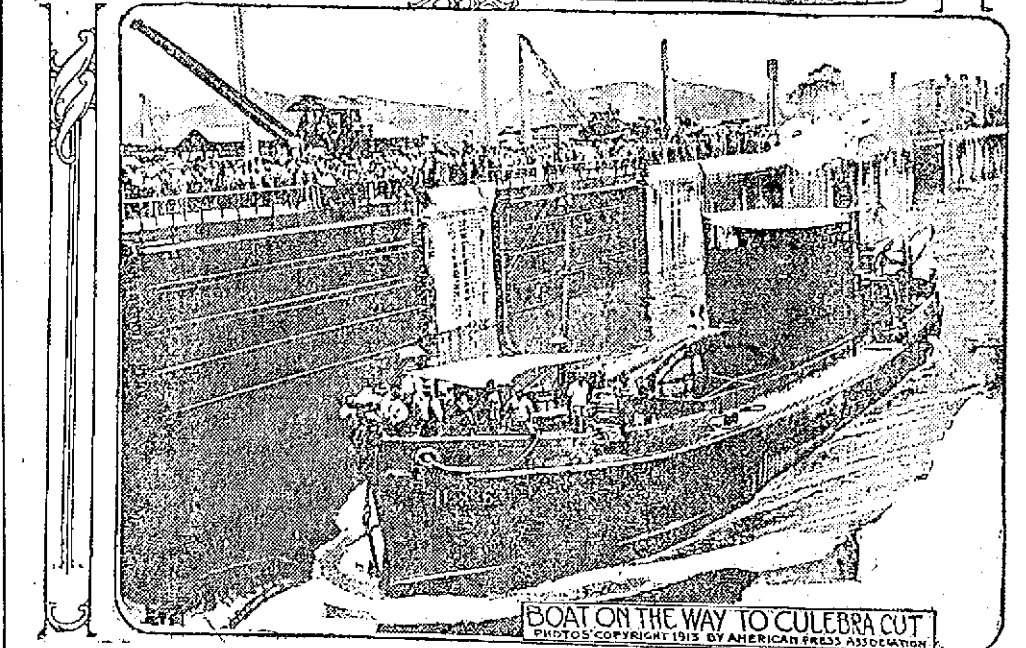

NEW PREMIER OF SPAIN

MADRID, Spain, Oct. 27.—Deputy Eduardo Dato, former minister of the interior and minister of justice, today accepted the office of premier in place of Count Romanones, who resigned because the chamber of deputies rejected a vote of confidence in his cabinet on Saturday.

LATEST PHOTOS FROM PANAMA CANAL, SHOWING ITS USE BY UNITED STATES SHIPS

CONSTRUCTION CRAFT GOING THROUGH MIRAFLORES LOCKS

BOAT ON THE WAY TO CULEBRA CUT

PANAMA, Oct. 27.—Ships are now making active use of the Panama canal from the Pacific entrance through the Miraflores locks and to the scene of the recent slide in Culebra cut. The illustration herewith shows a government work boat en route to the cut and a group of United States craft passing through the Miraflores locks. These are the latest photos taken at the canal.

CHRISTMAS TREE

For Chicago's "Children of the Street" Will be Placed in Park

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Chicago's "children of the street" are to have a municipal Christmas tree for the first time this year. The tree is to stand in Grant park, facing the lake front and is to be placed in position long enough before the holidays so that it can be sprayed with water and make a spray of glistening ice. According to plans of the Municipal Christmas Tree association the lake front is to be a blaze of light during the week or more the tree will be in possession.

Christmas carols will be sung and presents distributed.

SULZER TALKS

Says He Never Asked Ryan for Money—To Tell All, He Says

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—"I never asked Ryan for money; I never said, 'Tell your father I'm the same old Bill,'" declared William Sulzer in a speech to the voters of the sixth assembly district, where he is campaigning for election to the legislature on the progressive ticket.

Sulzer declared that Allan Ryan, a witness at the impeachment trial in Albany, in testifying that he had seen Sulzer $10,000 when he was a candidate for governor did not tell the whole story.

"I have made up my mind to do it myself," said Sulzer.

His only conversation with Ryan over the telephone after John Delaney, personal representative of Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, had called Ryan up from Sulzer's office, he said.

"I gave that $10,000 to Mr. Delaney," Sulzer continued, "and he took it up town and gave it to Mr. Murphy. Late that afternoon I saw Mr. Murphy at Delaney's. During our conversation I said, 'Did John give you the 10 from Ryan?' Mr. Murphy replied, 'Yes, that's all right, but it is only a drop in the bucket. You will have to do better than that.'"

"So far as I know and I am pretty well advised, Mr. Murphy never accounted for that $10,000 any more than he accounted for Brady's $25,000 which I refused and which he accepted from Judge Beardsley."

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

GLASS ATTACKS PLAN

PROPOSED BY MR. VANDERLIP FOR CENTRAL BANK—DESIGNED TO DELAY CURRENCY, HE SAYS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Reconstruction of the administration currency bill began today behind closed doors in the senate banking committee. The issue is clearly drawn between the bill as passed by the house and the central bank plan proposed by President Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City bank of New York.

Whether the administration bill, backed by President Wilson's uncompromising opposition to the Vanderlip plan and renewed support from administration supporters, will emerge triumphant from the senate committee or whether a middle ground will be found between the two measures, is the next question in the situation.

The senate committee begins work with a majority of its members admittedly favoring the Vanderlip plan. Administration supporters, viewing that bill, declare that such a measure could not be passed in the house and that the committee therefore must work with the administration bill as a basis, preserving its fundamentals, if currency legislation is not to be indefinitely delayed.

Chairman Glass of the house committee, one of the framers of the administration bill, issued a statement on the Vanderlip plan. It was in part as follows:

"I have somewhere read that in England—or maybe it was in Scotland—they used to have an annual fox hunt, one stage of which, with Reynard hound pressed, a red herring was drawn across the trail to divert the pursuit and give the fox another chance. Of course, what is popularly styled the money power in this country is no fox, nor would anybody dream of suspecting Mr. Vanderlip of being in the red herring business."

"Yet it happens to be a fact that the house currency bill is designed to correct the radical defects of a system under which concentrated wealth has ruled the nation; and likewise, it happens to be a fact that the Vanderlip scheme is projected at the eleventh hour of congressional consideration with the hope of indefinite postponement of currency legislation should the scheme be given serious attention."

Considering the arch of lands to be disposed of, it is said no great credit has brought such great crowds as have sought governmental lands in the two reservations. Railroad's entering North Platte have arranged for special trains to accommodate the crowds.

The corrected figures on registration show a total of 36,662.

BODIES FOUND

Rescuers Dig Out Victims of Mine Explosion—Think Others Dead

DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 27.—The bodies of Mine Superintendent William McDermott and Henry McShane, the young man from New York, were recovered last night in the fourth chamber north in mine No. 3 of the Stag Canon Fuel Co. Both bodies, with 16 others, were buried under tons of debris.

Positive knowledge was had last night that not one of the 284 miners caught in the explosion remains in the mine alive. Late yesterday the entire workings had been exploded by helmet men and it was learned definitely that the bodies not located are buried beneath tons of debris.

MRS. PANKHURST SECLUDED

Sees No Visitors During Stay in Cleveland and Leaves Secretly For Columbus

CLEVELAND, Oct. 27.—With the secrecy that has marked her movements since her arrival in Cleveland Friday, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst departed for Columbus last night. Virtually the only time she has been seen during her visit here was during her lecture Saturday night.

Yesterday she continued her policy of seclusion and the only persons who knew the hour of her departure were Miss Joan Wickham and Mrs. Eunice Brannon of New York, who accompanied her.

"It was said the strain of her trip and her lecture the night before was responsible for Mrs. Pankhurst's failure to mingle with the experts of the suffrage cause in Cleveland."

SCHOONER RAN ONTO ROCKS

ROCKLAND, Me., Oct. 27.—The three-masted schooner R. Bowers ran onto Spear's rocks near the battery yesterday while working into Rockland harbor for a better anchorage. The schooner left her stern high on the rocks and while she did not leak much during the day, she was in a bad position for an easterly storm. She was loaded with soft coal for Calais. The Bowers was built in Camden in 1879 and registers 115 gross tons. She hails from Boston but it is understood her owners belong in the Province.

CONSPIRACY TO DEFEAT FUNK

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Prepared for a severe cross examination from attorneys for the defense, Mrs. Josephine Hennings, who made a complete confession Saturday of her part in the alleged conspiracy to defeat Clarence S. Funk, resumed the witness stand today when the trial of Daniel Donahoe and Isaac Steffel was resumed. State attorneys expected the defense to attack Mrs. Hennings' character and were prepared to interpose objections to protect the witness.

It was expected that the cross examination would continue all day.

FRANK RICARD For Commissioner

GENTLEMEN, FELLOW CITIZENS:
I desire to submit to you, that I am a candidate for Commissioner and ask for your votes.

I was born in Canada of French parents. I am a Frenchman. Well, what of it? I feel that I have no excuses to make for the French nationality. I come before you as an American citizen. I therefore claim to have equal rights, equal considerations with any other citizen.

I came to Lowell as a boy and entered the mills. I was not satisfied to remain all my life in the mill, and learned the trade of a jeweler. I have made a reasonable success. I now own my store and other property showing thereby and proving that I have succeeded as a business man and that I am able to control and manage money matters.

I claim that those two points are the most necessary ones for a Commissioner to have at the present stage of the city government. In politics, this is my first attempt. In 1910 and 1911 I was a member of the Board of Charities. During the two years I conducted the affairs of the department in such a way that there was no complaint, very little criticism, and we left it in a position far better than it had been for very many years previous.

Voters, I claim that I am fully able to fill the position from age, and experience in business life, and in the standing that I hold among all those that know me. I ask you then for a most generous support and for your votes.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK RICARD,
Adv. 429 Fletcher Street.

THE THAW CASE ILLEGAL ELECTION

May Drag on for Years Only 10,000 Voted in Says Jerome—Evelyn Mexico—Huerta to Increase Army Unfairly Treated

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—William Travers Jerome of New York, at the Touraine last night, said it may be a question of years before Harry Thaw is returned to New York state. He hopes, however, he said, that the case will be quickly settled and the fugitive re-

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—At the close of the elections yesterday the indications were that not sufficient votes had been cast to constitute a legal choice for the presidency to succeed Gen. Victoriano Huerta. No official announcement was made last night but it was unofficially estimated judging from the results in the capital where it was expected the vote would be up to the average, that less than 10,000 of the 50,000 eligible voters in the federal district went to the polls. It would be no surprise if congress, the members of which also were voted for yesterday, declared the elections void when that body is organized and revises the returns.

GOV. SAMUEL D. FELKER

The leaders of the Catholic party claimed a long lead, although they were unable to estimate the number of votes polled for their candidates, Federico Gamboa and Gen. Escason. If this claim is correct, it is generally thought that Gen. Felix Diaz and Senor Requena ran second. The liberal candidates, Manuel Celero and Flores Magon, had no printed tickets at the polling places, their constituents being obliged to write their names in blank ballots.

President Huerta did not vote. He spent the day at his Popotlan suburban home. A decree will be issued by Gen. Huerta, increasing the army from 55,000 men, its alleged present number, to 150,000. Gen. Huerta proposed such an increase some time ago, but the congress which has dissolved limited him to 30,000. Since the deputies and senators are not subject to the election provisions governing the presidential election, it was said last night that the choice for congress is assured. It is assumed on the showing so far as known, the Catholic party will secure a majority in both chamber and senate.

President Huerta did not vote. He spent the day at his Popotlan suburban home. A decree will be issued by Gen. Huerta, increasing the army from 55,000 men, its alleged present number, to 150,000. Gen. Huerta proposed such an increase some time ago, but the congress which has dissolved limited him to 30,000. Since the deputies and senators are not subject to the election provisions governing the presidential election, it was said last night that the choice for congress is assured. It is assumed on the showing so far as known, the Catholic party will secure a majority in both chamber and senate.

300 WATCH RAID

Spectacular Gambling Clean up by Police—Two Arrested

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Nearly 300 persons stood in the driving rain in front of 356 Harrison avenue, yesterday afternoon, and witnessed the police of the East Dedham street station conduct a spectacular gambling raid. Two men were arrested and a complete lottery outfit was seized.

For two months past, Captain John E. Driscoll of the East Dedham street station has been suspicious of this house.

Yesterday morning the patrol wagon, with Detective-Sergeant Irwin, Sgt. Hurley and Mullen and a squad of officers, stopped in front of the place. Sgt. Hurley went to the front door and could not gain an entrance for some time. Finally, however, he got inside and met his brother officer, Sergeant Mullen, coming up the rear stairs.

Two of the men inside were arrested while trying to escape.

When booked by Lieut. Daly at the station the men gave their names as Salvatore Zaccaria, 26 years old, and Augusto Decrescho, 20 years old. They were charged with setting up and promoting a lottery. The police believe that the arrested men are agents for a big gambling syndicate and that they have disposed of many tickets in and around Greater Boston.

HUNTER KILLED BY BOY

GUILFORD, Me., Oct. 27.—The first fatality since the fall hunting season opened was reported yesterday from Guilford, where a boy shot yesterday afternoon by Morris Crockett, aged 14, of Abbott and died four hours later. Foster and Joseph Smith were watching for deer in a field beside the main road when the Crockett boy came along. In the growing dusk he mistook Foster for a deer, he said, and fired a charge of buckshot into his body.

BATTLESHIP TEXAS

ROCKLAND, Me., Oct. 27.—Bad weather and the delay in receiving new engine parts prevented America's highest dragline, the Texas, from trying to complete her standardization of the tests, which were not finished Thursday because of engine trouble, will be made today, it is expected.

SCHOONER SUNK IN BAY ST. MICHAEL'S NEW ORGAN

Desperate Battle of Captain and Mrs. Ray and Four Members of Crew—7 Hours in Open Boat

HULL, Oct. 27.—Capt. Ernest Ray, his wife and the four members of the crew of the three-masted schooner H. P. Haven staggered up the beach on the southeast bar of Point Allerton about 6 o'clock last night, more than seven hours after their vessel had sunk in Massachusetts bay 25 miles north-northwest of Highland light. Those seven hours they had passed in an open 13-foot power boat, over which the high seas broke continuously, beaten by the wind and whipped by heavy rain.

Mrs. Ray, barely conscious from exhaustion, lay up to her waist in water, while the Italian mate steered the boat through the fog and the captain and the other three men bailed unceasingly.

The schooner, bound to Bangor, Me., with 100 tons of coal for the Eastern Manufacturing company left New York Oct. 4, more than three weeks ago, and from the very start had met storm and high seas. For ten days she had lain at anchor off Point Judith and had sought shelter again at Vineyard Haven, one of a fleet of 100 sail driven into that refuge.

Yesterday morning the schooner left the Haven, had rounded the cape safely and was beating her way across the bay under light sail in the teeth of the northeast gale, when, about 10 or 11 o'clock, Capt. Ray is not sure of the exact hour, her water rotted rigging

The Changing Age

Girls and boys from 14 to 19 years of age undergo physical changes which tax their strength to the utmost and the strain is always apparent from pale cheeks, colorless lips, and tired bodies—sometimes eruptions of the skin and the utter lack of the ambition and vim with which their younger years were filled.

Budding into womanhood and manhood, with the duties of school or business, demands concentrated nourishment which is readily convertible into red blood corpuscles, energy and strength, and the very best thing for this changing age is the medical nutrient in Scott's Emulsion—it possesses the rare blood-making properties of cod liver oil in a predigested form; hypophosphites for the nervous system, with the healing, soothing qualities of pure glycerine.

It is nourishing force promotes assimilation, yields direct returns in abundant, red blood, fills hollow cheeks, tones the nerves, makes all good food do good, and does it in a natural easy manner.

The sustaining nourishment in Scott's Emulsion is so helpful in this changing age that it should never be neglected—every druggist has it.

11-112 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel, Pills, Act on Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils

Get a 10-cent box now. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect the gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

OUR CLEANSING PROCESSES

Are adapted to all kinds of garments. We cleanse quickly and thoroughly Suits, Gowns and Wraps of any material in any color or shade.

The Dillon Dye Works Just Across the Bridge EAST HERRIMACK STREET

Stove Repairs

Lings, grates, centers and other parts for all stoves and ranges, carried in stock. Work done at lowest prices. Bring name and size of stove, or telephone 4170.

Quinn Furniture Co. 160 Dimesex Street.

Exquisite Recital by Prof. O'Shea Assisted by the Church Quartet and Organist

The new organ at St. Michael's church was introduced to a gathering that filled the church to its capacity last evening, when Mr. John A. O'Shea, a leading organist of Boston, gave a beautiful and varied recital that brought out the fine points of the instrument. In his range of selections he gave some of the old, solemn pieces that are familiar to all who have a knowledge of church music, but he also played pieces that are not ordinarily heard during sacred services. Many of these were modern and of the fantastic or playful variety that gave a splendid opportunity to the organist to contrast the subtle tones of the beautiful organ in minor pieces with the solemn swell of the old time church music. The program was varied by vocal selections given by members of the church quartet and accompanied skillfully by Miss Ella M. Kelly, who has been engaged as organist.

Following is the program: Fantasia et Fuga (G Minor).... Bach Prelude, 6 Interludes and Finale, Whiting "After".... Mrs. O'Shea Sudds At Sunset (New).... Roland Diggle Theme, Variations and Finale.... Thilo Mr. O'Shea "Open the Gates".... Mrs. Knapp Venetian Nights (Barcarolle).... Shea Mr. O'Shea Repentir ("O Divine Redeemer").... Gounod Mrs. Murphy A Pastoral Suite (Third Movement), Demarest Tocatta.... Mr. O'Shea Callaerts "Suffer Little Children".... Underhill "My Rosary".... Mrs. O'Shea Serenata.... Moszkowski March from Tannhauser.... Wagner Infammatum (from "Stabat Mater").... Rossini

Mrs. Murphy and Mr. O'Shea Song of the Gossamer.... Mendelssohn Overture to William Tell.... Rossini Mr. O'Shea The power and volume of the new organ were demonstrated by Mr. O'Shea in the "Tannhauser" numbers, and the opening selections from Bach and Whiting. The "Fantasia et Fuga" is a piece of exquisite beauty, full of subtle changes that take one from the rippling notes of a playful interlude to tonal changes that seem to test the capacity of the organist fully. When Mr. O'Shea had played this number and the exquisite interludes and finale of Whiting the audience knew that it was listening to a musician and an organist of rare skill. One of the prettiest numbers of the recital was the "Venetian Nights, Barcarolle," composed by Mr. O'Shea himself. This seemed to have been composed with the express purpose of introducing new organs, for it gave the composer a chance to bring out the technical beauties of the various types of instrumentalization.

The well known overture to "William Tell" held the audience spellbound in its measured solemnity and as a contrast to Rossini was set the more spontaneous Mendelssohn, whose "Song of the Gossamer" was a delight. The intense silence with which the organ numbers were received was due to something more than the solemnity of the edifice, yet had the concert been given in a public hall its excellence would have been indicated by vigorous applause.

The vocal numbers were quite in keeping with the high standard of the organ pieces. Miss Griffin sang a difficult solo with rare feeling, and Mr. Thomas P. Boulger gave Mrs. Knapp's "Open the Gates" with great power and dramatic expression. The beautiful "Repentir" of Gounod was sung by Mrs. Murphy with exquisite taste and a mastery of technique. Accompanied by Mr. O'Shea she also sang the well known "Inflammatus" from the Stabat Mater of Rossini, which afforded her an opportunity to display the finest qualities of her well trained voice. Mr. James A. Murphy sang two numbers, one of them being the ever popular "Rosary" by Nevin. His singing was delicately shaded and he brought out the sentiment of the theme in both numbers.

BURIAL OF WHITE MAN

WILLIAM WHITE, FIRST TO BE INTERRED AT PORT NELSON—NEWS REACHES HALIFAX

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 27.—Port Nelson, far up on the shores of Hudson bay, has seen its first burial of a white man. News of the ceremony has reached here on the last steamer to leave the port before it settled down to its ice bound winter of more than nine months.

The dead man was William White and was supposed to have come from London, England. He was a seaman on the schooner Cerise. After the wreck of that vessel off Port Nelson he came ashore with his shipmates and worked as longshoreman at the construction camp at Port Nelson. An internal abscess caused his death on September 30, and he was buried in a quiet spot on the banks of the Nelson river, not far from the Indian tepees. His grave was marked by fellow workmen with a simple wreath and cross woven from varicolored moss.

COW CAUSED SIX DEATHS

TRAIN HITS HER AND CAR BEARING LABORERS IS OVERTURNED INTO WATER FILLED DITCH

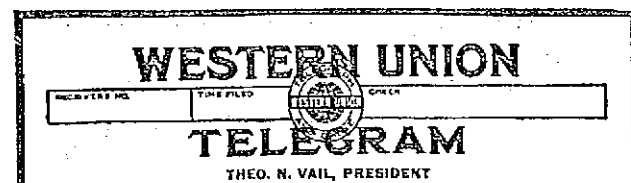

GARYVILLE, La., Oct. 27.—A cow was responsible for the killing of six negro laborers and the serious injury of seven others near here Saturday. A locomotive hauling a log train struck the cow, causing a flatcar to overturn and throwing the negroes into a ditch filled with water. The car pinned the negroes beneath it.

$2.50 A PIECE FOR KISSES

Married Man Who Grabbed Young Girl and Imprinted Two Kisses on Her Lips Fined

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Camale Pazzado paid $5 in the Montclair, N. J., police court for imprinting two kisses on the unwilling lips of Miss Cornelia Senna.

The girl said she was walking on Highland avenue and before she could prevent, Pazzado kissed her twice. Pazzado denied the charge. Recorder Yost at first fined Pazzado $15, but reduced the amount when Pazzado's wife begged leniency.

The telegraph ought to reach every community and fit its services to the varied needs of all the people.

This is what the Western Union is trying to accomplish

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY

COAL Best, Clean and Fresh Mined

Wm. E. Livingston Co. Tel. 1550. 15 Thorndike St. Est. 1828

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Excellent Values in the Dry Goods Section of Our Great Under-price Basement for the First of the Week's Shopping

MELTON FLANNELS—Remnants of Melton Flannel in very handsome patterns and colorings for kimono, 15c value on the piece, at 10c Yard

PRINTED FLANNELLETTES—In medium and dark colors, good heavy quality for waists and house dresses, 10c value, at 8c Yard

CHINCHILLA FLANNEL—Remnants of Chinchilla Flannel in plain pink, blue, cream and white; heavy quality for kimono and children's bath robes, 10c value on the piece, at 12 1-2c Yard

COTTON DRESS GOODS—Remnants of Cotton Dress Goods in dark colors, excellent fabric for children's dresses, 12 1-2c value on the piece, at 7c Yard

WOOL BLANKETS—Fine Wool Blankets, full 11-4 size, made of fine California wool, blue or pink borders, with two-inch taffeta ribbon binding to match. $6.00 value. Special at $4.50 Pair

DRESS GINGHAM—Remnants of Dress Gingham, plain chambray and fancy, 10c value, at 6 1-4c Yard

MERCERIZED DAMASK—About 30 pieces of fine Mercerized Table Damask, slightly soiled, at one-third less than regular prices. 58 inches wide, 30c value, at 29c Yard

64 inches wide, 45c value, at 35c Yard

72 inches wide, 55c value, at 39c Yard

YARD WIDE OUTING FLANNEL—Remnants of Yard Wide Outing Flannel in stripes and plain white, 12 1-2c value, at 10c Yard

MERRIMACK ST. SECTION Ladies' Flannelette Gowns—Ladies' Night Gowns, made of heavy outing flannel and cut full size, 60c value, at 50c Each

Misses' Flannelette Gowns—Misses' Gowns, made of heavy outing flannel, sizes 8 to 14 years, at 49c Each

Children's Flannelette Gowns—Children's Gowns, made full size, 50c garments, at 29c Each

MEN'S FURNISHING SECTION BASEMENT

Men's Fleece Underwear—Single and double breasted, in all sizes, good value, at 45c Each

Men's Jersey Ribbed Underwear—Good, heavy garments, made of good combed yarn, at 45c Each

Boys' Jersey Fleece Underwear—Boys' Jersey Underwear—fleece lined, warm garments, at 25c Each

Boys' Fleece Lined Underwear—Boys' Heavy Fleece Lined Underwear, very good garments, at 25c Each

Men's Sweaters—Men's Heavy Wool Sweaters, red and gray, made in the latest styles. Special value at 98c

BASEMENT

SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

THE CONGREGATIONALISTS

PROMINENT LEADERS AT CONVENTION OCCUPIED PULPITS IN KANSAS CITY CHURCHES YESTERDAY

Dean Chas. R. Brown of Yale Divinity School Emphasizes Need of More of Right Kind of Men

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27.—The need of the right kind of men to be trained for the high task of spiritual leadership was emphasized by Dean Charles R. Brown, of Yale Divinity school, in an address delivered here last night at the National Council of the Congregational church.

"We have not nearly enough men with sound health, of positive and vigorous build," declared Dean Brown, "men with warm social sympathies; men with sufficient mental capacity to take training; men of commonsense; men of genuine Christian character. Give us a more adequate supply of such men and we will send you leaders worthy to sit on twelve thrones of power."

Dean Brown said that there were two main sources of supply—the Christian home and the Christian college. "I fear that in this hurried, restless life of ours, the first-named source is not being adequately maintained," he continued. "There are homes nominally Christian where the mother finds time abundant for all manner of social diversion, but never from month's end to month's end devotes one complete hour to the high task of teaching her children the truths of that Book or of lifting up their spiritual needs in prayer to God."

As to the other source, Dean Brown asserted that many of the great historic universities and many of the state universities of the middle west were saying to the call for spiritual leadership: "It is not in us." The percentage of graduates from these institutions, he said, was practically small.

"The one supreme qualification for moral leadership," declared Dean Brown, "must come in that personal, inevitable spiritual passion which springs from daily fellowship with the Lord Christ. If we are defective in our church life today, it is due, I believe, more than all else, to a deficiency at this point. We have not men enough in our pulpits who count themselves candles of the Lord lighted from above and ready to burn to the socket to light the way of those who sit in darkness."

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—The dream of the Congregational church is the unity of the church of Jesus Christ. The Rev. Oliver Huckel of Baltimore thus defined the church's position in an address yesterday afternoon in connection with the national council of the church. Prominent leaders occupied pulpits yesterday and spoke on various subjects.

Rev. Charles E. Jefferson of New York city, declared America has four dragons to meet and conquer, the first of which is greed.

Mothers of the nation should devote less time to social diversion and more to the training of their sons and daughters, declared Moderator Charles R. Brown of the Yale divinity school.

Rev. Carl S. Patton of Columbus, O., deplored the tendency of ministers to discuss from the pulpit and in the press the alleged decadence of the church.

Rev. Ernest B. Allen of Toledo, O., asked a campaign for bringing young boys who are kept from attending public school through poverty or misfortune, into the Sunday schools.

Secretary Henry A. Atkinson of Chicago addressed a joint meeting of church leaders and the Industrial Council at Labor temple, defining the church's attitude toward labor.

Warm—Strong—No Scratching

Good, healthful warmth without unnecessary weight or scratching is one of the big superiorities of

BRISTOL MILLS Men's Merino Underwear 50c $1.00

50% Extra Value

Made of fine-gauge, closely knitted yarns. Long or short sleeves, and regular or stout drawers. Frills and cuffs "looped on." All seams lock-stitched and covered.

BRISTOL Union Suits—with the Trouser Seat—4 weights—$1.50 and $2.00.

Look for the Bristol Shield

Ask Your Dealer

THRILLING RIDE

Large Auto Knocked an Electric Car from Rails in Boston

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—A Park square-bound electric car was struck by a large touring automobile at Beacon and Charles streets, yesterday afternoon, knocked from the track and took a 50-foot ride over the cobblestones until it crashed into the curbing, the forward trucks mounting the sidewalk and the front vestibule coming to a rest within a few inches of the iron fence on the Charles street side of the public garden.

The auto was driven by Edward H. Chapin, a Boston lawyer, who lives in Andover. He had two friends, one a woman, with him. There were seven passengers, several of them women, in the street car. Nobody was hurt, and a pane of glass in the car was broken and the total damage was the tearing away of the front and rear steps on the right hand side of the car, the bending of the left mud guard of the auto and the smashing of one of the machine's headlights.

The street car was in charge of Motorman M. N. Dunlavy and Conductor C. H. Taylor, both veterans in street car work. They agreed that the ride was the roughest as well as the most thrilling in their careers.

The automobile was coming along Beacon street toward Beacon hill. The tall building on the corner of Beacon and Charles street impeded the view and the auto and street car attempted to cross one another's paths. The auto struck the street car at the rear platform, with force sufficient to make it leave the rails and made a dash over the pavements toward the public garden entrance.

Traffic was impeded but a short time. An emergency crew soon had the street car back on the rails.

COAL PRICE QUALITY AND WEIGHT COAL COAL COAL

Three reasons why we ask for your trade.

HORNE COAL CO.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor
SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.
Member of the Associated Press
THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

THE MOVIES AND DIME NOVELS

There is something more pathetic than revolting in the story of the two "boy bandits" who broke into the Bleachery station in Waltham on Thursday last and who, when discovered, tried to escape down the Charles river in a rowboat, one of them having two revolvers with which he kept his pursuers at bay until forced to surrender by wounds from a shot gun. The story told by William Dubois gives more than a suspicion of a mind obsessed by the lurid melodramas too often seen in the moving picture house and the sensational wild west episodes of the dime novel. It will not be surprising if a fuller investigation of the past of the two juvenile desperados reveals more serious crimes; they were prepared to go the limit in their schemes of robbery as the carefully made plans for future breaks and the hundreds of cartridges found on Dubois eloquently testified. To find the influence of the moving picture house and the wild west story one need but read the pitiful confession of the first boy captured, which began by telling how he worked in a Lawrence mill, but firing of it resolved to go west, and how he rode on freight trains and with his companion broke into a hardware store to secure the ammunition necessary for a life of crime.

The published pictures of Dubois do not show a criminal face, but the ordinary type of rather expressionless countenance which one meets daily on the streets. He does not speak like the professional criminal either. If the interviews published are correct. He is reported to have cried many times in jail, especially when his mother and sisters were mentioned. All of these facts lead us to believe that this young boy who might have murdered several did his shots take effect has been almost unconsciously driven to crime by the overpowering suggestions which his apparently weak mind found in some strong external influence such as melodramatic pictures or vicious books. The incident does not stand alone. There is scarcely a week that houses are not fired, robberies committed, playmates accidentally killed, young lives yielded up in suicide—all due to the bad influence of the movies and cheap stories.

Moving pictures may be made an elevating and instructive influence on the mind of youth or the contrary, according to their character. If they refrain from the more gross characterizations of robbery, murder and the like and conform to the more desirable type of the legitimate drama they are highly educational and innocently amusing. Many pictures, however, have for their main interest some feature that would tend to destroy the moral sense of immature youth. An illustration comes to mind in the case of an eager boy who not long ago in a local theatre pulled the sleeve of a lady sitting in the next seat, to prepare her for the most exciting parts. The boy was nervous and excited and kept making remarks under his breath such as "Gee! here's where he gets killed," or something to that effect. When asked by the lady if he had seen the picture before, he answered that he had been to see it four or five times. It is not many steps from the case of that boy to a young bandit flourishing a revolver and determined to die rather than surrender. He was being made criminally insane or something like it.

Sooner or later the state will step in and make far more rigorous laws than there are at present about the type of picture that may be shown in moving picture theatres and the books that may not be sold lawfully. We hear a great deal of protest about the licentious high priced play, but it is not half as injurious as pictures that at present pass the censor. Comparatively few go to plays such as those forbidden in New York, but thousands of boys and girls in every part of the country are injured by the insidious poison of lurid pictures and trashy books that are the products of sensational and abnormal imaginations.

politicians and all politics has grown. This distrust, however, will fade away when the people realize that now more than ever before the will of the people is all powerful in legislation. Voters will again see at some future day that every vote honestly and conscientiously cast is a blow for principle.

As the coming election draws near it is to be hoped that the voters will get aroused to their duty and go to the polls in their strength as American men should. The situation may be involved and the candidates many, but any man who has common sense can find some reason or reasons why he should vote for one in preference to the other. Even though the man of his choice may not be successful, his vote will not be thrown away if he voted as his conscience and sense of duty dictates. No honest vote is ever thrown away.

A PUBLIC MARKET

The public market question which Mayor O'Donnell again brought to public attention at the recent meeting of the directors of the board of trade does not seem to have progressed here originally beyond the hearing stage, but nevertheless a great many people felt that the arguments put forth by the farmers of the vicinity and others at city hall would justify a trial of the experiment. In the city of Fall River, however, they have brought the matter to a head, and the voters of that city will be asked to vote on the referendum question whether a public market shall be established in that city. The Fall River Herald does not speak very enthusiastically of the proposition, but its principal objection seems to be based on the cost as $25,000 is the sum mentioned "for a starter." Those who advocated a public market here did not suggest any such outlay as this as it was felt that a beginning could be made with a very slight outlay. In fact, a public market could be conducted in the open for many months of the year and such markets are found profitable to the public in many important cities. The Fall River paper states, too, that in some places the greed of the producers more than offset any advantages from the market as they got together and agreed on prices very close to those of the regular stores. If this is the usual proceeding, the fact was not brought out at the city hall hearing. We are inclined to take a more optimistic view of the value of the public market than our esteemed contemporary.

MEXICAN CRISIS NEAR

There is a tide in the affairs of Mexico and it will be at the flood in a very few days. For many months this country has allowed the southern republic to work out its own salvation as best it could, interfering in no way but at the same time seeing that the arrogance of Huerta did not go beyond bounds. This course of the administration led many hot-headed patriots to burn with indignation at what they called the president's negative or cowardly attitude and they quoted the Monroe doctrine to prove that the United States was not doing its duty.

President Wilson was not forgetting the Monroe doctrine and he is about to reveal the fact to the rest of the world. A few unofficial interviews that seemed to infer adverse criticism on the part of other powers have prompted him to determine that no other nation must intervene in the affairs of Mexico. This, of course, can only mean that if there is to be intervention, America will attend to it. Meantime it would seem that the people have been afraid to take part in the elections and that Huerta is more of a dictator than ever. If Huerta comes out still on top after elections, it may take something more than moral force to settle the question. American patience seems nearly exhausted and a Mexican war does not seem entirely improbable in the near future as a last resort.

FIGHT 12 HOURS

General Battle Between Strikers and Guards in Berwin Canyon

LUDLOW, Col., Oct. 27.—A general battle between strikers, mine guards and deputy sheriffs was waged for 12 hours yesterday in Berwin canyon at Hastings and in the vicinity of the Colorado and Southern station at Ludlow.

Firing started at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and continued intermittently until nearly 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. One mine guard was killed and, according to union men, one striker is missing.

The situation is extremely critical. More than seven hundred armed strikers are reported to be in the field against the mine guards.

Armed strikers patrol the entire district in the vicinity of Ludlow and communication with the camps of Cedar Hill, Berwin, Hastings, Del Avanca and Tobacco has practically been cut off.

LOVE LETTERS

Harvard Men Spend $83,000 a Year for Stationery

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Harvard men are the busiest group of letter writers on the continent of the globe. They spend more for stationery per year than they do for tailoring and furniture bills, and the Harvard Co-operative society, which caters to the trade of the Cambridge undergraduates, has statistics to prove it.

It is "love that makes the world go round," as a lyric writer expressed it, and it is also that delightful abstract quality that keeps the paper mills running night and the counter clerks busy all the day long. Also, the love letters that the 300 students at Harvard write keep the postal workers in the Harvard square branch postoffice constantly on the run in sorting the messages and sending them on their way.

The Harvard Co-operative society, which issued its reports for the year 1912-13 this week, shows that the college men spend more on books at the two large stores of the society than they do for anything else. During the year the students lost the $103,000 in volumes connected with their college work.

Next to books come looks with the undergrads. It seems, for the next highest item, one for $86,000, is for furnishings, including cravats, shirts, collars, caps, canes and the like. After that comes a strong third, is the bill for stationery—$83,000 for a year.

They carry all kinds of amour paper at Harvard—scented, tinted, initialed, embossed, engraved and plain. If the $83,000 a year for stationery is up to the mark, the students must be writing a great deal of love letters. The contrast might help to solve a hitherto problem.

The cost of living looks insignificant when its items are balanced off against the price of stationery at the university. Such commonplace necessities as coal and wood and furniture cost the students $38,000 and $32,000 a year respectively. The great difference between the $83,000 that goes for stationery and the $38,000 that goes for coal and wood makes the undergraduates burn stationery instead of the ordinary fuel. They burn the paper with words anyway.

The last item of which the society keeps an account is for tailoring. This is only $46,000 a year, or less than half of the writing material outlay.

Eighty-three thousand dollars' worth of love letters with perhaps a few "please-send-a-check, soon" missives thrown in, is a lot even for Harvard to figure out, and it will take more paper to arrive at the final conclusion as to who gets the letters.

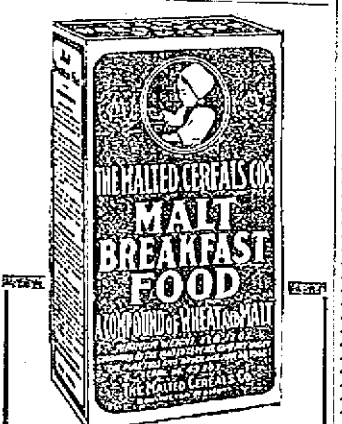

SEIZE PLUMES

Feather Valued at $600 Taken From Daughter of Former Inspector

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The single seizure the Customs inspectors have made since the new regulations prohibiting the importation of aigrettes went into effect is on record as the customs house today as that of plumes valued at $600 taken from Miss Edna McLaughlin, daughter of a former police inspector here, who arrived yesterday from Europe. The young woman had frankly declared the fine feathers, as part of her apparel which was valued in all at $500 and was shocked when she learned that regard was of her declaration the inspectors must seize the aigrettes. She protested that she had brought the plumes in this country but learned to her dismay that only 24 hours before her arrival an order had been issued for the seizure of all such feathers whether originally purchased in this country or abroad.

FIGHTING AT MONTEREY

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 27.—Monterey had not been captured at a late hour the night and desperate street fighting was still in progress, according to official advices received by constitutionalists at their headquarters at Matamoros yesterday. Private advices said the constitutionalists had suffered heavy losses and that 3000 federals were engaged.

A Delicious Breakfast Dish

A natural builder, Malt Breakfast Food supplies you with energy and strength that will give zest to the day's work. Most economical; a 15c package makes 30 big portions of a sweet, nutty cereal.

Hamilton coupons in every package. At your Grocer's.

Malted Cereals Co. Burlington, Vt.

T. J. REAGAN GENERAL ORGANIZER

Lowell Man Honored by the Textile Workers of America

Three Local Unions Represented at Convention in Philadelphia

Messrs. Moses L. Daigle, James Carney and Thomas J. Reagan of this city have returned from the annual convention of the Textile Workers of America, which was held during the past week at Philadelphia, Pa., and where they represented the loomfixers and the weavers' locals of Lowell. The delegates are well satisfied with the results of the convention, particularly for the fact that a Lowell man, Moses L. Daigle, was elected on the executive board, while Thomas J. Reagan, also of this city, was appointed organizer general for the organization.

There were 53 delegates present, representing 66 locals from nine different states. The convention, which lasted a week, was held at the Labor Lyceum, a fine building erected by the labor organizations of Philadelphia, and a considerable business was transacted, among which was the election of the board of officers for the ensuing year.

In the course of the convention it was announced that the Textile Workers of America now count about 35,000 members in its ranks, with 66 locals, three of which are in Lowell, the Loomfixers, Weavers and Ring Spinners. The organization is affiliated with the Textile Workers of Europe and both count a membership of 63,344. Thomas J. Reagan of this city, who for some time has been doing organizing work for the Textile workers in the state of Pennsylvania, was complimented on his work, and tomorrow evening a class of 700 new members, the fruit of Mr. Reagan's work, is to be initiated into Philadelphia locals. On account of his excellent work Mr. Reagan was appointed permanent general organizer for this large organization and he will take up his duties in a couple of weeks. The officers chosen for the ensuing year are as follows: John Golden, Fall River, president; James Tansley, Fall River, first vice president; Thomas J. Morgan, Paterson, N. J., second vice president; Albert Hibbard, Fall River, secretary-treasurer; executive board, Moses L. Daigle of Lowell, Thomas O'Donnell of Fall River, Samuel Ross of New Bedford, John Hoban of New Bedford, Thomas Taylor of Fall River, Urban Flemming of Holyoke, Jesse Walker of Cohasset, N. Y., John Floor of Cohasset, N. Y., Robert Stump of Brooklyn, John Tasso of Scranton, Pa., Joseph Starr of Fall River, August Christensen of Philadelphia, Frank McKorgy of Philadelphia, Arthur McDonald of Fall River, and George Vanvliet of New Bedford.

The Lowell delegates while in Philadelphia made their headquarters at the Hanover hotel.

THOMAS J. REAGAN

year are as follows: John Golden, Fall River, president; James Tansley, Fall River, first vice president; Thomas J. Morgan, Paterson, N. J., second vice president; Albert Hibbard, Fall River, secretary-treasurer; executive board, Moses L. Daigle of Lowell, Thomas O'Donnell of Fall River, Samuel Ross of New Bedford, John Hoban of New Bedford, Thomas Taylor of Fall River, Urban Flemming of Holyoke, Jesse Walker of Cohasset, N. Y., John Floor of Cohasset, N. Y., Robert Stump of Brooklyn, John Tasso of Scranton, Pa., Joseph Starr of Fall River, August Christensen of Philadelphia, Frank McKorgy of Philadelphia, Arthur McDonald of Fall River, and George Vanvliet of New Bedford.

WESTERLY WRECK

In Which 35 Were Injured Was Caused by Broken Rail

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 27.—According to an official statement from the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad last night, the derailment of the Glit Edge express at Westerly, R. I., Saturday night, "was caused by a broken rail, due to the graduated concealed nature at right angles to the axis of the rail."

The rail was rolled in 1910 and placed in the track during that year. The broken parts have been turned over to the public utilities commission of Rhode Island for examination. The track is patrolled daily by a competent employee of the road, the statement says. "Thirty-five passengers, the conductor and one trainman were injured or shaken up, none seriously hurt, according to the railroad's report."

FOR ANY SKIN SORENESS COMFORT POWDER IS USED IN HARTFORD HOSPITALS.

Supt. E. S. Gilbert of Hartford City Hospital says: "We have used Comfort Powder in our hospital for many years and consider it by far the best powder made wherever a perfect skin healing powder is needed. We have found it to be most carefully prepared and of certain and effective therapeutic value."

Comfort Powder is used and endorsed by more hospitals, physicians and trained nurses than any other powder, because it is a skin healing wonder. Be sure you get the genuine with signature of E. S. Sykes on box.

J. L. CHALIFOUX CO.

COR. CENTRAL & MIDDLE STS.
Lowell's Greatest Ready-to-Wear Store

After Supper Sale 5.30 TO 9.30 TONIGHT

- Men's 15c Half Hose, at..... 9c
Men's Contocook half hose, in blue, black, natural and camel hair.
- $1.50 School Shoes, at..... 79c
Girls' kid-skin lace shoes, low heels, solid leather sole, patent tips, sizes 9 to 2.
- Big Men's Suit Sale Friday..... $8.89
Value $15.00 and $18.00.
See Windows Thursday
- Ladies' 59c Gowns, at..... 33c
Ladies' fine cotton, nicely trimmed with Hamburg, short and long sleeves, high and low neck.
Bargainland
- Ladies' $1.50 Sweaters, at..... 65c
Ladies' wool sweaters, white only, slightly soiled, also a few colors in sweaters, good for men and women.
Bargainland
- 50c Kimonos, at..... 33c
Ladies' short flannel kimonos, all sizes and colors.
Bargainland
- 25c Vests and Pants, at..... 18c
Ladies' fleeced underwear, unbleached, first quality.
Bargainland
- Ladies' 15c Hose, at..... 5c
Ladies' cotton hose, also silk lisle, black only, seconds.
Bargainland
- $3 and $4 Odd Silk Waists, at..... $1.59
125 odd silk waists, taken from our regular stock, one or two of a style, all perfect.
Waist Dept.
- $3 Fancy Weave Sweaters, at, each..... $1.39
56 fancy weave sweaters, double breasted, in gray, white and a few red.
Waist Dept.
- $12 to $15 Silk and Party Dresses, at..... $8.89
35 sample silk and party dresses, one or two of a style, in different colors and materials.
Cloak and Suit Dept.
- $5 All Wool Serge Dresses, at, each..... $2.89
43 serge dresses, made in different styles and colors, in all sizes.
Cloak and Suit Dept.

Putnam & Son Co.

166 CENTRAL STREET

THREE ITEMS

Advertised Friday brought such good results that we think they are worth repeating.

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SMART NEW SUITS $10.00

That sell regularly for $13.00 and $15.00. Warm, wet weather left lots of stock unsold with the manufacturers. We've taken advantage of the situation and bought for far less than the goods are worth—new models in fancy chevrot, cassimere and worsted suits—For men and young men, that regularly we should have to sell for $13.00 to $15.00—Marked them as we can afford to do..... $10.00

THE PUTNAM GUARANTEED SUITS $15.00

Guaranteed to wear to your satisfaction or a New Suit Free. Made from all wool materials of our own selection, cut on the newest models, hand tailored—wherever hand work adds to the value of a suit—in fancy chevrots, cassimeres and worsteds for business—Black and Blue unfinished fabrics for dress—Every suit bears our Guarantee Label—Come back with it if it goes wrong..... $15.00

NEW PATCH POCKET SUITS

For young men—Four new lots shown today for the first time. English model, sack with high peaked lapels, cut short, with patch pockets—High cut six button vests with collars and vestee—Trousers as straight as a pipe stem—grays, black and white, browns and novel mixtures, $10.00, $13.50, $15.00, $16.00, $18.00

FEAST OF ST. VERECUNDA

OBSERVED AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH YESTERDAY—SERMON AND PROCESSION

The anniversary of the translation of the relics of St. Verecunda was observed yesterday at the church of the Immaculate Conception, with impressive services morning and evening. The altars were beautifully adorned with flowers, lights, potted plants, etc. The relics of the martyred saint reposed before the altar of St. Joseph. Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, provincial of the Oblate order, celebrated solemn high mass at 11 o'clock assisted by Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. John M. O'Brien, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. Rev. Owen P. McQuaid, O. M. I., preached a sermon, dwelling on the Constantinian jubilee, which is a universal celebration in the Roman Empire of the church by the Roman Emperor Constantine from the persecution which it had endured. It brought the church from the catacombs to the open where it has since remained.

Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, the pastor, celebrated solemn vespers at half past six o'clock in the evening with Rev. Father Sullivan and Rev. Fr. McQuaid assisting. Rev. Fr. O'Brien was the speaker at the evening service.

His topic was the veneration of the saints. He explained the attitude of the church in this respect as being meant for the guidance of the faithful, to puls before them the examples of human beings who rose to great heights of sanctity or like St. Verecunda, the martyr, gave up their lives for love of Christ. He spoke of the early church and its persecution and gave a graphic picture of the catacombs where the bones of the martyrs were found. He explained how veneration of the saints is an aid to sanctity and told how the church frequently misunderstands the attitude of Catholics toward those whom the church has raised to her altars. The spiritual union, he said, that exists between the members of the Catholic church in heaven and on earth by prayer and enables them to plead personally to the Creator for us. God is especially moved by the prayers of His saints for they all suffered for Him and they are now powerful intercessors in heaven where they will praise their Lord and Saviour for all eternity. He urged on all, therefore, respect and veneration for the saints, especially for St. Verecunda whose relics repose in the Immaculate Conception church.

Following the sermon, the relics of the saint were borne in solemn procession through the aisles of the church escorted by the junior societies of the parish. The services were brought to a close by solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

boarding school, until this fall, when illness forced him to relinquish his position. His death at a hospital in Brooklyn, yesterday, was due to Bright's disease. Whittier was 30 years old and leaves a widow.

FORMER SLAVE DEAD

EDWARD E. MOSES WAS OLDEST NEWBURYPORT NEGRO—RAN AWAY FROM HIS OWNER

NEWBURYPORT, Oct. 27.—Edward E. Moses, the oldest colored man in this city, died yesterday morning, aged 85. He was born a slave, as were his parents before him, in Savannah, Ga., and at the age of 29 ran away, seizing the opportunity to escape when he was brought to New York with the family of John Murphy of Savannah, his owner.

After getting away from the family, in New York he remained hidden for a few days in Brooklyn, and then came on to Boston and found employment in Young's hotel. During that time he made several visits to this city, being the guest of John Young, at that time the leading colored man of the city. Moses returned to New York at the outbreak of the war and enlisted in a colored regiment, seeing service in Virginia and South Carolina.

After being mustered out in New York he returned to Boston and again entered the service of Young's hotel, remaining there but a few years, coming to Newburyport about 1858. He has lived here ever since, being employed for about 35 years by the firm of J. A. Greeley & Co., beside working in various ways for many other people, doing all kinds of odd jobs.

During his younger years in this city he was a regular attendant at the dances and always a leader in the cakewalks and other festivities of the colored people. Mr. Moses never married, living alone in a small house on the outskirts of the city. He enjoyed good health despite his advanced years until last Thursday, when he was stricken with pneumonia. The funeral will be held at the home of the Greeley family on High street, whom he had served in various capacities for so many years.

RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets relieved the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No griping is the "secret" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 100 and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O.

R. C. WHITTIER DEAD

WAS CAPTAIN OF THE YALE CREW WHICH DEFEATED HARVARD IN 1905

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—The death of Richard C. Whittier, who was captain of the Yale crew which defeated Harvard in 1905, was announced today. Since his graduation in the same year he had been master of the Pondicherry, Co., Columbus, O.

BOY OF 19 FINED $15

Was Charged With Assault on His Girl's Stepfather - Other Police Court News

A sample of the viciousness which is injected into some people by drinking alcoholic beverages was shown this morning in the case of Thomas A. Barry, charged with drunkenness. His case is only one of many in which alcohol arouses all that is worst in a man and sets him temporarily crazy.

Barry raised a very bad racket at his home on Waterford street.

Officer Lemay took the stand this morning and told the court in what happened he found the defendant when he arrested him. His description of the scene he encountered when he entered the house aroused the courtroom from its usual Monday morning slumber.

The defendant's wife was infuriated and his daughter was bleeding as the result of a blow, while the kitchen stove was tipped over. The man was actually crazed by drink.

Judge Enright called the defendant to the bench. He is not a violent looking personage and certainly appeared repentant and deeply ashamed of himself this morning. The court gave him a suspended sentence of four months to the house of correction, which will go into effect if he is arrested within the next six months.

Assaulted Prospective Stepfather

Although only 19 years of age and a very meek appearing youngster, George Bird on certainly hit a wicked punch and the left eye of Edward Bradley bore mute testimony to this fact today.

The trial was one of more or less contradictory evidence and the partiality of the witnesses on either side was clearly shown by the manner in which they delivered their testimony.

The underlying theme to the whole story lies in the fact that the girl with whom the defendant keeps company is the stepdaughter of the complainant and that no very pleasant relations exist between stepdaughter and stepfather.

The defendant's testimony brought this fact out beyond dispute. The defense, in charge of Daniel J. Donahue, Esq., did not deny that the assault was committed by the defendant but urged leniency from the fact that the defendant was goaded into his action by the talk of the complainant.

"The complainant was the first witness for the prosecution and the stand with an eye shade covering his wounded optic. Under the questioning of Supt. Welch he was not long in getting to the facts in the case.

"I never opened my mouth to him and he clipped right here. Your Honor," said Bradley, who went on to relate how he and his daughter and son were standing at the corner of Congress and Gorham streets when the defendant came up to them and leaning over the shoulder of the daughter clipped him on the eye.

Lawyer Donahue put Bradley through a very severe cross-examination. The witness refused to acknowledge that he ever attacked any one named to his stepdaughter, who by the way is only seventeen years old, but admitted that he had "boasted" her around. He also admitted that he took a drink "now and then" but denied that he was drinking when the affair happened.

The complainant's daughter was the next witness and she testified to the assault with little variation. She admitted, when questioned by Mr. Donahue, that she had no use for her stepfather and proceeded merrily along with a description of the happenings in the family. She also said that she had called the defendant a jailbird but said it was no more than he deserved.

The son of the complainant also testified to the facts as related by his father and sister. He said the cause of the whole trouble lay in the fact that his father had ordered the defendant out of the house when he woke him up one night about 12 o'clock and he spoke for a minute into the ear of the court when Lawyer Donahue asked her to state exactly the terms applied to himself by her stepfather. She did not see the fight.

The defendant did not have much to say except to testify to the names Bradley called his lady friend.

"I couldn't stand for her being called Louie," he hit Bradley and I hit him hard, but he was going to hit me and I had to hit him first or get it myself."

Judge Enright in summing up the evidence gave it as his opinion that the young man used undue force and haste and that he was aggravated considerably. The defendant was fined $15.

To See His Wife

William H. Hickson was pardoned out of the house of correction in order that he might come home and see his wife, who was dying. Hickson drew all the money which was due him from the county for his work at the institution and immediately went on another drunk.

Very Sad Case

His wife is now dead and he is left with six small children depending upon him for support. Judge Enright placed him upon straight probation this morning, first exacting the promise from him that he would stop his drinking.

The saddest case that police court circles has gazed upon for some time was presented today when an aged couple took the witness stand against their own daughter. With an agonized expression on his face, the father of the girl in the dock, charged by himself and his wife with being a common drunkard, told the court the circumstances in the case. While his wife wept bitterly on a bench the old man described the way in which his daughter drank and how both he and his wife had tried everything in their power to break up her appetite for strong drink.

"Your honor," said the aged man, "I would rather that a hearse were stopping at my door today than give you the testimony which I am going to disclose. My daughter is drunk at least three or four times a week and sometimes more. Many a day she has gotten out of bed drunk and returned to it at night the same way. It is more than my wife and I can stand and she is getting no better, but worse. I ask you to use your best judgment in the case."

Judge Enright and Chief Welch consulted for a few minutes and it was decided to send the defendant to the house for women at Sherborn. When the sentence was communicated to the girl in the dock she reeled as if struck with a blow and waited so long that she had to be taken from the courtroom by the court attendants. It was a scene which did not leave a dry eye in the courtroom.

Quite a delegation of drunks made their appearance this morning. John Moore was sent to jail for four months. It was his fourth arrest within a year.

GAS ON THE STOMACH

Use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills For This Form of Indigestion

It is a poor treatment for stomach trouble that allows the stomach alone. Back of all your lack of appetite, sourness of stomach, belching of gas, nausea, pains after eating, heaviness and lump-like feeling in the stomach, is bad blood. The food is fermenting in the stomach, only partly digested, because the stomach is weak.

Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and notice the difference in your condition. You will be able to eat three good meals a day without discomfort.

The new blood, which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make, will restore the stomach to its normal condition, positively strengthen the digestive organs and increase the flow of digestive fluids.

You will also find a great improvement in your general health, and new strength in every nerve and muscle. Do not put off finding relief a single day. Get a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills today and begin the treatment at once.

DEATHS

ROBBINS—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Robbins have in sympathy of a wide circle of friends in the loss of their infant son and only child, Charles S. Robbins. The little one died at the home of the parents, 54 Florence avenue yesterday, aged ten days.

MOCHRIE—Mrs. Jessie Mochrie, wife of John Mochrie, died yesterday at the home, aged 44 years.

SPREAD—Frederick Spread, the infant son of Frederick and Mary Spread, died yesterday at the home of his parents, 215 Pleasant street, Dracut.

QUELLETTE—Mrs. Emille Quellette died yesterday at her home, 810 Merrimack street, aged 55 years.

AGASS—Mr. and Mrs. William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arsenault, Mrs. Lucy Gingras of Lowell and Mrs. Delima Pageau of Concord; also the brothers, Albert, Pierre and Joseph Grondin, the first two of Langston, Mass. the latter of Lowell; four sisters, Miss Olive Grondin of New Hampshire, Mrs. Olive Grondin of New Hampshire, Mrs. Gervais, and her mother, Mrs. Rosalie Grondin.

ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

BAGLEY—Lillian Bagley, aged 1 year, 4 months and 15 days, beloved daughter of Police Officer Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy, Bagley, died this morning at the home of her parents, 61 Hampshire street. Besides her parents she leaves two brothers and one sister.

FUNERALS

HATCH—The funeral of Jerome B. Hatch took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his son, John B. Hatch, 334 Walker street. The services were conducted by Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Trinitarian church. The bearers were Messrs. Joseph McEvoy, William J. Morgan, Chas. P. Faine and Louis K. Swan. Burial was in the family lot at the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the home of her son, John B. Hatch, 334 Walker street, took place Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, John B. Hatch, 334 Walker street. The services were conducted by Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Trinitarian church. The bearers were Messrs. Joseph McEvoy, William J. Morgan, Chas. P. Faine and Louis K. Swan. Burial was in the family lot at the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

CLARENCE H. LIVINGSTON, N. D. 67 Burr Street, Lowell, Mass.

Tortured by Ugly Itching Eruption

Doctor Recommended Resinol. Half Of a 50c Jar Cured It

Baltimore, Md.—"My little daughter was taken with a very small spot on the back of her hand. It grew larger and caused her more trouble. When she would scratch it, it would bleed and get very ugly looking, so I doctored it myself for about a year, and at last it broke out on both knees, and when she would go to bed she would scratch, and was so tortured and suffered so from the itching, that I took her to our doctor, who recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment.

Improved With First Application

"I sent for samples and after the first application the itching and inflammation was improved, and I kept it up night and morning, and by the time the sample was gone she complained very little, so I got a fifty-cent jar, and before that was half gone the trouble had entirely disappeared." (Signed) Mrs. Maude Schmechel, 2337 Presbury street, Nov. 5, 1912.

Nothing we can say of Resinol equals what others, such as Mrs. Schmechel, say of it. If you are suffering from itching, burning skin troubles, pimples, blackheads, dandruff, ulcers, boils, stubborn sores, or piles, try Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. The nearest druggist sells them, or write to Dept. 20-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a free sample.

Edward O. Boyle was let off with a $15 fine for his third offence.

Big Hunting Knife

Domencio Dienco was charged with drunkenness and a huge knife was shown the court. The knife was found in one of the defendant's pockets, but he said that he found the knife and used it to cut up edibles and not fellow countrymen. He was allowed to depart after depositing $5 with Clerk Trull.

Two young men were fined for being present at gambling games on the Lord's day. Arthur Roy met a $15 award and Philip More was fined $5. Chief Welch himself captured Roy. There were four $5 drunks and five releases.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

Women in Wagon Were Hurled Into the Air—Both Badly Injured

RUTLAND, Vt., Oct. 27.—Mrs. C. W. Mohuron of Ira and Mrs. Willard Parker of Clarendon Springs are at the Rutland hospital suffering from injuries received yesterday when a wagon in which they were riding was struck by a freight train at the crossing at North Clarendon. Both cases are considered critical, but after examination last night it seemed that Mrs. Mohuron's chances of recovery were not as good as her companion's. Neither had very bad internal hurts, but both were suffering from shock and it is feared, from internal injuries.

The accident occurred at the crossing of the Rutland Falls Division of the Rutland railroad, near the station. The women, in a buggy, were driving west and the train was coming north into Rutland. There were no witnesses of the collision but the train crew. The women were both in a stupor the greater part of the night.

According to the train crew, just before the women reached the crossing they lost control of the horse, which ran directly in front of the engine. The engine struck the box of the wagon, throwing the women as high as the smokestack and hurling them many feet up the track. The buggy was demolished, but the horse was uninjured.

Mrs. Parker showed few external injuries, but was suffering from shock and internal complications are feared. Mrs. Mohuron had one ear nearly torn off, and numerous wounds and cuts about the head. Her arm was also hurt. Whether her skull was fractured is not known, there being no outward evidence of such catastrophe. Mrs. Mohuron is a woman of middle age and her companion quite elderly.

DEATHS

ROBBINS—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Robbins have in sympathy of a wide circle of friends in the loss of their infant son and only child, Charles S. Robbins. The little one died at the home of the parents, 54 Florence avenue yesterday, aged ten days.

MOCHRIE—Mrs. Jessie Mochrie, wife of John Mochrie, died yesterday at the home, aged 44 years.

SPREAD—Frederick Spread, the infant son of Frederick and Mary Spread, died yesterday at the home of his parents, 215 Pleasant street, Dracut.

QUELLETTE—Mrs. Emille Quellette died yesterday at her home, 810 Merrimack street, aged 55 years.

AGASS—Mr. and Mrs. William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arsenault, Mrs. Lucy Gingras of Lowell and Mrs. Delima Pageau of Concord; also the brothers, Albert, Pierre and Joseph Grondin, the first two of Langston, Mass. the latter of Lowell; four sisters, Miss Olive Grondin of New Hampshire, Mrs. Olive Grondin of New Hampshire, Mrs. Gervais, and her mother, Mrs. Rosalie Grondin.

ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

BAGLEY—Lillian Bagley, aged 1 year, 4 months and 15 days, beloved daughter of Police Officer Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy, Bagley, died this morning at the home of her parents, 61 Hampshire street. Besides her parents she leaves two brothers and one sister.

FUNERALS

HATCH—The funeral of Jerome B. Hatch took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his son, John B. Hatch, 334 Walker street. The services were conducted by Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Trinitarian church. The bearers were Messrs. Joseph McEvoy, William J. Morgan, Chas. P. Faine and Louis K. Swan. Burial was in the family lot at the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the home of her son, John B. Hatch, 334 Walker street, took place Saturday afternoon from the home of her son, John B. Hatch, 334 Walker street. The services were conducted by Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Trinitarian church. The bearers were Messrs. Joseph McEvoy, William J. Morgan, Chas. P. Faine and Louis K. Swan. Burial was in the family lot at the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

CLARENCE H. LIVINGSTON, N. D. 67 Burr Street, Lowell, Mass.

CLARENCE H. LIVINGSTON, N. D. 67 Burr Street, Lowell, Mass.

Saunders' Market

159 GORHAM STREET

TELS. 3890-3891-3892-3893

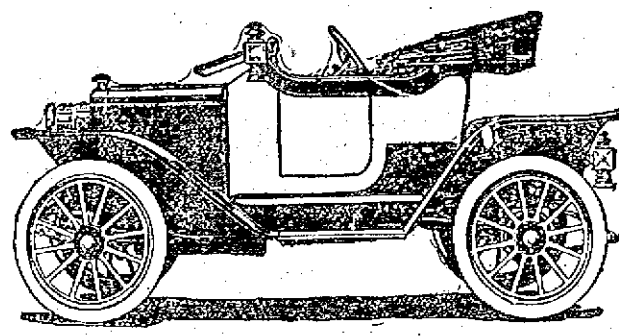

GIVEN AWAY FREE!
$12,800.00 Worth of Premiums

1 Automobile, 1 Thomas Howard $750 Player-Piano, 3 Thomas Howard $450.00 Pianos, 1 Single Cylinder Motor Cycle

5-$500.00 Certificates Good on a Thomas Howard $750.00 Player Piano. 20 $25.00 Certificates Good on a T. Howard Co. $450.00 Piano.

30 DOZEN ASSORTED PIECES OF SILVERWARE GIVEN AWAY DURING CONTEST

R-C-H 2-passenger Road ster, 110-inch wheelbase, 32x3½-inch Tires, High Tension Magneto, 25-gallon gasoline tank, Trunk with capacity for two suit cases; Trunk Cover, Tire Holder. Completely equipped with latest type high grade Acetylene.

Gas Headlights, with Prest-O-Lite Storage Tank or Generator, Oil Side and Tail Lamps; Electric Lighting by Special Arrangement; High Grade Speedometer, Demountable Rims, and One Extra Rim, "Jiffy" Curtains, Horn, Top, Top Cover, One-piece Windshield, Tool Kit, Tire Repair Outfit and Jack.

1. Any person can become a contestant and receive 5000 votes free.
2. Name will not be published or made known.
3. A number will be assigned to each contestant.
4. Contestants failing personally to record votes for 4 weeks will be dropped and their number assigned to any other person.
5. Color of votes changed monthly and unless recorded in time are valueless.
6. To participate in the weekly prizes, only votes personally recorded will count.
7. No clerk or person directly or indirectly interested in this newspaper will be allowed to participate in this contest.
8. Votes must be recorded every Wednesday.
9. Votes must not be written on.
10. Tie votes in packages, assorting them and write on top slip only, contestant's number and amount of votes therein.
11. Refer all disputes to Contest Manager, whose decision shall be final.

SAUNDERS' MARKET

Voting Contest

Good for 100 Votes if presented Oct. 29

Get Into the Contest Now!

BECOME A CONTESTANT AND WIN A PRIZE

To Voters of 8th Senatorial Dist.

In a local Sunday paper, Oct. 20, 1913, MR. CHARLES T. KILPATRICK says: "I have never voted for or against any man or measure unless I thought I was voting for the best interests of all the people."

LOOK AT HIS RECORD

He VOTED to raise salaries of watchmen in State Prison over Governor's veto.

He VOTED to increase the salary of the Board of Gas and Electric Light Commissioners.

He VOTED for the TROLLEY MERGER BILL.

He voted AGAINST allowing Street Railways to carry Freight and Express.

He voted AGAINST compelling Street Railways to equip their cars with Hitting locks.

He voted AGAINST the BILL to provide for the use of fenders on Street Railway cars.

He voted AGAINST the election of Railroad Commissioners BY THE PEOPLE.

He voted AGAINST the election of U. S. Senators BY THE PEOPLE.

He voted AGAINST the BILL to require the Fire Insurance Companies to pay of Total Loss by Fire to pay full amount of the policy.

CITIZENS. Mr. Kilpatrick says he thought he was voting right and for the best interests of all the people on the above bills. He now thinks he ought to be elected on his record.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Lieutenant-Governor Walsh declared that the violation of a party platform by representatives of the party was the highest form of POLITICAL TREASON, and SENATOR HENRY J. DRAPER, Eighth Middlesex District, has the distinction of being the first senator who violated his pledge by voting for the so-called TROLLEY MERGER BILL.

Mr. Walsh says these PLEDGE-BREAKERS OUGHT to be DEFEATED.

AGAIN, Mr. Draper VOTED FOR the Washburn Railroad BILL over the governor's veto. "Two treasuries of this bill radically amended the BANKING laws of the State and it is a crying example of Corruption Control."—Boston Transcript.

THE REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CANDIDATES BOTH HAVE POLITICAL RECORDS YOU HAVE SEEN.

CITIZENS. I HAVE NO POLITICAL RECORD, BUT I have practiced medicine and surgery for ten years in New York City.

THOUSANDS of people have placed THEIR LIVES in my hands, in sickness and surgical operations. You, THE PEOPLE, consult me because YOU BELIEVE I DO THINK RIGHT, you abide by my judgment. YOU TRUST ME with your most intimate family affairs, you know I stand for a SQUARE DEAL for ALL THE PEOPLE.

AND NOW, FELLOW CITIZENS, of all parties, races and creeds, can you not TRUST ME as much with YOUR VOTE for Senator as YOU DO as your doctor for yourself and family?

GIVE ME A CHANCE to get a Political Record and YOURSELF A SENATOR who will HONOR YOUR DISTRICT and be a credit to your intelligence as a good citizen with the welfare of the community at heart.

Respectfully, CLARENCE H. LIVINGSTON, N. D. 67 Burr Street, Lowell, Mass.

CLARENCE H. LIVINGSTON, N. D. 67 Burr Street, Lowell, Mass.

CLARENCE H. LIVINGSTON, N. D. 67 Burr Street, Lowell, Mass.

Deathly hospital in Boston last Friday was held at the chapel in the Edison cemetery yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The flowers were numerous and beautiful. The services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Carleton, former pastor of the Centralville M. E. church, but now of Newton. The bearers were Messrs. J. A. Garmon, Russell Fox, C. Oliver, Barnes and C. O. Wheeler.

Mr. Carleton read the committal service at the grave and the burial was in the family lot in the Edison cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers J. B. Carrier Co.

LARSON—The funeral services of Mrs. Fanny M. Larson were held yesterday afternoon at her home, 105 Agass street and were largely attended. Rev. Sven P. Hammarlof, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, officiated. There were many beautiful flowers, including pieces by the following: The family, Carl Hedlund and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sundborn and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wickstrom, Smith's room, Waterhead mills, M. E. Johnson, Mr. Erikson, Ida Lindstrom and Tetra Johnson, Mrs. Burman and Mrs. Westman, Mrs. and Mrs. Siskat, Mr. and Mrs. Lundstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bergsten, Mrs. K. Engstrom, Mrs. and Mrs. Gustafson, Gustaf Hedstrom, Miss H. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Marousson, George Lindquist and Gus Johnson, Anna and Monaca, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Mrs. C. Peterson, Mr.

and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Anderson. The bearers were Messrs. John Burman, John P. Lundstrom, Victor Sundborn and Oscar Wickstrom. Burial was in the Edison cemetery, where the committal service was read by Mr. Hammarlof. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

ELLINGWOOD—The funeral of George B. Ellingwood took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Trinitarian church. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Raymond G. Clapp. William North Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of which Mr. Ellingwood was for many years inside sentinel, was represented by a large delegation, members of which acted as bearers. The Masonic committal ritual was exemplified at the grave. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and family, Misses Whalen and Bartlett, Frank Kelly, Mrs. Douglas, the Macartney family, Mrs. Corcoran and Mrs. Stacey, Patrick Lacey, Mrs. Bailey, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Joline, Mrs. MacInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, family, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Heitrich, Mr. W. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Knight of Beverly and many others. The bearers were Messrs. Frank Kelly, George Watson, John Sutherland, Charles Bates, Frank Douglass and Walter and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Anderson. The bearers were Messrs. John Burman, John P. Lundstrom, Victor Sundborn and Oscar Wickstrom. Burial was in the Edison cemetery, where the committal service was read by Mr. Hammarlof. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker William H. Saunders.

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and family, Misses Whalen and Bartlett, Frank Kelly, Mrs. Douglas, the Macartney family, Mrs. Corcoran and Mrs. Stacey, Patrick Lacey, Mrs. Bailey, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Joline, Mrs. MacInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, family, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Heitrich, Mr. W. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Knight of Beverly and many others. The bearers were Messrs. Frank Kelly, George Watson, John Sutherland, Charles Bates, Frank Douglass and Walter

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and family, Misses Whalen and Bartlett, Frank Kelly, Mrs. Douglas, the Macartney family, Mrs. Corcoran and Mrs. Stacey, Patrick Lacey, Mrs. Bailey, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Joline, Mrs. MacInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, family, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Heitrich, Mr. W. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Knight of Beverly and many others. The bearers were Messrs. Frank Kelly, George Watson, John Sutherland, Charles Bates, Frank Douglass and Walter

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and family, Misses Whalen and Bartlett, Frank Kelly, Mrs. Douglas, the Macartney family, Mrs. Corcoran and Mrs. Stacey, Patrick Lacey, Mrs. Bailey, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Joline, Mrs. MacInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, family, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Heitrich, Mr. W. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Knight of Beverly and many others. The bearers were Messrs. Frank Kelly, George Watson, John Sutherland, Charles Bates, Frank Douglass and Walter

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and family, Misses Whalen and Bartlett, Frank Kelly, Mrs. Douglas, the Macartney family, Mrs. Corcoran and Mrs. Stacey, Patrick Lacey, Mrs. Bailey, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Joline, Mrs. MacInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, family, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Heitrich, Mr. W. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Knight of Beverly and many others. The bearers were Messrs. Frank Kelly, George Watson, John Sutherland, Charles Bates, Frank Douglass and Walter

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and family, Misses Whalen and Bartlett, Frank Kelly, Mrs. Douglas, the Macartney family, Mrs. Corcoran and Mrs. Stacey, Patrick Lacey, Mrs. Bailey, William Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. Joline, Mrs. MacInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, family, Mr. and Mrs. Squire, Mr. and Mrs. Heitrich, Mr. W. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Knight of Beverly and many others. The bearers were Messrs. Frank Kelly, George Watson, John Sutherland, Charles Bates, Frank Douglass and Walter

KNIGHT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Knight, wife of Frederick C. Knight, was held at her residence, 6 Appleton place, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Appleton Grantham conducted the services. Among the many flowers were pieces from the following: Husband and children; employees of cutting and stitching room, L. H. Spaulding Co.; Richardson hotel employees; friends: John Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Moore, Mrs. and Miss MacArthur, Mrs. Robert, Mrs. and Miss Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Knight of Melrose, Mr. Sutherland and family, Mrs. Lloyd and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fulson, Mrs. O'Hare and

Athletes and Athletics

There's a young man by the name of Llewellyn at Dartmouth who has hung up his name in the hall of fame. The Dartmouth quarterback won the game for the eleven by his headwork as well as his speed. His quarter-back run near the Tiger goal was timed so well that the Princeton ends were both sucked into the play and the Dartmouth signal merchant had a clear field.

Harvard has the greatest all-around back field that ever wore the crimson jerseys together in a Harvard-Yale contest. Brickley and Mahan are two wonderful drop-kickers as well as sensational end skitters. Although not so much is said about Harvard's back field as the most valuable back-field men which ever represented Harvard. All three men would be sure of All-American honors if they were not bunched on one eleven.

Willie Ritchie and Leach Cross will box in New York on Wednesday night and the largest house this season is expected at Madison Square Garden. The lightweight champion and the heavy-hitting veteran will present a card well worth while. It looks as though Cross did not have much chance with Ritchie over the ten session route, although if Ritchie gets careless for a moment the dentist is liable to pass out a stiff smash which will do the champion no particular good.

The Harvard-Dartmouth game will be greatly missed this year in Boston. No game, with the exception of the Harvard-Yale contest, will draw as large a gathering of football fans into the Hub as the game between the Crimson and the Green. If those on the outside had kept their hands off the argument and not meddled with the Harvard management we might be able to see the contest this year.

Jack Britton will be right on deck to challenge the winner of the Baldwin-Brown contest Tuesday night. Britton asserts that Brown will finish the Lynnfield boxer this time, but he has been acting as sparring partner for Brown and the prediction is only natural.

K. O. Sweeney and Ray Wood will clash Wednesday night at Marienville. R. J. Mack beat Sweeney here and then Wood came along and gave Mack a proper beating so from that dope it looks as though Wood would win from Sweeney. However, far be it from us to lay too much stress on the Mack-Sweeney battle for the New York boxer looked pretty good until he got careless and received that two-handed punching on his jaw. The bout should prove a good card.

"Rabbit" Maranville and Griffiths, who are teamed up in a vaudeville sketch, will appear in Boston next week before the footlights. Whether Maranville can sing or not we wouldn't say but the Lowell fans who attended any of the New Bedford games while Griffiths was with the Whalers can readily testify as to his ability as a nightingale. The Braves' new outfielder was always there with a song before the game and received a great hand from the fans.

There will be another boxing bill placed before the next legislature. The bill will be along the same lines as those of the Frawley bill in New York. If the measure goes through it is certain to help the game in Massachusetts and to raise to a much better plane than it rests upon today.

Eddie Murphy and Freddy Welsh have been matched to fight in rounds at the Boston Athletic Club. The South Boston boxer will win a great reputation and many offers for his services if he even draws with the English champion.

FAST SOCCER GAME BEVERLY TEAM DEFEATS BUNTING BY 4 TO 1 SCORE—SCORES OF ALL LEAGUE GAMES

The Buntings were defeated Saturday afternoon at Beverly in their Soccer game with the United Shoe Machinery team by the score of 4 to 1. The score does not indicate the closeness of the struggle nor the manner in which the game was fought by the Lowell players. The Clegg brothers, Koller and McJann played a hard, consistent game for the Buntings while McCullough made two goals for the Beverly team. The summary:

United Shoe	Lowell
Clegg, g	g. Bertchistle
Fields, rfb	rb, McJann
W. Black, lfb	rb, Smith
Churchill, rfb	rb, Lloyd
Haddon, chb	chb, Parlington
Blackburn, lfb	rb, J. Clegg
Warburton, rof	lof, G. Clegg
Kelly, rfb	lf, Mitchell
A. Black, cf	cf, Kelley
McCullough, lf	rf, Rowbottom
Pinkerton, lof	rof, Rukin

Score: Beverly 4, Lowell 1. Goals: McCullough 2, A. Black, Pinkerton, G. Clegg. Referee: Nichols, Lawrence. Linesmen: Churchyard and Kennedy.

Other soccer results for Saturday were as follows:

At Lynn—Lynn Fosse 3, Lynn Hillmans 2.

At Holyoke—Farr Alpaca 7, Bridgeport Thistles 1.

At Brockton—General Electric 4, Brockton 3 (Boston and District League).

At Andover—Andover United 2, Light Blues of Manchester, N. H. 0 (Lawrence and Lowell District League).

At Lawrence—Clan McPherson 3, Methuen 1 (Lawrence and Lowell District League); South Lawrence 4, Lawrence Olympics 2.

The Great Britain games played Saturday resulted as follows:

First Division

Ashton Villa 1, Chelsea 2.

Bradford City 0, Sunderland 2.

Derby County 1, West Bromwich 2.

Liverpool 0, Oldham 3.

Manchester City 1, Everton 1.

Middlesboro 2, Bolton Wanderers 3.

Newcastle United 0, Manchester United 1.

Preston North Ends 2, Burnley 1.

Sheffield United 0, Sheffield, Wednesday 1.

Tottenham Totspur 3, Blackburn Rovers 3.

Second Division

Barnsley 1, Leeds City 4.

Blackpool 1, Woolwich Arsenal 1.

Bury 3, Bristol City 1.

Fulham 2, Nottingham Forest 0.

Huddersfield 7, Birmingham 0.

Hull City 2, Clapton Orient 0.

Leicester Fosse 2, Stockport County 5.

Lincoln City 3, Grimsby Town 1.

Notts County 2, Bradford 3.

Wolverhampton Wanderers 1, Glossop 0.

CAPTAINS OF PROMINENT FOOTBALL ELEVENS OF THE MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Coach A. A. Stagg of the University of Chicago eleven says his lanky center, Des Jardien, is one of the ablest lineemen in the country, and he expects him to win a place on the All American team. Des Jardien is captain of the Maroons. Captain A. Tanberg of the University of Wisconsin eleven is shining in the back field in his usual classy fashion. Tanberg is a swift running fullback who has developed an effective style of shaking off tacklers.

ment which is wholesome, filled with beauty and at the same time primed with rich comedy. In his latest offering he has hit upon a novel idea, at least one that had not been brought forward too often, that of the visit of a young Irish-American to the land of his ancestors. Once there he meets many of the persons his parents have told him about, and one after another is the beautiful blue-eyed Irish colleen, "Shelagh," whom he promptly falls in love. It is a romantic little comedy, and one played by Mr. Mack and Miss Edna Bastardo. In the supporting part are John Conroy, who acts the part of the real "old soldier" "Kerrigan," and Mrs. Charles Peters, who appears as "Mrs. Burke," a real Irish mother. Mrs. Peters is decidedly an elderly woman, yet she gives a delightfully breezy bit of comedy. She has long been an accomplished player of character parts, and she brings to this one rare experience. The Irish players, who are of the very best Irish blood, will give a number of selections, being rather more softly toned than the Scotch ones. Mr. Mack is an ideal dancer of Irish jigs and reels. A highly spectacular musical comedy, called "King Herod's Dream," will occupy second position on the bill. All of the high coloring of the Orient will be used in this and, in addition to a long cast of capable persons, there will be 12 oriental dancing girls. The piece is in this city after a series of successes through the western states. Running this close second for favor will be the inevitable comedy which Mr. and Mrs. David Elwyn and Sidney Taylor will appear. The story of "Suppressing the Press" is a comedy of life and action, and it will be interesting, albeit it is a light comedy. A clubman, and a clubwoman, who thinks more of teas and lectures than of her home life, have been going their separate ways for some time. The clubman finally gets to the point of returning away from home, and the clubwoman, who is a clubwoman, is left alone. This particular phase of club life is strongly opposed, and so she seeks her brother to go to the club and escort her husband home. The husband, run out of slumber, drags a revolver and at once wounds the brother. It is only a slight affair, however, and the brother gets the wound dressed promptly. The husband, scared by the happening, and believing that he has committed murder, goes home. Later on the brother, as he emerges from the hospital, is knocked over and injured by an automobile driven by none other than the clubwoman. She, too, is frightened and seeks the solitude of home. She leaves each other just as the afternoon papers arrive at the home. The papers hold accounts of the accidents, and an endeavor is made on the part of husband and wife to hide the facts. Only upon the appearance of the brother does the trouble right itself, and husband and wife renounce club life and stick together for evermore.

Merrimack Square Theatre

Every opportunity has been carefully utilized by Miss Marie Doran, the author of "Joseph," the biblical drama which was given its first presentation on any stage this afternoon at the Merrimack square theatre, and aside as a graphic appeal of this drama will give the play a production that will far surpass anything before attempted in close its established custom, there will also be found on topic a series of the latest and best photo-plays obtainable. Owing to the length of the performance, curtain at 2 and 8, no one seated after its rise. Seats now.

Theatre Voyons

Probably no poem is more familiar than Kipling's "The Vampire," and the painting by Philip Burne Jones is equally noted. Today the Theatre Voyons offers a three part drama of modern city life in which the theme of the poem is the basis of the action. As a special feature Bert French and Alice McPherson perform the famous Vampire dance. Local interest will be aroused by the motion pictures taken at the

The Pigskin Chasers

The Clipper A. C. of Lawrence is out with a challenge for a game with any fast Lowell team which does not average over 130 pounds. The Clippers are composed mostly of members of last year's Riverdale team which was not beaten during their entire season. Managers can arrange games by communicating with Fred Tuckett, 112 Water street, Lawrence.

Well, Saturday held several surprises for football fans. Although the majority of the game's followers realized that the Green team was a better playing unit than that of the Tigers they also knew the tough luck which has followed the team in this game for the past few years and the victory was not unexpected. Dartmouth had the better team and richly deserved to win.

The wet and slippery footing did not give the Penn Staters a chance to show their open game Saturday. Harvard could not have been denied in any event but under different weather conditions the game would have proved much more interesting from the spectators viewpoint.

And Yale could do no better than get a draw decision with the Washington and Jefferson team. The Blue coaches showed blue after their team's defeat Saturday and lucky it is for them that the fast backs of the Southern colleges did not have an opportunity to demonstrate their speed. The game is not a very formidable record for Yale, to date, and with the team facing the Princeton and Harvard games her chances look very poor.

Tuffs played a bitterly hard game with West Point and the Army was very fortunate to win the 2 to 0 game. Tuffs' college played spectacular football and earned a right to be considered in the second division of college elevens.

Speaking of divisions the men who arrange these so-called divisions rather than think that they do, will have a difficult time explaining the reason why Dartmouth beat Princeton. Look back over your state old boys and find out how the last fall dozen games stand before closing these two teams in separate divisions.

The University of Pittsburgh eleven is the sensation of the season. Cornell was looked upon as a winner as the coaches were drilling their charges on all of the plays by which Pittsburgh scored a win on the Indians. The fast Pittsburghers had something else in reserve, however, and sprung a surprise, and a victory on the Ithacans.

Logan seems to have clinched his hold on the Harvard quarter back position by his playing Saturday. Until this game the position was in the air and the coaches were undecided as to do. Without an able quarter back a football eleven is like a ship without a rudder and the uncovering of Logan in looked upon with more appreciation than the great showing of the rest of the team as a whole.

Miller, the Penn. state quarter, is also a baseball player of ability. It is noted as one of the best infielders ever turned out of the Pennsylvania college and this is saying a great deal. Penn. State is noted for the number of professional baseball players who take part in her athletics.

Hoggsett, the Dartmouth captain and left end, is another player whose name will remain fresh in the minds of the students at the New Hampshire college. Hoggsett comes from Cleveland and was picked as inter-scholastic quarter back when in prep school. His work under punt Saturday may give him an All-America berth.

though he lost the decision, Shepard has met Lenney before. The former bout was of ten rounds, and now they are to appear in a 12-round encounter. It is a matter of time before the winner will be determined. In the bouts Young Brennan of Lowell will meet Eddie Carr of Beachmont, Larry Burns of Lowell will tackle Tommy McFarland of Beachmont, and Billy Brooks will meet an unknown.

NO CRIPPLE, POLICE SAY

Report Concerning Pencil Vendor at Nashua, N. H., Results in His Arrest

NASHUA, N. H., Oct. 27.—Harry Edmunds, who says his home is at Nashua, Cal., was arrested last Saturday by Patrolman Michael H. Degnan. According to the police, Edmunds, while selling pencils along Main street during the evening, had worn an empty sleeve and appeared to be a crippled man.

George W. Hendrick, who had bought pencils, followed the vendor to an alley and saw him using both hands to count his nickels.

Patrolman Degnan, to whom Mr. Hendrick told the story, asked Edmunds where he lost his arm, and was told on the Boston & Albany. The patrolman then found the missing arm under the man's coat and trousers.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

BASEBALL NOTES

The Montreal Club has secured the services of a well known Canadian ball player in Dr. Roy Miller of the Philadelphia Nationals. Miller comes to the Royals as a pitcher, and will be paid as such. He is a native of Montreal, and played the outfield, and in 1911 led the National League batsmen as a member of the weak Boston team. Miller was afterwards traded to the Philadelphia team, and has been used as a pinch hitter. He has always been considered a close second to McCormick of the Giants as an emergency batsman. Miller has lost his place in the field, but his slugging propensities ought to make him a valuable man for the Royals.

Dr. Miller is a graduate in medicine of the University of Toronto, and for a number of years pitched for Ingersoll and other minor professional teams in western Ontario. He has already played the outfield, and in 1911 led the National League batsmen as a member of the weak Boston team. Miller was afterwards traded to the Philadelphia team, and has been used as a pinch hitter. He has always been considered a close second to McCormick of the Giants as an emergency batsman. Miller has lost his place in the field, but his slugging propensities ought to make him a valuable man for the Royals.

Clark Griffith, manager of the Nationals, has agreed to purchase Russell Baltz of Millstadt, Ill., as a pitcher next spring. Baltz is the son of Rep. Baltz of the East St. Louis congressional district. Baltz senior is much pleased.

"My hands," Representative Baltz said yesterday, exhibiting a huge and much knotted pair, "Well, they go hard at the plough, but these knobs came from baseball. I played for 16 years."

"I believe Russell will make good. He is 16, weighs 200, and is 6 feet 3 1/2 inches tall. He has already made a good record under home and away conditions. Griffith heard of him and offered to give him a try-out. He's a right-hander."

Of all the opening guns of the winter league season one has roared louder than that fired by Jean Deane in declaring that before the season of 1914 starts the Detroit Tigers would have one of the strongest teams in the league. He further declared that the team which defeated the Tigers would win the pennant, but refrained from saying which one of the many.

Former New England leaguers figured prominently in the Eastern association race in the season recently ended. Eunny Kauff, former Brockton outfielder, with the Hartford champs, leading the league with the willow in 125 games with a .345 average. He made 178 hits and scored 51 runs. He made 29 two-baggers, seven behind the top-notch performer in that respect, while with 13 triples he topped the league slugger, Ben Briggs, former Lawrence star, with 31 games and maintained a .316 mark, standing fifth among the hitters of the circuit. He added 251, while Kauff fielded for 235. Tom Stankovic, a former Brockton player, was also in the subject 300 class, wearing Meriden and Springfield uniforms during the year and hitting for 308 and he was the league's leading long distance hitter, topping the field with 36 two-baggers and eight home runs, more in both respects than any other player made. He covered first base for a .553 average, though McGamwell, formerly with Haverhill, had something on him in that particular, with a .538 average, but with the willow McGamwell showed only a .274 average.

Billy Luby, former Haverhill player, hit for .301 in 65 games for Meriden, Nash, the former Brown university star, who batted from Weymouth, with 20 games and hit for .333 games and hit for .297, but with the willow McGamwell showed only a .274 average.

Tom Logan, former Lynn and Worcester player, who finished the season in Fall River, was with Springfield and in 20 games hit for .333 games and hit for .297, but with the willow McGamwell showed only a .274 average.

Tom Logan, former Lynn and Worcester player, who finished the season in Fall River, was with Springfield and in 20 games hit for .333 games and hit for .297, but with the willow McGamwell showed only a .274 average.

Tom Logan, former Lynn and Worcester player, who finished the season in Fall River, was with Springfield and in 20 games hit for .333 games and hit for .297, but with the willow McGamwell showed only a .274 average.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Louis N. Parker's play, "Disraeli," which comes to the opera house for tomorrow night has been the subject of a query regarding the exact period of the great statesman's life which the play covers. The author, not allowing himself to be hindered down to say, months and years. He says:

"The play dealing with an historical figure cannot emulate the accuracy of a calendar as to dates. The author should be granted the utmost license. In a given period of the play the events of a century are compressed into a few hours. The play is not a history, but a drama. It is a play of the imagination, and it is this method that has been used in the play. The actual purchase of the Suez canal was an elaborate and long-drawn business, its consequences have not fully developed yet. In the play, it is not used as a historical fact, but as a dramatic device. Dates like a year, figures, are stubborn things, and stubborn things are better out of a play. Call the period of the play the seven years, and leave it at that. Its main object is to show a conceivable picture of the great Jewish statesman. Oh, heaven! It is long enough to write a play, anyway. Let us not hamper the unhappy author, who possibly has a window and six little ones to support, by chaining him to the facts, dates and the encyclopedia."

"BROADWAY JONES"

Witnesses who prattle of the decadence of the drama and declare that the public will not support a clean, wholesome comedy, such as our faithful friend "Broadway Jones," will do well to look in on "Broadway Jones" when Geo. M. Cohan and his company present that splendid play at the Lowell Opera House, next Thursday evening, Oct. 30th. Here is a play with a story of urban life without a single coarse joke in its entire four acts; yet it is so fine and merry a play that audiences, having it go down convulsions of laughter. The sort of laughter that restores one's full confidence in the human race.

Geo. M. Cohan has long since demonstrated that he possessed the faculty of drawing unique characters, the most difficult of all in portraiture, and he has put them together in an environment which gives even the most fastidious spectator almost forget he is gazing at a mimic show. To be sure, there must be people competent to impersonate such types, but if the material is not there, nothing can be accomplished.

The story of "Broadway Jones" is simply itself. A young man who has been left a fortune proceeds to "blow it," an incident which is not strictly uncommon. With his money gone and heavily in debt, he is about for some way out of the difficulty, which he can utilize without working, and settles on a rich widow, very ancient. Then, he has another fortune left him and his first thought is to continue the blowing process. Taking the advice of a sensible friend, he gives his brother-in-law the money. The young man asserts itself. There is the plot. Simple, isn't it?

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Charles Mack, one of the very best of Celtic comedians, with his very carefully picked company of players, will give his latest delightful romantic comedy, "King Herod's Dream," at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. Mr. Mack, who is ever a welcome visitor here, endeavors to furnish entertain-

GIANTS WIN, 6 TO 2

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27.—The New York Giants defeated the Chicago White Sox yesterday, 6 to 2. White, the first baseman of the Sox, lined out a three-bagger in the sixth, drove in two men and saved the team from a shutout.

ON THE ALLEYS

The Making Room defeated the Lasting Room in an inter-room contest between these two departments of Pullings' shoe shop. The Lasting did very well, although they did pretty well to win one string. O'Brien of the winners was high man with 200. The score:

MAKING ROOM	LASTING ROOM
O'Brien	1
McLaughlin	2
Rean	3
Bergman	4
Bourgeois	5
Totals	405 443 320 1268

COLLEGE RESULTS

At Soldiers' field: Harvard 23, Pennsylvania State 0.

At New Haven: Yale 0, Washington and Jefferson 0.

At Princeton: Dartmouth 6, Princeton 0.

At Philadelphia: Pennsylvania 7, Carlisle 7.

At West Point: West Point 2, Tufts 0.

At Providence: Brown 26, Springfield Y. M. C. college 6.

MERRIMACK THEATRE PLAYERS

THIS WEEK

First time on any stage—an original English play "JOSEPH," dramatized from the book of Genesis, Chapter XXVII.

By MARIE DORAN

THE KASINO

MINER'S ORCHESTRA, Dancing

Free Concerts, Saturday Afternoons and Nights, Monday Nights.

THEATRE VOYONS

THE VAMPIRE

Kalem Three Reel Drama

MOTION PICTURES OF LOWELL

MILITIA AT CAMP

THE KASINO

MINER'S ORCHESTRA, Dancing

Free Concerts, Saturday Afternoons and Nights, Monday Nights.

THEATRE VOYONS

THE VAMPIRE

Kalem Three Reel Drama

MOTION PICTURES OF LOWELL

MILITIA AT CAMP

THE KASINO

MINER'S ORCHESTRA, Dancing

Free Concerts, Saturday Afternoons and Nights, Monday Nights.

THEATRE VOYONS

THE VAMPIRE

Kalem Three Reel Drama

MOTION PICTURES OF LOWELL

MILITIA AT CAMP

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

ONE NIGHT ONLY

Tuesday, October 28

ENGAGEMENT OF

GEORGE

ARLISS

(The Liebler Co. Managers)

IN LOUIS N. PARKER'S MASTERPIECE

DISRAELI

ONE YEAR IN NEW YORK

4 MONTHS IN CHICAGO

5 MONTHS IN BOSTON

Prices—50c to $2.00

Seats Now Selling

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE Week of Oct. 27

America's Favorite Celtic Comedian

CHAS. MACK & COMPANY

—PRESENT—

"Come Back to Erin"

An Ideal of the Emerald Isle

Miller and Lyles Colored Comedians

McDermott and Wallace A Bit of Nonsense

"Grapho" Pictures That Move

Ed. Morton That Philadelphia Cop

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ELWYN & CO.

Presenting the Unique Comedy

"SUPPRESSING THE PRESS"

—A Fantasmic Novelty—

"KING HEROD'S DREAM"

Introducing the

12—ORIENTAL GIRLS—12

TO LET	TO LET	SPECIAL NOTICES	FOR SALE	HELP WANTED	HELP WANTED	LEGAL NOTICES
ONE-HALF OF DOUBLE HOUSE TO LET, 8 rooms; modern conveniences, furnace heat. Inquire 68 Rogers st. Tel. 197-5.	TENEMENT OF SIX ROOMS TO LET at South Whipple st. Inquire 383 La. ave. Tel. 197-5.	GREENALL'S OINTMENT IS GOOD for rheumatism and pains. Only 25c. Sold everywhere. See Well Pharmacy and Wilson's drug store.	MUST SELL AT ONCE—STRICTLY first class piano bought recently for $200.00. Will sell for $100.00. Also the full octaves square piano, good make, in best of condition inside and out, cost new $100.00; will sell for $20.00. Any particulars address P. O. Box 534, Lowell.	SMART BOYS WANTED. APPLY 462 Broadway.	FANCY COTTON WEAVERS WANTED, wages $13 to $17 per week, carfare paid. Meet oversteer, Mr. Leavett, at our office Tuesday morning.	Under authority of Section 49, Chapter 690, of the Acts of 1905, J. Jenn Craig, of Lowell, Mass., do hereby give notice that I have filed a duplicate application to the Lowell Institution for Savings, Lowell, Mass., for a duplicate deposit book of Account No. 1078 standing in my name, which said duplicate book is lost or destroyed.
COTTAGE TO LET, 7 ROOMS IN center of city, eight minutes' walk from Terpinck apt.; rent low; call and see	UPPER SIX-ROOM TENEMENT to let; bath hot and cold water, furnace heat, rent reasonable. 295 Foster st. Tel. 193-31.	M. J. CARROLL, SLATING and jobbing. Repairing roofs of all kinds. 12 Chestnut st. Tel. 2255-31.		EXPERIENCED LADY TAILOR wanted at once for alterations; steady position guaranteed. Apply United Cloak & Suit Co., 153 Central st.	KITCHEN GIRL WANTED. APPLY 121 CENTRAL ST.

LEGAL NOTICES
 er authority of Section

LEGAL NOTICES
Under authority of Section 49, Chapter 590, of the Acts of 1968, I, Jennie M. Lowell, of Lowell, Mass., do hereby give notice that I have made written application to the Lowell Institution for Savings, Lowell, Mass., for a duplicate deposit book of Account No. 1978, deposited in my name, and which said deposit book is lost or destroyed.

JENNIE CRAIG.
Lowell, Mass., Oct. 14, 1913.

Under authority of Section 40, Chapter 590, of the Acts of 1908, I, Omer W. Wade of North Chelmsford, Mass., do hereby give notice that I have made and filed an application to the Lowell Institute for Savings, Lowell, Mass., for the purpose of opening a deposit book of Account 1, 1913, standing in my name and which

Lowell, Mass., Oct. 20, 1913.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
 Middlesex, ss. Probate Court.

To the devisees under the will of the other persons interested in the estate of Mary McMahon, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas John F. McMahon, executor of the the will of said deceased, has presented to said Court his petition for license to sell at private sale, in accordance with the offer named in said petition, or upon such terms as may be adjudged best, the whole of certain parcels of the real estate of said deceased for the payment of debts, taxes and charges of administration, or other reasons set forth in said petition.

You are hereby cited to appear at Probate Court to be held at Cambridge said County, on the sixth day of November, A. D. 1913, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested the estate fourteen days, at least, for said Court, or by publishing same once in each week for three successive weeks in The Lowell Sun newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esq., First Judge of said Court, this twelfth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty

W. E. ROGERS, Registrar
MONEY TO LOAN
CREDIT TO ALL

LOANS

Made on short notice without delay.

We give you the money so that you can't afford to owe it any else and at charges that

Borrow $10.00 Pay back $11
Borrow $15.00 Pay back $16

Borrow $20.00	Pay back $22
Borrow $25.00	Pay back $27
Borrow $30.00	Pay back $33
Borrow $40.00	Pay back $44
Borrow $50.00	Pay back $55
In monthly or weekly payments
Legal rates of interest	Credit established with us is as good bank account in time of need.

rates and plans have proved to best because our customers are to come again.

MERRIMACK LOAN COMPANY

Room 3, 81 Merrimack street, 17 street. Hours: 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
days and Saturdays until 4 p. m. connection. License No. 61.

THE BOUQUET.
TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED
LINERY

Beautiful large and small Plush, Beaver, Velour, Silk and Hats at very suggestive prices made and trimmed on our extraneous specially.

86-88 BRIDGE STREET

M. H. McDonough S

UNDERTAKERS and EMBALMERS
108 Gorham St. Tel. 90-11
Prompt Service Day and Night
Storage For Furniture Separate rooms 1 month for

lar. $2 two-horse load. The and cleannest place for storage.
ell. Telephone connection.
Prentiss, 335 Bridge st.

In a Milwaukee Study Which Causes Loss of $500,000, 20 H

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 2.—A heavy toll of death from last night's fire, which destroyed the store of the year Rubber Co. and adjoining buildings in East Water street and other damage to property within the block still remains at seven thousand dollars. The monetary loss is estimated at half a million dollars. A list of the known dead follows:

JOHN J. DOYLE, captain of Engine 12
JOHN FENSEKE, pipeman,
GEORGE J. CLAUSEN and THOMAS

MAX FLASCHKE, driver.
WILLIAM L. GRAFF.
WALTER FRIETAG.
Three are in a critical condition.
Seventeen others are injured but not expected serious results will follow.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—below normal, with rain fairly uted throughout the country, the weekly forecast of the weaureau last night.

A disturbance over the M valley yesterday will advance with rains in the eastern stat day night on Tuesday.

A general reaction to high temperature, according to the forecast, will set in over the plains Saturday. "A disturbance in the Far West Tuesday will move eastward, by rising temperature and atmospheric conditions."

both general precipitation. This was the eastern states Friday, or, 8

TRY OUR COAL

We know it will please you, because it has pleased others. It won't try your patience. It is business with us to satisfy you.

FRED H. ROURKE

Tyngsboro Young Man Found Dying

MARRIED EATON TO SAVE HIS LIFE

Mrs. Eaton Denies That She
Tried to Have Her Husband
Sent to Insane Asylum

PLYMOUTH, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph E. Eaton by poison, was again the chief witness when the trial was resumed here today.

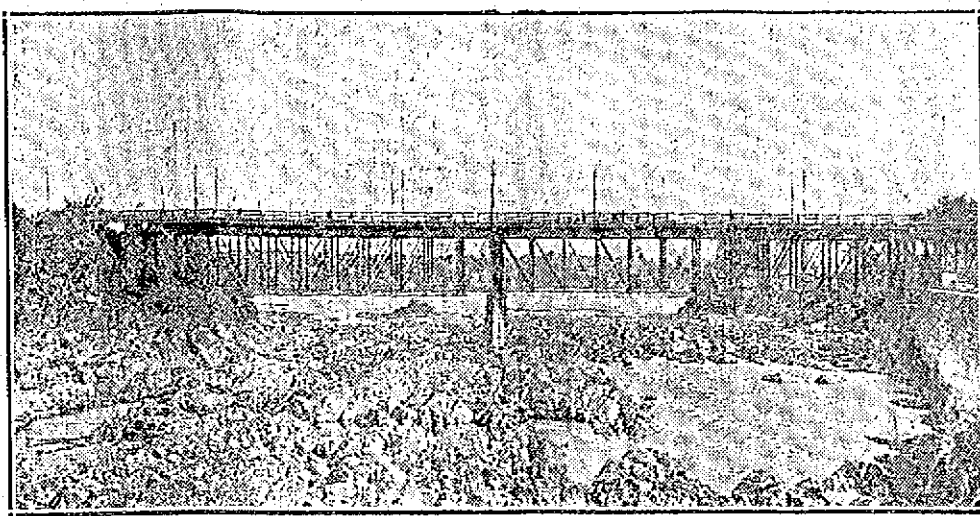

Attorney Morse asked Mrs. Eaton a simple question in direct examination before the district attorney took up cross-examination.

"Did you know, Mrs. Eaton, that your husband's income stopped with his death?" he queried.

"I did," Mrs. Eaton replied.
The defendant was bright and cheerful and a smile played about her lips. The court room was packed.
Dist. Atty. Barker took the witness first over some of the details of her early life and questioned her about the members of her family.

Admiral Dead Drunk, Says Widow
Mrs. Eaton again told of her marriage at Washington to D. H. Alms—
Continued on page four

Moody St. Bridge Finished and Will be Opened for Vehicles Wednesday

THE MOODY STREET BRIDGE REOPENED TO CAR SERVICE

Work on the Moody street bridge over the Merrimack river is finished, and although the electric cars are allowed to cross the bridge, the same will not be open for other vehicles until Wednesday, in order to insure good pavement.

The original bridge was constructed by the Grout Bridge & Mfg. Co. in 1896 with a brick pavement. Since that time not a rod of steel was spent for the upkeep of this construction. A short time ago it was noticed that the pavement was in poor condition and it was decided to rebuild it, and a sum of money was appropriated for this purpose.

Work was begun on Aug. 25, when the brick floor was ripped up and the flooring which supported the pavement was found to be well rotted and was a menace to the bridge. New kyanized

Continued on page four

CHAS. MARINEL SANDBAGGED

Dastardly Assault Occurred Nearly Opposite Entrance to Vesper
Country Club at Midnight

In one of the most vicious assaults that has been perpetrated in this vicinity for many years Charles Marinel, a well known resident of Tyngsboro, was sandbagged and beaten nearly to death last night on the state highway nearly opposite the entrance to the Vesper Country club. The dastardly assault occurred about 11:40 p. m., the time he left the Tyngsboro car, and five minutes before midnight, the time when he was found.

Mr. William Collins, one of the Tyngsboro police force, found the huddled up body of the victim of the assault on his way to the Vesper Country club. At first Mr. Collins thought that the man, whose dim outline he could only just discern

Continued on page four

MATRIMONIAL

The marriage of Mr. Joseph Evans Davis and Miss Adeline Frappier was solemnized this morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at 9 o'clock at St. Louis church by Rev. Fr. Comeau. The witnesses were Joseph Lanther and Miss Regina Frappier. At the close of the ceremony the bride party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, 26 Hampshire street, where a wedding dinner was served. The happy couple left on the 11:15 o'clock train for Montreal, Que., where they will spend a short honeymoon.

PARIS-ROY

Mr. Philippe Paris and Mrs. Leonie Roy were married this morning, the ceremony being performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at St. Joseph's church at 7 o'clock, Rev. Charles Denzot, O. M. I. officiating. The couple were attended by Eugene Mailhot and Aime Roy.

BENNETT-PILATREAU

Mr. J. A. Bennett, formerly of this city and now of Montreal, Que., and Mrs. Marie Louise Pilatreau were married at 4 o'clock this afternoon, the ceremony being performed at St. Joseph's rectory by Rev. Fr. Denis, O. M. I. The couple were attended by Messrs. Victor C. Salsis and Hector Bozels. At the conclusion of the ceremony the couple left for Salem. They will later visit friends and relatives in New Bedford, Fall River, and New York. They will make their home at 76 Tucker street, this city.

SAVARD-MATTE

Mr. Alfred Savard and Miss Angelina Matte were married this morning, the ceremony being performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 7 o'clock at St. Louis church. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Augustin Gratton, O. M. I. of St. Joseph's parish.

Telegraphic Brevities

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Congressman Richmond P. Hobson of Alabama, who introduced a resolution in congress to prohibit throughout the United States the sale of alcoholic liquors, was today elected a life member of the World's Christian Temperance union at its convention here.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Oct. 27.—Joseph Pechin died at the Woonsocket hospital today, the second victim of the fire in the Guerin Spinning Co.'s mill here last Friday.

TAUNTON, Oct. 27.—Charles P. Foster, paying teller at the Bristol County National bank until a few days ago, today through his attorney paid to the bank $2500 in cash, the amount of an alleged shortage which the directors claimed had been discovered in his accounts.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 27.—In a duel over a girl at So. Quicksand creek, Breathitt county, last night, Clell Miller and Woodson Allen shot and killed each other. Each fired a bullet through the other's heart.

Owing to the condition of Congressman Gardner's voice the outdoor rallies advertised for tonight have been cancelled. Instead:

TONIGHT

AT 8 O'CLOCK

CONGRESSMAN

A. P. Gardner

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

Governor

U. S. SENATOR

A. B. CUMMINS

OF IOWA

And Others Will Positively
Speak at

Associate Hall

(Gallery Reserved for Ladies)

Congressman Rogers Will Preside

Music by the Sixth Regiment Band

WILLIAM L. ROBERTSON,
465 Andover Street.

Advertisement.

The case of Sousa vs. Magnosian was given to the jury shortly after 12:30 o'clock. They returned about two hours later with a verdict for the defendant.

At the opening of the afternoon session of the superior court the case of William J. Burke vs. City of Lowell was called. The plaintiff's declaration is that he was injured on Howard street by reason of the alleged poor condition of the street. He claims $10,000. The defence makes a general denial that the injuries were caused by the negligence of its employees. William D. Hogan represented the plaintiff while City Solicitor J. Hennessy appeared for the defense.

Albert Smith, a civil engineer, testified as to the grade of the sidewalk where the plaintiff was injured and stated that the walk was built of tar and cement.
The plaintiff, William J. Burke, stated that he is a resident of this city and lives at 37 Westford street. For several years he was a merchant in this city, having places of business on Middlesex and Westford streets also on Broadway at different times. The plaintiff claims that on Sunday afternoon, September 23, 1912, he, together with his wife and another lady, left his house on Westford street and boarded a car, their destination being Fort Hill park. On returning from the park they descended from the car near the Boston & Maine depot and walked up Middlesex street as far as Howard street. They then turned up Howard street and after walking a few minutes the plaintiff stepped into a hole, sustaining serious injuries. He stated that the hole was near the centre of the sidewalk. He secured a carriage to remove him to his house.

Mr. Burke said that Dr. Sumner was summoned immediately upon his being taken home. The doctor said he said suffered a rupture and told him to remain quiet and wear a truss. He was in bed about a week before he was able to get up. He said he started to wear a truss about 10 days after his injury. He was not able to engage in work until about a month or six weeks later.

Mr. Hennessy questioned him about particular instance of the above and witness admitted having been fined for drunkenness on two or three occasions in the police court. Witness said he is 49 years old and admitted that his eyesight is poor. There has been an obstruction of the sight in one eye. Mr. Hennessy questioned witness concerning the extent of the defects of his eyesight and also with regard to the extent of his business at the present time.

An attachment was recorded at the registry of deeds this morning against Charles H. Chagnon by Ronald A. Trudeau. The amount is $1000.

R. J. HARVEY

CATERER

RESTAURANT, 572 GORHAM ST.
Near Davis Sq. Tel. 4318
Banquets, weddings, etc. Dishes, table, chairs, to let. 15 years' experience.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

SUIT FOR $10,000

Wm. J. Burke Seeks Damages From City of Lowell

KATHLEEN ELKINS WEDS

DAUGHTER OF LATE SEN. ELKINS WAS MARRIED TODAY TO "BILL"
HITT

ELKINS, W. Va., Oct. 27.—Kathleen Elkins, daughter of the late Senator Stephen B. Elkins, was married here this afternoon to "Bill" Hitt.

Miss Elkins only a few years ago was prominently mentioned in connection with the love affairs of the Duke of the Abruzzi, a member of the royal Italian family.

CONFERENCE POSTPONED

The conference between City Solicitor J. Joseph Hennessy and representatives of the Boston & Maine railroad, Bay State Street Railway company and the commonwealth, relative to the appointment of a commission to look into the matter of abolishing the grade crossings in Lowell, which was scheduled to be held this afternoon in Boston, was postponed to a later date as the solicitor was called to superior court.

THE SCHOOL BOARD

Sum of $71,000 Additional Needed Said
Member of Finance Committee This Afternoon

The members of the finance committee of the school board are scheduled to hold a meeting at 5 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of talking over the amount of money needed for the school department for the rest of the year.

A member of the finance committee in conversation with the writer this noon said there is a misunderstanding as to the amount expended by the school board. He said the municipal council appropriated the sum of $335,000 for the school department, while $155,000 had been asked by the board. He said the board has lived within its appropriation, although its members are now asking $71,000 more, which he claims should have been appropriated at the beginning of the year. He said he does not care how the council appropriates the money, but the charter states that all money for the school department shall be raised from the voters and not borrowed. The regular meeting of the board will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A.

Star Course

—AT THE—

First Baptist Church

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29
Boston Philharmonic Band
Gustave Helm, Reader

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 12
Elizabeth Pooler Rice, Reader

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 10
Homer B. Hulbert, A. M. F. U. G. S.
Lecturer, "Far East"

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 7
Lorado Taft, Sculptor, Lecturer

WEDNESDAY, March 4
Lyric Glee Club, Male Quartet and Reader

Tickets on Sale at Y. M. C. A.

$1.50 and $2.00 for the Course
Special rate for not more than two tickets to members and members of the Woman's Auxiliary of $1.00 and $1.50.

THE STOCKHOLDERS MET

NEW ENGLAND INVESTMENT CO.
MAY VOTE TO LIQUIDATE
MEETING AT PROVIDENCE

The Lowell stockholders of the New England Investment Co. held an important meeting last night at the Citizens-American club in Dutton street. Despite the inclement weather there were about 150 people in attendance and considerable business was transacted, among which was the appointment of two delegates to the meeting of the company which will be held in Providence, R. I., tomorrow afternoon, to represent the stockholders.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by Maxime LePine, who was appointed presiding officer. J. Athanasie Coutu was elected secretary of the meeting and it was announced that the people in the hall represented 10,210 shares, or the equivalent of about $25,000. After considerable discussion as to what should be done regarding the liquidation of the company, Messrs. Maxime LePine and Edmond Paradis were chosen to represent the Lowell stockholders at tomorrow's meeting, and instructions were given these two men as to how to vote at the said meeting.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE

Mr. Smith J. Adams, a former alderman, residing at 2 Stevens street, took out nomination papers for commissioner, at the city clerk's office this afternoon.

INTEREST BEGINS

SATURDAY,

NOV. 1

—AT—

THE CENTRAL SAVINGS BANK

55 CENTRAL STREET

THE

APPLETON

NATIONAL

BANK

Owned and managed by Lowell business men, offers its services to the commercial banking public.

Assets over One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars.

GEORGE E. KING,

President.

MARCUS T. PIERCE,

Cashier

PRES. WILSON SPEAKS

TALKS ON GOVERNING MOTIVE OF U. S. IN RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER COUNTRIES

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 27.—President Wilson announced to the world today that the governing motive of the United States in its relationship with the countries of this hemisphere would be "morality and not expediency." "I want to take this occasion to declare," he said, "that the United States will not again seek to secure an additional foot of territory by conquest."

The president in a speech before the southern commercial congress delivered a veiled attack to what he termed the "material interests" that had influenced the foreign policy of some governments in their relation with the nations of Latin America. Though Mr. Wilson did not mention Mexico as the afflicted country, he devoted his entire speech to a description of the degrading influences which foreign concessionaires had had upon the internal affairs of some of the Latin-American countries.

With the Mexican situation uppermost in the president's mind at the present, his address was interpreted as an arraignment of those financial influences which it had been charged have secured in some cases recognition for the Huerta government.

The president declared it would be the duty of the United States to assist the nations of this hemisphere in their "emancipation from the interests of other nations," so that they might enjoy constitutional liberty unrestrained.

FUNERALS

MORRIS.—The funeral of Thomas F. Morris, Jr., took place this morning from his home, 75 West Third street. High mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Michael's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Fr. Mullin officiating. The bearers were Matthew McCafferty, Richard Binkhorn, James Sullivan, Eugene Hart, Matthew McCann and John McCann. A delegation from the Lowell Aerie of Eagles, consisting of the following, attended the funeral: Martin E. Barry, John T. Donohue, Patrick McDonough and James Galvin. Among the floral offerings were pieces by the following: Sisters and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Norney, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hart, J. J. McCausland, J. J. Ingles, M. McCafferty and family, clerks at J. J. McCausland's store, Fred Timmons, Julia Callahan, Annie Boyle, J. T. Breen, J. J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McDonald, McCabe family, P. O. E. Eagles, Harold's chums in store, W. H. Linberg and family, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McDonough, John J. Dawson, Elizabeth Owen and family, Mr. Norney, Mr. McAlmon, Mr. Fay, Mr. Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Mulcahy, Mr. and

Progressives

Gov. Hiram W.

JOHNSON

OF CALIFORNIA

WILL SPEAK AT LOWELL MACHINE SHOP GATES
DUTTON ST.

Tuesday--12.30-- Noon

He was vice-presidential candidate with Colonel Roosevelt last year and is a progressive governor of a progressive state.

ALL UP TO DO HONOR TO THE GOV-ERNOR OF CALIFORNIA
A. S. GOLDMAN,
255 Branch Street.

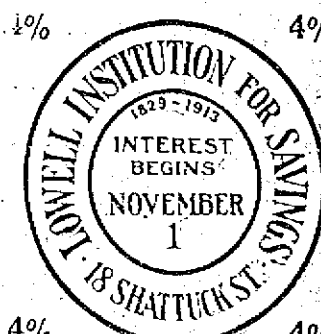

BANK SIGNS

We have noticed that banks are interested in conservative advertising.

We have therefore compiled some very interesting figures on electric signs.

Conservative banking men! We invite you
to give these figures your careful consideration.

Lowell Electric Light Corp.
50 Central St.

PROGRESS ON ISTHMUS

France, Builder of Suez Canal, Follows American Work at Panama

PARIS, Oct. 27.—France, the builder of the Suez canal and first to begin the work in Panama, has followed American progress on the isthmus more earnestly perhaps than any other European country. Regret that France could not have completed the work so nobly conceived stings the appreciative comment of French observers on the completion of the vast enterprise.

The French government has made a study of the effects of the opening of the canal on French commerce. The ministries of the navy, of commerce and the colonies appointed a commission of four members, M. Jullienne, engineer in chief of the board of bridges and highways; M. Douvry, an engineer in the bureau of arts and manufactures of the ministry of commerce, and two naval officers, Lieutenants Hallier and Bayle. To inquire into the effects of the opening of the canal on French shipping and trade in general, and particularly on French colonies in the Antilles and Oceania. The commission visited the canal zone and the French colonies concerned, and examined and sifted an immense amount of material.

The commission, after a full consideration of all the facts at their disposal, have reported that French commerce will not be greatly affected by the canal. Only 250,000 tons of French shipping will use the new route during the first year of its opening, nor can the commission perceive that French tonnage passing through the canal will be likely to increase greatly because the French mercantile marine generally tends rather toward a reduction than an expansion.

Beneficiaries of Canal

England and Germany, who hold the greater part of the maritime transport trade, will be the principal immediate beneficiaries of the canal, but America, in the opinion of the commission, certainly takes steps to promote a rapid growth of her mercantile shipping.

One of the most important consequences of the opening of the canal, the commission finds, will be not merely to provide facilities for existing commerce, but to create a new traffic which will result in the economic conquest of the Pacific and the exploitation of the natural riches of the western part of the two American continents by the capital and industry of the eastern states of the Union.

The canal, the commission predicts, will profoundly modify the situation of the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico ports of the United States from the point of view of the world's commerce. When the American manufacturer has the same advantage in respect to transport that he now has in the cost of production over his European competitor, the world's markets will be his. The rapidity with which business will increase in the United States will have far-reaching effects on the economic life of Europe, which will be obliged to transform present wasteful methods into a more scientific use of labor.

The United States, the French government investigators affirm, will obtain an incalculable advantage from the new canal, and Europe may even find its industrial activity diminished.

While impossible to express in figures the economic consequences, some considerations are mentioned. The day before the opening of the canal, France, so far as transportation is concerned, will be nearer to all points on the west coast of South America than the eastern ports of the United States. The day after the opening of the Panama canal, the situation will be reversed. Goods will be more than 2000 miles nearer New York than to France, and New Orleans 3000 miles. The cutting of the isthmus will permit ships from the Eastern United States to reach far eastern Australia more easily.

Europe benefits now, not only by the non-opening of the Panama canal, but by the existence of the Suez canal, but if the Americans will have an advantage in their nearness to the markets of the west coast of South America and Australia, foreign ships will carry the imports and exports of the United States should the conditions now existing continue. Thus, the commission finds, if Europe does not benefit commercially by the opening of the canal, certain nations possessing a powerful mercantile marine, such as England and Germany, will have an important part in the economic conquest of the Pacific by the Americans.

The French colonies in the West Indies, the commission avers, are too far out of the track of commerce to count upon any great increase in traffic. Therefore, the commission does not recommend large expenditures on harbor improvements. In Oceania the commissioners found that practically all ships going through the canal to Australia and New Zealand will necessarily call at Tahiti, and recommend the expenditure of the sum of $1,500,000 on the improvement of Papeete harbor. Lighthouses should be built, the channel deepened and a proper coaling station constructed.

Explosive Oil Engine

The commission does not believe it necessary to make extensive arrangements for coaling at Papeete, because, in its opinion and that of the principal French shipowners consulted by the commission, the explosive oil engine for ships will entirely supersede the steam engine within from fifteen to twenty-five years. While the passage of many more ships cannot fail to benefit the colonies in Oceania, the commission is not optimistic. The scarcity of labor will retard expansion. Cheap freight, however, will enable such products as coconut fibre, plentiful in the colonies there and much in demand in Europe, to be profitably exported.

M. David-Mennet, the president of the Paris chamber of commerce, has made a study of the effect on French trade of the opening of the Panama canal, and in talking of the subject to the Associated Press correspondent said:

"I do not think that French manufacturers expect much immediate change in the exports of France. The principal advantages, as we look upon them, will go to the United States, and next after the United States, to England."

"The canal will open up trade with the west coast of North and South America. The exports of France are largely fine fabrics and other articles of taste and luxury. The considerable trade which we already have with the western coast of the Americas will increase with the development of these countries. We cannot help but profit in the future. But I feel that England and some other countries of Europe are better organized for sea traffic with the western coast of the Americas than France is."

France does not offer the heavy freights which encourage the increase, not only in the number of American lines, but in the class of ships which carry heavy freights and which form such a material adjunct to the merchant marine of England.

"Of course, the Panama canal will develop the trade of China, Australia and the Indies. The easier access to the enormous Chinese markets will immediately benefit France. We have allowed ourselves to be outdistanced by England, and the requirements in those markets have not been of the kind that especially encourages French manufacturers. The textiles so largely shipped from England and the United States to China are far more numerous than the fabrics we produce in France. We make a specialty of finer articles, such as are not manufactured in enormous quantities."

"As the taste of the Chinese people becomes Europeanized, they will find that France can better supply them with finer goods than other countries. In this way, France will benefit in the far east in the future more than immediately."

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring Back Its Gloss, Lustre, Charm and Get Rid of Dandruff

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderline.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderline now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderline is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderline and carefully draw it through your hair—your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

Immediately after the opening of the Panama canal.

The Suez Canal, created by a French enterprise, has its head offices in Paris. A study has been made there of the probable effect of the opening of the Panama canal. The expectation is that the tonnage passing through the Suez canal will not be reduced by more than five to eight per cent. This reduction will almost certainly be made up within three or four years, possibly in less time, by the natural expansion of the Suez canal traffic. The best relations have already been established between the officials of the Suez canal and those of the Panama canal. Prof. Emory Johnson, the American commissioner, was in consultation with the Suez canal management during the early half of September, and it is understood that he will report in favor of using in Panama exactly the same rules of tonnage measurement as are now used in the Suez canal. It had been expected by the Suez people that the American tonnage charges, although nominally precisely the same as the Suez—$1.20 per net ton—were in reality, owing to the difference in American measurements, three per cent less.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy two different spheres and fill two independent needs. The greatest cordiality exists between the governors of the two waterways."

The French officials of Panama's rival waterway are consequently the method which have been employed in executing the gigantic engineering task, but he preferred not to discuss the effect upon the trade of the Suez. M. Jannart, the director-general of the Suez canal, said at the annual meeting of the shareholders recently that the Suez canal company would not be much diminished by the opening of the Panama canal.

Co-operation rather than competition is the key word of the relationship between the two canals, said M. Max Bertrand, the general secretary of the Suez canal company. "We occupy

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT OUR Remodeled Store

THIS WEEK

The changes in our store are completed and we are better equipped than ever before to serve the music-loving public

The remodeling of our store is but the exterior evidence of the superior facilities and greater advantages we offer in our various departments. To satisfy the most critical of the musical public, to give the largest measure of honest and reliable value for every dollar received, to render the most prompt, courteous and intelligent service in all musical lines—these have always been bed-rock principles of the Steinert policy.

To the practice of these principles rather than to the attractiveness of externals, we trust for the continuance of your patronage but we hope the appointments of the new store will make this a place which you will take greater pleasure in visiting.

We Invite Our Patrons

—TO INSPECT—

Our New Victor Rooms

ON THE STREET FLOOR

Our VICTOR department is now more conveniently located. Its stocks are larger. Its demonstration booths are more comfortable and are perfectly appointed. Come in and let us entertain you with an informal recital of the latest VICTOR records. Visitors always welcome.

A CLEARANCE SALE

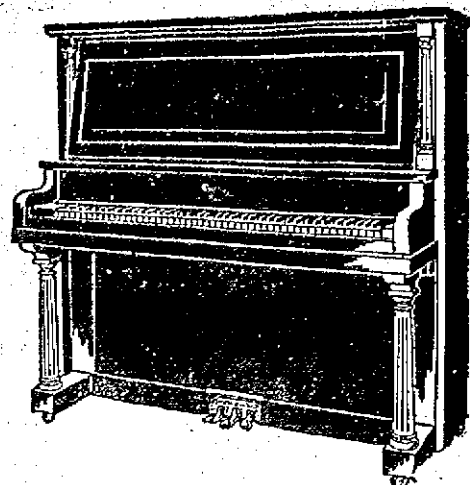

OF OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF

SECOND-HAND PIANOS

Besides the WOODBURY PIANOS to which we call special attention, we offer all our USED PIANOS of other makes at greatly reduced prices. We offer large savings and very low terms as we want to make room for more new goods.

THIS WEEK

We Offer at Greatly Reduced Prices a Number of the Well-Known and Reliable

WOODBURY PIANOS

Most of Them Are of the Style Which is Regularly Sold by Us For

$325

Handsome PIANOS of pure sweet tone, reliably made by New England workmen—durable in every part—the best piano values at their price—a price made possible by the economies of manufacturing and distribution effected by the great Steinert system. Prices for these rented pianos now in perfect condition as low as

$225

Small monthly sums convenient for you will be accepted in payment for any pianos offered this week for we want every one to be able to participate in this money saving opportunity. You can own a reliable, high grade piano you will be proud to possess as easily as an inferior one offered at inflated price.

M. STEINERT & SONS CO.

130 Merrimack Street, Lowell

NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST PIANO HOUSE

STORES IN ALL PRINCIPAL CITIES

HAPPY ENGAGEMENT PARTY HELD

Miss Rose Feldman Formally Betrothed to Sergt. Harry Whine

The Gallant Young Man Had Varied Experience in the U. S. Army

SERG. HARRY WHINE

A happy reunion of friends and relatives took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wiener, 35 Ware street, the occasion being the engagement of Miss Rose Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Feldman of Chelmsford street, and sister to Mrs. Wiener, to Mr. Harry Whine, a popular merchant of this city.

There were nearly a hundred people present, including relatives from Haverhill, Chelsea, Lawrence, Boston and the state of Maine, as well as several from this city. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Elias Wolfsohn, who delivered a fine address, giving the young couple considerable advice as to their future doings.

At the conclusion of the engagement ceremony a dainty dinner was served by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Wiener, and a very pleasant evening was spent. The happy gathering broke up at a reasonable hour, extending their best wishes to Mr. Whine and Miss Feldman.

Mr. Whine, who is a nephew of Mr. Sam H. Restler, the Middlesex street merchant, is favorably known in this city, where he has been conducting a business for the past year. He was born in Austria 27 years ago and at the age of 15 years he came to this country, coming straight to Lowell, where he secured employment. In 1906 he saw the opportunities offered a young man in Uncle Sam's army and enlisted in the service at Providence, R. I., after having been refused in Lowell.

He was immediately assigned to Fort Slocum, N. Y., where he became a member of the 51st artillery company. A short time later he was transferred to Fort Saylor, N. Y., remaining there until 1908, when he was assigned to Fort Howard, Maryland. In 1908 the artillery companies were divided by the war department and Private Whine joined the 104th artillery company, and in June of the same year he was promoted to lance corporal and 18 days later he was made corporal.

Corp. Whine soon gained a reputation for himself as being a well disciplined officer and his good behavior and military knowledge gained him a promotion to sergeant on May 7, 1909. However, the young officer did not want to stop there so he studied electricity and on June 12 of the same year successfully passed the examination for case mate electrician, one of the most important positions an enlisted man can obtain under Uncle Sam's rules. His work consisted of taking care of the mine fields, and accordingly he had to be constantly on duty. He was stationed about five miles from the shore and every morning his duty was to test the mines in the harbor by means of electrical switches. This position meant for the young soldier a liberal increase of wages. In 1910 he tried for master electrician, but inasmuch as his knowledge was limited, he did not pass, but nevertheless he was satisfied, for he claims this examination gave an opportunity to acquire considerable knowledge.

The young sergeant traveled considerably during his service, going from coast to coast, and from north to south. His first enlistment finished on Oct. 7, 1909, and he re-enlisted for three more years. He went to Ft. Houston in Texas with the mobilization camp in March, 1912, but did not remain there long for he was transferred to Fort Meyers, Fla., and then to Ft. Howard, Md.

Sergt. Whine always took an active part in athletics and was catcher for the 104th artillery company's baseball team. A short time prior to his leaving the service he took part in a target practice for mines and received 100 points, and later was highly complimented by Gen. Wood on the condition of his mines and mines.

Sergt. Whine left the U. S. army in October, 1912, and came to Lowell, where he purchased a business at 505 Bridge street, which he has been conducting successfully since. His marriage to Miss Feldman will take place in the early part of January.

He was immediately assigned to Fort Slocum, N. Y., where he became a member of the 51st artillery company. A short time later he was transferred to Fort Saylor, N. Y., remaining there until 1908, when he was assigned to Fort Howard, Maryland. In 1908 the artillery companies were divided by the war department and Private Whine joined the 104th artillery company, and in June of the same year he was promoted to lance corporal and 18 days later he was made corporal.

Corp. Whine soon gained a reputation for himself as being a well disciplined officer and his good behavior and military knowledge gained him a promotion to sergeant on May 7, 1909. However, the young officer did not want to stop there so he studied electricity and on June 12 of the same year successfully passed the examination for case mate electrician, one of the most important positions an enlisted man can obtain under Uncle Sam's rules. His work consisted of taking care of the mine fields, and accordingly he had to be constantly on duty. He was stationed about five miles from the shore and every morning his duty was to test the mines in the harbor by means of electrical switches. This position meant for the young soldier a liberal increase of wages. In 1910 he tried for master electrician, but inasmuch as his knowledge was limited, he did not pass, but nevertheless he was satisfied, for he claims this examination gave an opportunity to acquire considerable knowledge.

PREMIERS MEET

Important Question to be Discussed at Conference in Ottawa

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 27.—A protest against a reduction in the representation of the maritime provinces in the Canadian parliament is announced as the chief matter to be voiced by the premiers of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island at the conference of provincial premiers, which opens at Ottawa today. The maritime provinces contend that such a reduction in consequence of the more rapid growth of population of the other provinces would be contrary to the intention of the confederate agreement.

They will also bring up the question of compensation for the lands allotted to Manitoba and Quebec when their boundaries were increased in 1912. The maritime provinces claim that they are provinces of the confederation, had an equal right in those lands. Since the widening of the boundaries of the other provinces gave those portions of Canada further parliamentary representation, the maritime men claim that part of the compensation due the provinces by the sea should be in the form of a guarantee of unreduced representation for them.

TO CALL TROOPS

Gov. Ammons to Declare a State of Insurrection if Strike Continues

DENVER, Oct. 27.—Governor Ammons today said that if the strike in the southern coal fields is not settled at once a state of insurrection will be declared and the militia will be ordered out to conduct a general disarmament of strikers and mine guards and the importation of strikebreakers will be suppressed. At a conference arranged for today Governor Ammons and former U. S. Senator Patterson will receive propositions for a settlement from the operators and submit them to the strike leaders.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY

COMMITTEE OF LOWELL BOARD OF TRADE IS PREPARING FOR LOCAL OBSERVANCE

The various sub-committees of the Lowell board of trade are becoming very active in preparing and outlining their fall and winter activities, and it is the intention of all to enter into the work of planning and executing the various projects concerning the city's welfare, in a manner that will be appreciated by the citizens. At half past three this afternoon the executive committee met and transacted the usual routine business. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the members of the fire prevention committee will convene at the rooms of the board in the Central building, to outline plans and make arrangements for the observance of Fire Prevention day, which, according to the proclamation of the governor, is to be celebrated on Nov. 2. It is believed that this committee will arrange for an observance that will bring home to the people of this city the real significance of the day.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE
The program of the concert to be given next Wednesday evening by the Boston Philharmonic band, in the auditorium of the First Baptist church, has been received, and promises to be most enjoyable. The numbers are as follows: March, "Major Fitzgerald," dedicated to the mayor of Boston by Gustave Helm at the dedication of the

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

DEFENDS PRES. HUERTA

Dr. Howland Also Denies That Executive Had Share in Murder of Madero

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 27.—The defense of Provisional President Huerta's administration in Mexico and denial that the Mexican executive had a share in the murder of former President Madero and Vice President Suarez was made by the Rev. John Howland, Guadalupe, a missionary in an address before the annual meeting of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions of the National Council of Congregational churches here today. He also paid a strong tribute to the rule of Porfirio Diaz as worthy of the epigram "He made a nation and destroyed a people."

Dr. Howland has lived for 31 years in Mexico as head of the Colegio internacional at Guadalupe. "The widespread idea that General Huerta seized the presidency," he said, "or that he came in through the door of assassination is entirely incorrect. His acceptance of the provisional presidency precluded his being a candidate in the present election and his government was established and both officially and popularly accepted days before the death of President Madero. Huerta had nothing to gain by the death of Madero."

"President Madero left the treasury bankrupt and revenues were immensely reduced by the closing of most of the ports of entry, the interruption of traffic and general disturbance. The hostile attitude of American authorities against Huerta caused the bankers who had arranged a large loan to delay the promised payments and this has greatly impeded the pacification of the country. Mexico should be left alone. It is well able to take care of itself."

AN ASSAULT CASE ON

CASE OF SOUSA VS. MARGOSIAN OPENED AT SUPERIOR COURT THIS MORNING

The case of Sousa vs. Margosian was called at the opening of the superior court on Gorham street this morning. The ad damnum is $5000.

The plaintiff in her declaration says that on or about the 7th day of August, 1912, the defendant violently assaulted her, the plaintiff, and struck her several blows, threw her down and bruised her, causing severe injuries. The plaintiff claims that she was thereby made ill and sore and disabled from attending to her household duties. The defendant makes a general denial of all the charges.

The plaintiff, Florence Sousa, was the first called to the stand and she stated that on Aug. 7, 1912, the defendant attempted to enter her house on Kinsman street and after being refused admittance he struck her several times. She said that she was unable to work for several weeks.

Her husband, Manuel J. Sousa, testified that when he returned from work on Aug. 7, the screen in a window was disordered and his wife was in a very weak condition. The defendant was the owner of the property in which Mr. Sousa lived at the time of the assault.

legion assault. He moved to another location shortly after the trouble. Constable John McManus was the first witness for the defence and he said that he, together with Margosian, the defendant and owner of the property in which the plaintiff lived, went to the house occupied by the plaintiff on the day of the alleged assault and that he did not witness any striking or pushing.

He also stated that he served several notices, asking Manuel J. Sousa to vacate the property owned by Margosian.

THE TEACHERS' MEETING

WILL BE HELD IN BOSTON NEXT FRIDAY—PROGRAM OF THE CONVENTION

The sixty-first annual meeting of the Middlesex County Teachers' association will be held at Tremont temple, Boston, next Friday, and the schools throughout the county will be closed on that day. The membership of the association consists of nearly 4000 teachers, and all meetings are largely attended. Mr. C. W. Irish, principal of the Lowell high school, is president of the association.

Some of the subjects to be discussed are as follows: "Teachers' Retirement Law," "Freedom in Early Education," "The Fundamentals in Teaching," "The Use of the Question in the Classroom," and "The School and the Citizen." In the afternoon there will be an entertainment and Mr. Henry H. Harris of this city will talk on "Teachers' Annuity Guild." Dr. Thomas F. Harrington, doctor of hygiene in the Boston schools, will speak on "Health Problems in the Schools."

SHOT FIVE TIMES

Woman Opened Bedroom Door to Investigate Noise She Heard

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 27.—Mrs. John Kuba was shot five times when she opened her bedroom door early today to investigate a noise she heard in the hall. The state police are searching for John McKiston, who is alleged to have quarreled with her husband last night. Mrs. Kuba is not expected to recover.

LOWELL ATHLETIC CLUB

ALL STAR SHOW FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1913

Charles Shepard of New York vs. Gus Lenny of Boston, 12 rounds; 1-7-77 Burns of Lawrence vs. Thomas McFarland of Boston, 8 rounds; Eddie Carr of Beachmont vs. Young Brennan of Lowell, 8 rounds; Billy Brooks of Lowell vs. unknown, 6 rounds.

The VANDERBILT HOTEL

34 ST. EAST AT PARK AVE., NEW YORK.

"An hotel of distinction with moderate charges"

Within five minutes of principal railway terminals. Situation ideal.

TARIFF: Single room—$3, $4, $5, $6, $7, $8. Double room—$5, $6, $7, $8. Dressing-room and bath—$8, $10, $12. Suites—Parlor, bedroom and bath—$10, $12, $15. Each room with bath.

cess-pool in each, and hot and cold water provided to clean and properly flush the same; the chipped enamel,

From the above recommendations it would appear that interior improvements are absolutely necessary.

and operated today vies with any in the commonwealth and should command the confidence and respect of every citizen. As a result of the stringency of the service regulations the young men who are receiving the appointments at the present time are a superior lot, mentally and physically, while the older members have profited by the experience of years. The police department's mission is to guard and preserve the public peace and safety. Its members are servants of the down any infractions of the law, serious or trivial while they in turn should receive the respect and co-operation of the public. There are times when serious and public and make themselves offensive in manner or address, a fault which cannot and will not be condoned by their superiors; while there are also times when the public, through interested representatives, is not fair with the police. Whenever an officer exceeds his authority or in any way offends the public, er of public safety. When the commissioner faults lies with the public, the commissioner has no redress. The public therefore should aim to be fair in all its dealings with the police, and the police will be relieved to be fair in all of their dealings with the public. The police are at the service of the public at all hours and if the officer on the street is not available a telephone message to headquarters—4125—will be courteously received and promptly acted upon.

In dealing, the commissioner of public safety desires to compliment the department for the excellent high standard maintained during his incumbency as head of the department.

JAMES E. O'Donnell

The total number of arrests for the year was 4088, of which 3367 were for drunkenness. It is noticeable that there is no murder in the list and but one arrest for attempted murder and one for manslaughter.

New Officers
 In April, 1912, John J. Guthrie, James J. Noonan and Michael J. O'Connell

MOODY ST. BRIDGE
Continued

inch reinforced concrete pavement was substituted for the brick. The Bay State Street Railway Co. replaced its rails with new and up-to-date girder rails, and changes were also made in the drainage of the tracks.

job of renovating the bridge was finished two weeks ago last Saturday, and yesterday for the first time the electric cars were allowed to run over the bridge, but in order to insure good pavement, that is give the cement a good chance to dry, the bridge will Wednesday morning. The cost of improving the bridge is about $14,000.

That Cement Band Stand

Mayor O'Donnell this morning gave out the following statement relative to the cement band stand on the South common:

council appropriated $2000 some time ago, but which is still to be constructed: "The municipal council has voted a sum of money to be used for the erection of a cement band stand on the South common. If in the opinion of men familiar with cement construction it is feasible to erect th-should be constructed. If not, by no means should it be attempted."

Although the employees of the water department have finished working in the bed of the Merrimack river, the Alken street sewer outlets still are in fact that the water is so high. It was understood that the sewer men could not work in the river while the water department employees were busy there, and it was a question of how soon the latter would finish their task so that the

The water department has been away from the river bed for several days now, but on account of the rising of the water the outlet has not been extended. This work will be tackled as soon as convenient.

More Candidates
The candidates for municipal election who have taken out their nomina-

For mayor: George H. Brown,
Fourth avenue; John A. Osgood, 17
Dowers street.
For commissioner: Andrew E. Barrett, Herbert L. Chapman, East Merimack street, and James J. Gallagher,

Expense Accounts
The following have filed their election expense accounts with the city clerk since Saturday afternoon: Thomas J. Mullarkey, democrat, Sept. 2, Courier-Citizen, $1.80.

John Printing Co., $25.00; Oct. 3,
Charles A. Cote, auto services, $15; Oct.
Lowell Auto Co., $1.25; Sept. 20, advertising $3; Sept. 23. The Sun, $3.60.

Park Department

Three hundred small trees are ex-

Employees of the park department, better known as the tree-gang, are at work on cutting dangerous trees in the

Supt. J. W. Kernan is today entertaining his close friend, Matthew J. Curtin, of Boston, engineer for the

SCHOONER SUNK IN BAY ST. MICHAEL'S NEW ORGAN

Desperate Battle of Captain and Mrs. Ray and Four Members of Crew—7 Hours in Open Boat

HULL, Oct. 27.—Capt. Ernest Ray, his wife and the four members of the crew of the three-masted schooner "P. Haven" staggered up the beach on the southeast bar of Point Allerton about 6 o'clock last night, more than seven hours after their vessel had sunk in Massachusetts bay 25 miles north-west of Highland light.

Those seven hours they had passed in an open 19-foot power boat, over which the high seas broke continuously, beaten by the wind and whipped by heavy rain.

Mrs. Ray, barely conscious from exhaustion, lay up to her waist in water, while the Italian mate steered the boat through the fog and the captain and the other three men bailed unceasingly.

The schooner, bound to Bangor, Me., with 400 tons of coal for the Eastern Manufacturing company, left New York Oct. 4, more than three weeks ago, and from the very start had met storm and high seas. For ten days she had lain at anchor off Point Judith and had sought shelter again at Vineyard Haven, one of a fleet of 100 sail driven into that refuge.

Yesterday morning the schooner left the Haven, had rounded the cape safely and was beating her way across the bay under light sail in the teeth of the northeast gale, when, about 10 or 11 o'clock, Capt. Ray is not sure of the exact hour, her water rotted rigging gave way and with a crash the foremast went over the port side.

The mainmast and mizenmast followed in quick succession and the schooner heeled over on her side, shipping heavy seas.

It was with the greatest difficulty that the ship's boat, a two-one with a sturdy engine in it, was launched. The sea was running very high so that the boat was time and again almost swamped and the men feared that the waterlogged schooner would sink beneath them.

Barely Clear Sinking Craft.

Mrs. Ray was lowered into the boat, the crew followed her, and the captain came last, carrying the ship's two cats. The motor was started, and barely were they 100 feet from the schooner—they could have seen no further for the fog—when the schooner with a wallow went to the bottom.

They were a mixed party in the boat. Capt. Ray and his wife are from Ellsworth, Me. His mate, who took the wheel of the power boat, is Alfred Accuso, an Italian. Charles Sanker, one of the sailors, is a native of Sweden; Donley Woods, another, is a Nova Scotian; the third, Charles Brown, comes from a Massachusetts town.

In a general way Capt. Ray knew where they were, but he had little idea where they should go, for the nearest land was many miles away. There was small time for thinking, too, for the sea ran high and wave after wave broke over the low gunwale of the boat, while the rain ever poured down.

Leaving the mate to make what courses he could, and covering Mrs. Ray with blankets and a cap as a protection against the wind and cold rather than against the water, for she was already wet to the skin—the men began their seven-hours-long task of bailing.

Desperate Battle

Never could they keep the boat more than half clear of water and once it was nearly awash, but they kept desperately to their task though drenched and stiff and weary. There was food and water in the boat, but small time for eating or drinking, and every minute there was the cold wind and the dash of the waves.

They had been running for Boston harbor and in spite of wind and seas they made 40 miles in seven hours. For it was shortly before 6 o'clock that they sighted land, and in a few minutes the waves carried the boat high up on the southeast bar of Point Allerton.

Mrs. Ray was so much exhausted that her husband had to carry her up the beach. The party was met by John McFadden, a beach patrol of the United States life-saving station at Hull, and he helped the tired men pull their boat up to safety. Then a hunt was made for shelter.

The lights of a house were presently seen through the fog and it proved to be that of the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Monk of Newton, at Allerton Cliff, on the ocean side of the station. They were very glad to receive Capt. Ray and his wife, and did all they could to make them comfortable.

Schooner Owned in Boston

The man went on with Coast Guard McFadden to the life-saving station, about three-quarters of a mile away. There they were given hot drinks, food and dry clothing, and were soon in bed, their hardships forgotten.

Both Capt. Ray and his wife were willing enough last night to talk of the work and were very anxious to be conveyed to their relatives at Ellsworth, Me.

The schooner, Capt. Ray said, hails from Bucksport, Me., and is owned by W. W. Rice of Boston. She was 33 years old, though he had been captain of her only a year. She was valued at about $400, he thought, exclusive of cargo, and was not insured.

Mrs. Ray was very thankful indeed that they had come through the ordeal safely. She had been terribly frightened, especially just when the boat was launched from the sinking schooner, and afterward had been so chilled and stiff and exhausted that she had been barely capable of anything but cold and fatigue until she found herself in the Monks' house.

"It was an awful experience," said Capt. Ray. "I thought our chance of escape was just about one in 10,000 and didn't at all expect to get through. It was a wonder that we were able to launch the boat, and it was a continual wonder afterward that it kept afloat in that sea. We owe our lives to that motor and to the fact that the boat was a new one."

Rev. Franklin H. Reeves preached on "The Expulsion of Fear" at the Congregational church this morning. A male quartet, consisting of Raymond Slater, George Davis, Royal Shawcross and Gilbert Merrill, sang "The Ninety and Nine" and the anthem, "Come, Ye Disciples." The choir, with a solo obligato by Miss Marion Varney.

A delightful party was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Margaret Peterson at the corner of Newfield street and Groton road when a luncheon was given in honor of Miss Mildred Queen of Washington street, who is soon to become a bride.

The following were among those present: Misses Mabel Bond, Betha Nankin and Marion Poole of Lynn; the Misses Muriel Davis and Madeline Field of Nashua; Miss Amy Pierce of Peoria, Ill.; Miss Mary Barrington of North Billerica; and Miss Rose Ethel Garvey of North Chelmsford.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A fine course luncheon was served during which a ring cake was cut by Miss Queen. The affair was most enjoyable to all.

FIFTH VICTIM OF TYPHOID

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 27.—The fifth death from typhoid fever among the members of the Rhode Island party that attended the Perry celebration at Put-in-Bay, Ohio, was reported yesterday, the victim being Sumner B. Moberg, Jr., 15-year-old son of former State Senator Moberg of Wakefield. More than 40 members of the Rhode Island delegation have been stricken with the disease.

Exquisite Recital by Prof. O'Shea Assisted by the Church Quartet and Organist

The new organ at St. Michael's church was introduced to a gathering that filled the church to its capacity last evening, when Mr. John A. O'Shea, a leading organist of Boston, gave a beautiful and varied recital that brought out the fine points of the instrument.

In his range of selections, he gave some of the old, solemn pieces that are familiar to all who have a knowledge of church music, but he also played pieces that are not ordinarily heard during sacred services.

Many of these were modern and of the fantastic or playful variety that gave a splendid opportunity to the organist to contrast the subtle tones of the beautiful organ in minor pieces with the solemn swell of the old time church music. The program was varied by vocal selections given by members of the church quartet and accompanied skillfully by Miss Ella M. Reilly, who has been engaged as organist.

Following is the program: Fantasia et Fuga (G Minor).....Bach Prelude, 6 Interludes and Finales.....Whitling

"After".....Mr. O'Shea. Success.....Miss Griffin. At Sunset (New England Diggle Theme, Variations and Finales).....Thilo Mr. O'Shea

"Open the Gates".....Mrs. Knapp. Venetian Nights (Barcarolle).....Shen Mr. O'Shea

Repentir ("O Divine Redeemer").....Gounod. "After".....Mrs. Murphy. A Pastoral Suite (Third Movement).....Demarest

Toccata.....Mr. O'Shea. "Suffer Little Children".....Underhill "My Rosary".....Mr. Murphy

Serenata.....Mozzkowski. March from Tannhauser.....Wagner Mr. O'Shea

Infammatius (from "Stabat Mater").....Rossini. Song of the Gesanges.....Mendelssohn

Overture to William Tell.....Rossini. Mr. O'Shea

The power and volume of the new organ were demonstrated by Mr. O'Shea in the "Tannhauser" numbers, and the opening selections from Bach and Whitting. The "Fantasia et Fuga" is a piece of exquisite beauty, full of subtle changes that take one from the rippling notes of a playful interlude to the capacity of the organist fully. When Mr. O'Shea had played this number and the exquisite interludes and finale of Whitting the audience knew that it was listening to a musician and an organist of rare skill. One of the prettiest numbers of the recital was the "Venetian Nights, Barcarolle," composed by Mr. O'Shea himself. This seemed to have been composed with the express purpose of introducing new organs, for it gave the composer a chance to bring out the technical features of the various types of instrumentalization.

The well known overture to "William Tell" held the audience spellbound in its measured solemnity and as a contrast to Rossini was set the more spontaneous Mendelssohn, whose "Song of the Gesanges" was a delight.

The intense silence with which the organ numbers were received was due to something more than the solemnity of the edifice, yet had the concert been given in a public hall its excellence would have been indicated by vigorous applause.

The vocal numbers were quite in keeping with the high standard of the organ numbers. Miss Griffin sang a difficult solo with rare feeling, and Mr. Thomas P. Boulger gave Miss Knapp's "Open the Gates" with great power and dramatic expression. The beautiful "Repentir" of Gounod was sung by Mrs. Murphy with exquisite taste and a mastery of technique. Accompanied by Mr. O'Shea she also sang the well known "Infammatius" from the Stabat Mater of Rossini, which afforded her an opportunity to display the finest qualities of her well trained voice. Mr. James A. Murphy sang two numbers, one of them being the ever popular "Rosary" by Nevin. His singing was delicately shaded and he brought out the sentiment of the theme in both numbers.

BURIAL OF WHITE MAN

WILLIAM WHITE, FIRST TO BE INTERRED AT PORT NELSON—NEWS REACHES HALIFAX

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 27.—Port Nelson, far up on the shores of Hudson bay, has seen its first burial of a white man. News of the ceremony has reached here on the last steamer to leave the port before it settled down to its ice bound winter of more than nine months.

The dead man was William White and was supposed to have come from London, England. He was a seaman on the schooner Cereno. After the wreck of that vessel off Port Nelson he came ashore with his shipmates and worked as longshoreman at the construction camp at Port Nelson. An internal abscess caused his death on September 30, and he was buried in a quiet spot on the banks of the Nelson river, not far from the Indian tepees. His grave was marked by fellow workmen with a simple wreath and cross woven from varicolored moss.

COW CAUSED SIX DEATHS

TRAIN HITS HER AND CAR BEARING LABORERS IS OVERTURNED INTO WATER FILLED DITCH

GARYVILLE, La., Oct. 27.—A cow was responsible for the killing of six negro laborers and the serious injury of seven others near here Saturday. A locomotive hauling a log train struck the cow, causing a flatcar to overturn and throwing the negroes into a ditch filled with water. The car pinned the negroes beneath it.

$2.50 A PIECE FOR KISSES

Married Man Who Grabbed Young Girl and Impaled Two Kisses on Her Lips Fined

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Camale Pazzo paid $5 in the Montclair, N. J., police court for imprinting two kisses on the unwilling lips of Miss Cornelia Senna.

The girl said she was walking on Highland avenue and before she could prevent, Pazzo kissed her twice. Pazzo denied the charge. Recorder Yeast at first fined Pazzo $15, but reduced the amount when Pazzo's wife begged leniency.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Excellent Values in the Dry Goods Section of Our Great Under-price Basement for the First of the Week's Shopping

MELTON FLANNELS—Remnants of Melton Flannel in very handsome patterns and colorings for kimono, 15c value on the piece, at10c Yard

PRINTED FLANNELLETTES—In medium and dark colors, good heavy quality for waists and house dresses, 10c value, at8c Yard

CHINCHILLA FLANNEL—Remnants of Chinchilla Flannel in plain pink, blue, cream and white; heavy quality for kimono and children's bath robes, 19c value on the piece, at12 1-2c Yard

COTTON DRESS GOODS—Remnants of Cotton Dress Goods in dark colors, excellent fabric for children's dresses, 12 1-2c value on the piece, at7c Yard

WOOL BLANKETS—Fine Wool Blankets, full 11-4 size, made of fine California wool, blue or pink borders, with two-inch lappeta ribbon binding to match. $6.00 value. Special at $4.50 Pair

DRESS GINGHAM—Remnants of Dress Gingham, plain chambray and fancy, 10c value, at6 1-4c Yard

MERCERIZED DAMASK—About 30 pieces of fine Mercerized Table Damask, slightly soiled, at one-third less than regular prices. 58 inches wide, 39c value, at29c Yard

64 inches wide, 49c value, at35c Yard

72 inches wide, 59c value, at39c Yard

YARD WIDE OUTING FLANNEL—Remnants of Yard Wide Outing Flannel in stripes and plain white, 12 1-2c value, at10c Yard

MERRIMACK ST. SECTION

Ladies' Flannel Gowns—Ladies' Night Gowns, made of heavy outing flannel and cut full size, 69c value, at 50c Each

Misses' Flannel Gowns—Misses' Gowns, made of heavy outing flannel, sizes 8 to 14 years, at49c Each

BASEMENT

Children's Flannel Gowns—Children's Gowns, made full size, 50c garments, at 29c Each

MEN'S FURNISHING SECTION BASEMENT

Men's Fleece Underwear—Single and double breasted, in all sizes, good value, st.45c Each

Men's Jersey Ribbed Underwear—Good, heavy garments, made of good combed yarn, at45c Each

Boys' Jersey Fleece Underwear—Boys' Jersey Underwear—fleece lined, warm garments, at25c Each

Boys' Fleece Lined Underwear—Boys' Heavy Fleece Lined Underwear, very good garments, at25c Each

Men's Sweaters—Men's Heavy Wool Sweaters, red and gray, made in the latest styles. Special value at99c

BASEMENT

SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

Dean Chas. R. Brown of Yale Divinity School Emphasizes Need of More of Right Kind of Men

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27.—The need of the right kind of men to be trained for the high task of spiritual leadership was emphasized by Dean Charles R. Brown, of Yale Divinity school, in an address delivered here last night at the National Council of the Congregational church.

"We have not nearly enough men with sound health, of positive and vigorous build," declared Dean Brown; "men with warm social sympathies; men with sufficient mental capacity to take training; men of commonsense; men of genuine Christian character. Give us a more adequate supply of such men and we will send you leaders worthy to sit on twelve thrones of power."

Dean Brown said that there were two main sources of supply—the Christian home and the Christian college. "I fear that in this hurried, restless life of ours, the first-named source is not being adequately maintained," he continued. "There are homes nominally Christian where the mother finds time abundant for all manner of social diversion, but never from month's end to month's end devotes one complete hour to the high task of teaching her children the truths of that Book or of lifting up their spiritual needs in prayer to God."

As to the other source, Dean Brown asserted that many of the great historic universities and many of the state universities of the middle west were saying to the call for spiritual leadership: "It is not in us." The percentage of graduates from these institutions, he said, was practically small.

"The one supreme qualification for moral leadership," declared Dean Brown, "must come in that personal, invincible spiritual passion which springs from daily fellowship with the Lord Christ. If we are defective in our church life today, it is due, I believe, more than all else, to a deficiency at this point. We have not men enough in our pulpits who count themselves candles of the Lord lighted from above and ready to burn to the socket to light the way of those who sit in darkness."

Rev. Charles E. Jefferson of New York city declared America has four dragons to meet and conquer, the first of which is greed.

Mothers of the nation should devote less time to social diversion and more to the training of their sons and daughters, declared Moderator Charles R. Brown of the Yale divinity school.

Rev. Carl S. Patton of Columbus, O., deplored the tendency of ministers to discuss from the pulpit and in the press the alleged decadence of the church.

Rev. Ernest B. Allen of Toledo, O., asked a campaign for bringing young boys, who are kept from attending public school through poverty or misfortune, into the Sunday schools.

Secretary Henry A. Atkinson of Chicago addressed a joint meeting of church leaders at the Industrial Council at Labor temple, defining the church's attitude toward labor.

The Changing Age

Girls and boys from 14 to 19 years of age undergo physical changes which tax their strength to the utmost and the strain is always apparent from pale cheeks, colorless lips, and tired bodies—sometimes eruptions of the skin and the utter lack of the ambition and initiative with which their younger years were filled.

Budding into womanhood and manhood, with the duties of school or business, demands concentrated nourishment which is readily convertible into red blood corpuscles, energy and strength, and the very best thing for this changing age is the medical nutriment in Scott's Emulsion—it possesses the rare blood-making properties of cod liver oil in a predigested form; hypophosphites for the nervous system, with the healing, soothing qualities of pure glycerine.

Its nourishing force promotes assimilation, yields strength in abundant red blood, fills hollow cheeks, tones the nerves, makes all good food do good, and does it in a natural easy manner.

The sustaining nutriment in Scott's Emulsion is so helpful to this changing age that it should never be neglected—every druggist has it.

13-112 Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel, Pills, Act on Bowels Like Pepper Acts in Nostrils

Get a 10-cent box now. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lax can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

OUR CLEANSING PROCESSES

Are adapted to all kinds of garments. We cleanse quickly and thoroughly Suits, Gowns and Wraps of any material in any color or shade.

The Dillon Dye Works Just Across the Bridge 5 EAST MERRIMACK STREET

Stove Repairs

Linings, grates, centers and other parts for all stoves and ranges, carried in stock. Work done at lowest prices. Bring name and size of stove, or telephone 4170.

Quinn Furniture Co. 160 Middlesex Street.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM
THEO. N. VAIL, PRESIDENT

The telegraph ought to reach every community and fit its services to the varied needs of all the people.

This is what the Western Union is trying to accomplish

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY

COAL
Best, Clean and Fresh Mined

Wm. E. Livingston Co.
Tel. 1550. 15 Thorndike St. Est. 1828

THRILLING RIDE

Large Auto Knocked on Electric Car from Rails in Boston

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—A Park square-bound electric car was struck by a large touring automobile at Beacon and Charles streets, yesterday afternoon, knocked from the track and took a 50-foot ride over the cobblestones until it crashed into the curb, the forward trucks mounting the sidewalk and the front vestibule coming to a rest within a few inches of the iron fence on the Charles street side of the public garden.

The auto was driven by Edward B. Chapin, a Boston lawyer, who lives in Andover. He had two friends, one a woman, with him. There were seven passengers, several of them women, in the street car. Nobody was hurt, not a pane of glass in the car was broken and the total damage was the tearing away of the front and rear steps on the right hand side of the car, the jangling of the left mud guard of the auto and the smashing of one of the machine's headlights.

The street car was in charge of Motorman M. N. Dunlavy and Conductor C. H. Taylor, both veterans in street car work. They agreed that the ride was the roughest as well as the most thrilling in their careers.

The automobile was coming along Beacon street toward Beacon hill. The tell building on the corner of Beacon and Charles street impeded the view and the auto and street car attempted to cross one another's paths. The auto struck the street car at the rear platform with force sufficient to make it leave the rails and made a dash over the payments toward the public garden entrance.

Traffic was impeded but a short time. An emergency crew soon had the street car back on the rails.

Warm—Strong—No Scratching
Good, healthful warmth without unnecessary weight or scratching is one of the big superiorities of

BRISTOL MILLS Men's Merino Underwear
50c $1.00

50% Extra Value

Made of fine-gauge, closely knitted yarns. Long or short sleeves, and regular or stout drawers. Frills and cuffs "looped on." All seams lock-stitched and covered.

BRISTOL Union Suits—with the Trouser Seat—4 weights—$1.50 and $2.00.

Look for the Bristol Shield Ask Your Dealer

COAL PRICE COAL
QUALITY AND WEIGHT

Three reasons why we ask for your trade.

HORNE COAL CO.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

THE MOVIES AND DIME NOVELS

There is something more pathetic than revolting in the story of the two "boy bandits" who broke into the Blackberry station in Waltham on Thursday last and who, when discovered, tried to escape down the Charles river in a rowboat, one of them having two revolvers with which he kept his pursuers at bay until forced to surrender by wounds from a shot gun. The story told by William Dubois gives more than a suspicion of a mind obsessed by the lurid melodramas too often seen in the moving picture house and the sensational wild west episodes of the dime novel. It will not be surprising if a fuller investigation of the part of the two juvenile desperados reveals more serious crimes; they were prepared to go the limit in their schemes of robbery as the carefully made plans for future breaks and the hundreds of cartridges found on Dubois eloquently testified. To find the influence of the moving picture house and the wild west story one need but read the pitiful confession of the first boy captured, which began by telling how he worked in a Lawrence mill, but that it resolved to go west, and how he rode on freight trains and with his companion broke into a hardware store to secure the ammunition necessary for a life of crime.

The published pictures of Dubois do not show a criminal face, but the ordinary type of rather expressionless countenance which one meets daily on the streets. He does not speak like the professional criminal either, if the interviews published are correct. He is reported to have cried many times in jail, especially when his mother and sisters were mentioned. All of these facts lead us to believe that this young boy who might have murdered several did his shots take effect has been almost unconsciously driven to crime by the overpowering suggestions which his apparently weak mind found in some strong external influence such as melodramatic pictures or vicious books. The incident does not stand alone. There is scarcely a week that houses are not fired, robberies committed, playmates accidentally killed, young lives yielded up in suicide—all due to the bad influence of the movies and cheap stories.

Moving pictures may be made an elevating and instructive influence on the mind of youth or the contrary, according to their character. If they refrain from the more gross characterizations of robbery, murder and the like and conform to the more desirable type of the legitimate drama they are highly educational and innocently amusing. Many pictures, however, have for their main interest some feature that would tend to destroy the moral sense of immature youth. An illustration comes to mind in the case of an eager boy who not long ago in a local theatre pulled the sleeve of a lady sitting in the next seat, to prepare her for the most exciting parts. The boy was nervous and excited and kept making remarks under his breath such as "Gee! here's where he gets killed," or something to that effect. When asked by the lady if he had seen the picture before, he answered that he had been to see it four or five times. It is not many steps from the case of that boy to a young bandit flourishing a revolver and determined to die rather than surrender. He was being made criminally insane or something like it.

Sooner or later the state will step in and make far more rigorous laws than there are at present about the type of picture that may be shown in moving picture theatres and the books that may not be sold lawfully. We hear a great deal of protest about the licentious high priced play, but it is not half as injurious as pictures that at present pass the censor. Comparatively few go to plays such as those forbidden in New York, but thousands of boys and girls in every part of the country are injured by the insidious poison of lurid pictures and trashy books that are the products of sensational and abnormal imaginations.

INDIFFERENCE TO VOTING

Many reasons are given for the apparently increasing public indifference to the duty of voting but nearly all make the mistake of supposing that it is something that indicates a lessening of the ideal of democratic government in the popular mind. Most commentators treat it as a dangerous political disease which is bound to grow if left unchecked, and many are the remedies suggested for its abolition.

Indifference to the duty and privilege of voting is very regrettable and very difficult to overcome suddenly. It did not grow in a day and it will not disappear in a day. Laws to make it compulsory may help, public education will help, but time in this, as in many other things, will be the most successful doctor. Many people are apathetic at present for there has grown a well defined doubt in the sincerity of politicians and loud voiced reformers. In this state for years the leading politicians in the main were not representative of the people and kept aloof from much needed reforms with the result that a distrust of all politicians and all politics has grown. This distrust, however, will fade away when the people realize that now more than ever before the will of the people is all powerful in legislation. Voters will again see at some future day that every vote honestly and conscientiously cast is a blow for principle.

As the coming election draws near it is to be hoped that the voters will get aroused to their duty and go to the polls in their strength as American men should. The situation may be involved and the candidates many, but any man who has common sense can find some reason or reasons why he should vote for one in preference to the other. Even though the man of his choice may not be successful, his vote will not be thrown away if he voted as his conscience and sense of duty dictates. No honest vote is ever thrown away.

A PUBLIC MARKET

The public market question which Mayor O'Donnell again brought to public attention at the recent meeting of the directors of the board of trade does not seem to have progressed here originally beyond the hearing stage, but nevertheless a great many people felt that the arguments put forth by the farmers of the vicinity and others at city hall would justify a trial of the experiment. In the city of Fall River, however, they have brought the matter to a head, and the voters of that city will be asked to vote on the referendum question whether a public market shall be established in that city. The Fall River Herald does not speak very enthusiastically of the proposition, but its principal objection seems to be based on the cost as $25,000 is the sum mentioned "for a starter." Those who advocated a public market here did not suggest any such outlay as this as it was felt that a beginning could be made with a very slight outlay. In fact, a public market could be conducted in the open for many months of the year and such markets are found profitable to the public in many important cities. The Fall River paper states, too, that in some places the greed of the producers more than offset any advantages from the market as they got together and agreed on prices very close to those of the regular stores. If this is the usual proceeding, the fact was not brought out at the city hall hearing. We are inclined to take a more optimistic view of the value of the public market than our esteemed contemporary.

MEXICAN CRISIS NEAR

There is a tide in the affairs of Mexico and it will be at the flood in a very few days. For many months this country has allowed the southern republic to work out its own salvation, as best it could, interfering in no way but at the same time seeing that the arrogance of Huerta did not get beyond bounds. This course of the administration led many hot-headed patriots to burn with indignation at what they called the president's negative or cowardly attitude and they quoted the Monroe doctrine to prove that the United States was not doing its duty.

President Wilson was not forgetting the Monroe doctrine and he is about to reveal the fact to the rest of the world. A few unofficial interviews that seemed to infer adverse criticism on the part of other powers have prompted him to determine that no other nation must intervene in the affairs of Mexico. This, of course, can only mean that if there is to be intervention, America will attend to it. Meantime it would seem that the people have been afraid to take part in the elections and that Huerta is more of a dictator than ever. If Huerta comes out still on top after elections, it may take something more than moral force to settle the question. American patience seems nearly exhausted and a Mexican war does not seem entirely improbable in the near future as a last resort.

FIGHT 12 HOURS

General Battle Between Strikers and Guards in Berwin Canyon

LUDLOW, Col., Oct. 27.—A general battle between strikers, mine guards and deputy sheriffs was waged for 12 hours yesterday in Berwin canyon at Hastings and in the vicinity of the Colorado and Southern station at Ludlow.

Firing started at 1 o'clock yesterday morning and continued intermittently until nearly 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. One mine guard was killed and, according to union men, one strike is missing. The situation is extremely critical. More than seven hundred armed strikers are reported to be in the field against the mine guards. Armed strikers patrol the entire district in the vicinity of Ludlow and communication with the camps of Cedar Hill, Berwin, Hastings, Del Arroyo and Tabasco has practically been cut off.

LOVE LETTERS

Harvard Men Spend $83,000 a Year for Stationery

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Harvard men are the busiest group of letter writers on the continent of the globe. They spend more for stationery per year than they do for tailoring and furniture bills, and the Harvard Co-operative society, which caters to the trade of the Cambridge undergraduates, has statistics to prove it.

It is "love that makes the world go round," as a lyric writer expressed it, and it is also that delightful abstract quality that keeps the paper mills running night and the counter clerks busy all the day long. Also, the love letters that the 500 students at Harvard write keep the postal workers in the Harvard square branch postoffice constantly on the run in sorting the mail and sending them on their way.

The Harvard Co-operative society, which issued its reports for the year 1912-13 this week, shows that the college men spend more on books at the two large stores of the society than they do for anything else. During the year the students invested $103,000 in volumes connected with their college work.

Next to books come looks with the undergarments, for the next highest item, one for $85,000, is for furnishings, including cravats, shirts, collars, caps, canes and the like. And then comes stationery—$33,000 for a year.

They carry all kinds of amour paper at Harvard—scented, tinted, initialed, embossed, engraved and plain. If the men spend $23,000 a year for plain paper, it is up to the statisticians to discover how much time they spend in filling out the blanks with words that suggest the flapping of dove wings and the softness of warm butter. Some of the Harvard professors would like to know how much time their pupils spend in writing letters as against the time they spend in preparing their lessons. The contrast would help to solve a bothersome problem.

The cost of living looks insignificant when its items are balanced off against the price of stationery at the university. Such commonplace necessities as coal and wood and furniture cost the students $38,000 and $32,000 a year respectively. The great difference between the $33,000 that goes for stationery and the $35,000 that goes for coal and wood makes the wiseheims of the college drop it out that the undergraduates burn stationery instead of the ordinary fuel. They burn the paper with words anyway.

The last item of which the society keeps an account is that for tailoring. This is only $15,000 a year, or a little more than half of the writing material outlay.

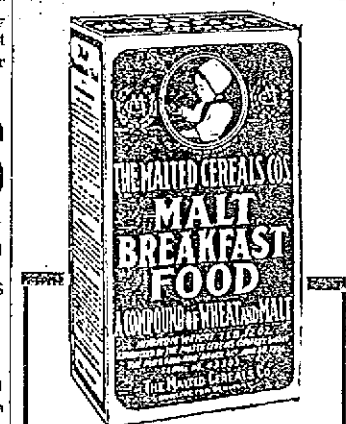

Eighty-three thousand dollars' worth of love letters, with perhaps a few "please-send-a-check-son" missives thrown in, is a lot even for Harvard to figure out, and it will take many more papers to arrive at the final conclusion as to who gets the letters.

SEIZE PLUMES

Feather Valued at $600 Taken From Daughter of Former Inspector

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The single secure the customs inspectors have made since the new regulations prohibiting the importation of cigarettes went into effect is on record as the customs house today as that of plumes valued at $600 taken from Miss Edna McLaughlin, daughter of a former police inspector here, who arrived yesterday from Europe. The young woman had frankly declared the fine feathers as part of her apparel which she valued at all at $500 and was shocked when she learned that regardless of her declaration the inspectors must seize the cigarettes. She protested that she had bought the plumes in this country but learned to her dismay that only 24 hours before her arrival an order had been issued for the seizure of all such feathers whether originally purchased in this country or abroad.

FIGHTING AT MONTEREY BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 27.—Monterey had not been captured at late hour Saturday night and desperate street fighting was still in progress, according to official advices received by constitutionalists at their headquarters at Matamoros yesterday. Private advices said the constitutionalists had suffered heavy losses and that 3000 federals were engaged.

A Delicious Breakfast Dish

A natural builder, Malt Breakfast Food supplies you with energy and strength that will give zest to the day's work. Most economical; a 15c package makes 30 big portions of a sweet, nutty cereal.

Hamilton coupons in every package. At your Grocer's. Malted Cereals Co., Burlington, Vt.

T. J. REAGAN GENERAL ORGANIZER

Lowell Man Honored by the Textile Workers of America

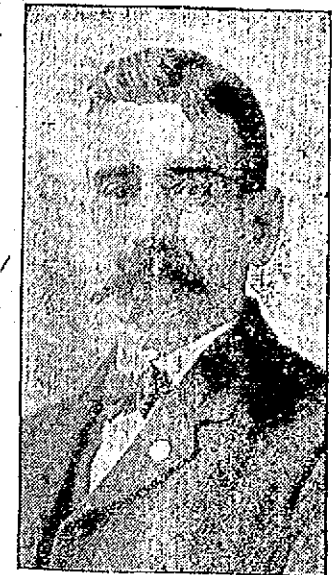

Three Local Unions Represented at Convention in Philadelphia

Messrs. Moses L. Daigle, James Carney and Thomas J. Reagan of this city have returned from the annual convention of the Textile Workers of America, which was held during the past week at Philadelphia, Pa., and where they represented the loomfixers and the weavers' locals of Lowell. The delegates are well satisfied with the doings of the convention, particularly so for the fact that a Lowell man, Moses L. Daigle, was elected on the executive board, while Thomas J. Reagan, also of this city, was appointed organizer general for the organization.

There were 53 delegates present, representing 66 locals from nine different states. The convention, which lasted a week, was held at the University City Hotel, a fine building erected by the labor organizations of Philadelphia, and considerable business was transacted, among which was the election of the board of officers for the ensuing year.

In the course of the convention it was announced that the Textile Workers of America now count about 35,000 members in its ranks, with 55 locals, three of which are in Lowell, the Loomfixers, Weavers and Ring Spinner Fixers. The organization is affiliated with the Textile Workers of Europe and both count a membership of 63,944. Thomas J. Reagan of this city, who for some time has been doing organizing work for the Textile workers in the state of Pennsylvania, was complimented on his work, and tomorrow evening a class of 700 new members, the fruit of Mr. Reagan's work, is to be initiated into Philadelphia locals. On account of his excellent work Mr. Reagan was appointed permanent general organizer for this large permanent organization and he will take up his duties in a couple of weeks. The officers chosen for the ensuing year are as follows: John Golden, Fall River, president; James Tansey, Fall River, first vice president; Thomas J. Morgan, Paterson, N. J., second vice president; Albert Hubbard, Fall River, secretary-treasurer; executive board, Moses L. Daigle of Lowell, Thomas O'Donnell of Fall River, Samuel Ross of New Bedford, John Hoban of New Bedford, Thomas Taylor of Fall River, Urban Fleming of Holyoke, Jesse Walker of Cohasset, N. Y., John Floor of Cohasset, N. Y., Robert Stump of Brooklyn, John Tascio of Scranton, Pa., Joseph Starr of Fall River, August Christenson of Philadelphia, Frank McKorgy of Philadelphia, Arthur McDonald of Fall River, and George Vanyliet of New Bedford.

The Lowell delegates while in Philadelphia made their headquarters at the Hanover hotel.

THOMAS J. REAGAN

year are as follows: John Golden, Fall River, president; James Tansey, Fall River, first vice president; Thomas J. Morgan, Paterson, N. J., second vice president; Albert Hubbard, Fall River, secretary-treasurer; executive board, Moses L. Daigle of Lowell, Thomas O'Donnell of Fall River, Samuel Ross of New Bedford, John Hoban of New Bedford, Thomas Taylor of Fall River, Urban Fleming of Holyoke, Jesse Walker of Cohasset, N. Y., John Floor of Cohasset, N. Y., Robert Stump of Brooklyn, John Tascio of Scranton, Pa., Joseph Starr of Fall River, August Christenson of Philadelphia, Frank McKorgy of Philadelphia, Arthur McDonald of Fall River, and George Vanyliet of New Bedford.

The Lowell delegates while in Philadelphia made their headquarters at the Hanover hotel.

WESTERLY WRECK

In Which 35 Were Injured Was Caused by Broken Rail

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 27.—According to an official statement from the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad last night, the derailment of the Gilt Edge express at Westerly, R. I., Saturday night, "was caused by a broken rail, due to the graduated concealed fissure at right angles to the axis of the rail."

The rail was rolled in 1910 and placed in the track during that year. The broken parts have been turned over to the public utilities commission of Rhode Island for examination. The track is patrolled daily by a competent employee of the road, the statement says. Thirty-five passengers, the conductor and one trainman were injured or shaken up, none seriously hurt, according to the railroad's report.

FOR ANY SKIN SORENESS COMFORT POWDER IS USED IN HARTFORD HOSPITALS.

Supt. B. S. Gilbert of Hartford City Hospital says: "We have used Comfort Powder in our hospital for many years and consider it by far the best powder made, wherever a perfect skin-healing powder is needed. We have found it to be most carefully prepared and of certain and effective therapeutic value."

Comfort Powder is used and endorsed by more hospitals, physicians and trained nurses than any other powder, because it is a skin healing wonder. Be sure you get the genuine with signature of E. S. Sykes on box.

J. L. CHALIFOUX CO. COR. CENTRAL & MIDDLE STS. Lowell's Greatest Ready-to-Wear Store

After Supper Sale 5.30 TO 9.30 TONIGHT

Men's 15c Half Hose, at..... 9c
Men's Cambric half hose, in blue, black, natural and camel hair.

$1.50 School Shoes, at..... 79c
Girls' kid-skin lace shoes, low heels, solid leather sole, patent tips, sizes 9 to 12.

Big Men's Suit Sale Friday..... $8.89
Value $15.00 and $18.00.
See Windows Thursday

Ladies' 59c Gowns, at..... 33c
Ladies' fine cotton, nicely trimmed with Hamburg, short and long sleeves, high and low neck.

Ladies' $1.50 Sweaters, at..... 65c
Ladies' wool sweaters, white only, slightly soiled, also a few colors in sweaters, good for men and women.

50c Kimonos, at..... 33c
Ladies' short flannel kimonos, all sizes and colors.

25c Vests and Pants, at..... 18c
Ladies' fleeced underwear, unbleached, first quality.

Ladies' 15c Hose, at..... 5c
Ladies' cotton hose, also silk hose, black only, seconds.

$3 and $4 Odd Silk Waists, at..... $1.59
125 odd silk waists, taken from our regular stock, one or two of a style, all perfect.

$3 Fancy Weave Sweaters, at, each..... $1.39
56 fancy weave sweaters, double breasted, in gray, white and a few red.

$12 to $15 Silk and Party Dresses, at..... $8.89
35 sample silk and party dresses, one or two of a style, in different colors and materials.

$5 All Wool Serge Dresses, at, each..... $2.89
43 serge dresses, made in different styles and colors, in all sizes.

Putnam & Son Co.

166 CENTRAL STREET

THREE ITEMS

Advertised Friday brought such good results that we think they are worth repeating.

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SMART NEW SUITS $10.00

That sell regularly for $13.00 and $15.00. Warm, wet weather left lots of stock unsold with the manufacturers—We've taken advantage of the situation and bought for far less than the goods are worth—new models in fancy chevrot, cassimere and worsted suits—For men and young men, that regularly we should have to sell for $13 to $15—Marked them as we can afford to do..... $10.00

THE PUTNAM GUARANTEED SUITS $15.00

Guaranteed to wear to your satisfaction or a New Suit Free. Made from all wool materials of our own selection, cut on the newest models, hand tailored—wherever hand work adds to the value of a suit—in fancy chevrots, cassimeres and worsteds for business—Black and Blue unfinished fabrics for dress—Every suit bears our Guarantee Label—Come back with it if it goes wrong..... $15.00

NEW PATCH POCKET SUITS

For young men—Four new lots shown today for the first time. English model, sack with high peaked lapels, cut short, with patch pockets—High cut six button vests with collars and vester—Trousers as straight as a pipe stem—grays, black and white, browns and novel mixtures, $10.00, $13.50, $15.00, $16.00, $18.00

FEAST OF ST. VERECUNDA

OBSERVED AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH YESTERDAY—SERMON AND PROCESSION

The anniversary of the translation of the relics of St. Verecunda was observed yesterday at the church of the Immaculate Conception, with impressive services morning and evening. The altars were beautifully adorned with flowers, lights, potted plants, etc. The relics of the martyred saint reposed before the altar of St. Joseph. Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, provincial of the Oblate order, celebrated solemn high mass at 11 o'clock assisted by Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. John M. O'Brien, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. Rev. Owen P. McQuaid, O. M. I., preached a sermon, dwelling on the universal celebration of the deliverance of the church from the persecution of Constantine from the persecutions which it has since endured. It brought the church from the catacombs to the open where it has since remained.

Rev. Lawrence F. Tighe, the pastor, celebrated solemn vespers at half past six o'clock in the evening with Rev. Father Sullivan and Rev. Fr. McQuaid assisting. Rev. Fr. O'Brien was the speaker at the evening service.

His topic was the veneration of the saints. He explained the attitude of the church in this respect as being meant for the guidance of the faithful. It puts before them the examples of human beings who rose to great heights of sanctity or like St. Verecunda, the martyr, gave up their lives for love of Christ. He spoke of the early church and its persecution and gave a graphic picture of the catacombs where the hopes of the martyrs were found. He explained how veneration of the saints is an aid to sanctity and told how those without the pale of the church frequently misunderstood the attitude of Catholics towards those whom the church has raised to her altars. The spiritual union, he said, that exists between the members of the Catholic church in heaven and on earth enables us to reach the saints of God by prayer and enables them to plead personally to the Creator for us. God is especially moved by the prayers of His saints for they all suffered for Him and were subject to His laws when on earth, and they are now powerful intercessors in their glorified state in heaven where they will praise their Lord and Saviour for all eternity. He urged on all, therefore, respect and veneration for the saints, especially for Saint Verecunda whose relics reposed in the Immaculate Conception church.

Following the sermon, the relics of the saint were borne in solemn procession through the aisles of the church escorted by the junior societies of the parish. The services were brought to a close by solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

R. C. WHITTIER DEAD

WAS CAPTAIN OF THE YALE CREW WHICH DEFEATED HARVARD IN 1905

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—The death of Richard C. Whittier, who was captain of the Yale crew which defeated Harvard in 1905, was announced today. Since his graduation in the same year he had been master of the Pomfret boarding school, until this fall, when illness forced him to relinquish his position. His death at a hospital in Brooklyn, yesterday, was due to Bright's disease. Whittier was 39 years old and leaves a widow.

FORMER SLAVE DEAD

EDWARD E. MOSES WAS OLDEST NEWBURYPORT NEGRO—RAN AWAY FROM HIS OWNER

NEWBURYPORT, Oct. 27.—Edward E. Moses, the oldest colored man in the city, died yesterday morning, aged 85. He was born a slave, as were his parents before him, in Savannah, Ga., and at the age of 20 ran away, seizing the opportunity to escape when he was brought to New York with the family of John Murphy of Savannah, his owner.

After getting away from the family, in New York he remained hidden for a few days in Brooklyn, and then came on to Boston and found employment in Young's hotel. During that time he made several visits to this city, being the guest of John Young, at that time the leading colored man of the city. Moses returned to New York at the outbreak of the war and enlisted in a colored regiment, seeing service in Virginia and South Carolina.

After being mustered out in New York he returned to Boston and again entered the service of Young's hotel, remaining there but a few years, coming to Newburyport about 1865. He has lived here ever since, being employed for about 35 years by the firm of J. A. Greeley & Co., beside working in various ways for many other people, doing all kinds of odd jobs.

During his younger years in this city he was a regular attendant at the dances and always a leader in the cake walks and other festivities of the colored people. Mr. Moses never married, living alone in a small house on the outskirts of the city. He enjoyed good health despite his advanced years until last Thursday, when he was stricken with pneumonia. The funeral will be held at the home of the Greeley family on High street, whom he had served in various capacities for so many years.

RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' pleasant Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No griping is the "mark" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headaches—torpid liver—and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

BOY OF 19 FINED $15

Was Charged With Assault on His Girl's Stepfather—Other Police Court News

A sample of the viciousness which is meted out to some people by drinking alcoholic beverages was shown this morning in the case of Thomas A. Barry, charged with drunkenness. His case is only one of many in which alcohol arouses all that is worst in a man and sets him temporarily crazy.

Barry raised a very bad racket at his home on Waterford street. Officer Lemay took the stand this morning and told the court in what he found the defendant when he arrested him. His description of the scene he encountered when he entered the house aroused the courtroom from its usual Monday morning slumber.

The defendant's wife was injured as his daughter was bleeding from a blow, while the kitchen stove was tipped over. The man was usually crazed by drink.

Judge Enright called the defendant to the bench. He is not a vicious looking personage and certainly appeared repentant and deeply ashamed of himself this morning. The court gave him a suspended sentence of four months to the house of correction, which will go into effect if he is arrested within the next six months.

Wounded Prospective Stepfather
Although only 19 years of age and a very much appearing youngster, George Ford can certainly hit a wicked punch. The left eye of Edward Bradley, a male testimony to this fact today. The trial was one of more or less contradictory evidence and the parity of the witnesses on either side was clearly shown by the manner in which they delivered their testimony.

The underlying theme to the whole story lies in the fact that the girl with whom the defendant keeps company is the stepdaughter of the complainant and that no very pleasant relations exist between stepdaughter and stepfather. The defendant's testimony brought this fact out beyond dispute. The defense, in charge of Daniel J. Donahue, Esq., did not deny that the assault was committed by the defendant but urged leniency from the fact that the defendant was goaded into his action by the talk of the complainant.

The complainant was the first witness for the prosecution and mounted the stand with an eye shade covering his wounded eye. Under the questioning of Sgt. Welch he was not able to get to the facts in the case.

"I never opened my mouth to him and he clipped right here, Your Honor," said Bradley. The witness went on to relate how he and his daughter and son were standing at the corner of Congress and Gorham streets when the defendant came up to them and leaning over the shoulder of the daughter clipped him one in the eye.

Lawyer Donahue put Bradley through a very severe cross-examination. The witness refused to acknowledge that he ever attached any name to his stepdaughter, who by the way is only seventeen years old, but admitted that he had "bossed" her around. He also admitted that he took a drink "now and then" but denied that he was drinking "when the affair happened."

The complainant's daughter was the next witness and she testified to the assault with little variation. She admitted, when questioned by Mr. Donahue, that she had no use for her stepfather, and succeeded merely to add with a description of the happenings in the family. She also said that she had called the defendant a jailbird but said it was no more than he deserved.

The son of the complainant also testified to the facts as related by his father, and stated that the cause of the whole trouble lay in the fact that his father had ordered the defendant out of the house when he woke him up one night about 12 o'clock by dancing around the house. He said that the defendant wanted to beat up his father and that somebody stepped in and held him.

The defendant's sweetheart was the first witness for the defense. She spoke for a minute into the ear of the court when Lawyer Donahue asked her to state exactly the terms applied to

Tortured by Ugly Itching Eruption

Doctor Recommended Resinol, Half Of a 50c Jar Cured It

Baltimore, Md.—"My little daughter was taken with a very small spot on the back of her hand. It grew larger and caused her more trouble. When she would scratch it, it would bleed and get very ugly looking, so I doctored it myself for about a year, and at last it broke out on both knees, and where she would go to bed she would scratch, and was so tortured and suffered so from the itching, that I took her to our doctor, who recommended Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment.

Improved With First Application

"I sent for samples and after the first application the itching and inflammation was improved, and I kept it up night and morning, and by the time the sample was gone she complained very little. I got a fifty-cent pail and before that was half gone the trouble had entirely disappeared." (Signed) Mrs. Maude Schmechel, 2737 Presbury street, Nov. 5, 1912.

Nothing we can say of Resinol equals what others, such as Mrs. Schmechel, say of it. If you are suffering from itching, burning skin troubles, pimples, blackheads, dandruff, ulcers, boils, stubborn sores, or piles, try Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. The nearest druggist sells them, or write to Dept. 20-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md., for a free sample.

Edward O. Boyle was let off with a $15 fine for his third offense.

Big Hunting Knife

Domenceo Dicero was charged with drunkenness and a huge knife was shown the court. The knife was found in one of the defendant's pockets, but he said that he found the knife and used it to cut up edibles and not fellow countrymen. He was allowed to depart after depositing $5 with Clerk Trull.

Two young men were fined for being present at gambling games on the Lord's day. Arthur Roy met a $15 award and Philip Morel was fined $5. Chief Welch himself captured Roy. There were four $5 drunks and five releases.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

Women in Wagon Were Hurlled Into the Air—Both Badly Injured

RUTLAND, Vt., Oct. 27.—Mrs. C. W. Mohuron of Ira and Mrs. Willard Parker of Clarendon Springs are at the Rutland hospital suffering from injuries received yesterday when a wagon in which they were riding was struck by a freight train at the crossing at North Clarendon. Both cases are considered critical, but after examination last night it seemed that Mrs. Mohuron's chances of recovery were not as good as her companion's. Neither had very bad internal hurts, but both were suffering from shock and it is feared, from internal injuries.

The accident occurred at the crossing of the Rutland railroad, near the station. The women, in a buggy, were driving west and the train was coming north into Rutland. There were no witnesses of the collision but the train crew. The women were both in a stupor the greater part of the night.

According to the train crew, just before the women reached the crossing they lost control of the horse, which ran directly in front of the engine. The engine struck the box of the wagon, throwing the women as high as the smokestack and hurling them many feet up the track. The buggy was demolished, but the horse was uninjured.

Mrs. Parker showed few external injuries, but was suffering from shock and internal complications are feared. Mrs. Mohuron had one ear nearly torn off, and numerous wounds and cuts about the head. Her arm was fractured. Whether her skull was fractured is not known, there being no outward evidence of such catastrophe. Mrs. Mohuron is a woman of middle age and her companion quite elderly.

DEATHS

ROBBINS—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Robbins have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in the loss of their infant son and only child, Charles S. Robbins. The little one died at the home of the parents, 84 Florence avenue yesterday, aged ten days.

MOCHRIE—Mrs. Jessie Mochrie, wife of John Mochrie, died yesterday at her home, aged 44 years.

SPEAR—Frederick Spear, the infant son of Frederick and Mary Spear, died yesterday at the home of his parents, 15 Pleasant street, Dracut.

OUELLETTE—Mrs. Emilie Ouellette died yesterday at her home, 643 Merrimack street, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arenault, Mrs. Elsie Giguere and Mrs. Marie Giguere, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giguere, the first two of Langston, Mass. The late Mr. Ouellette was a member of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ouellette was born in Maine and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giguere. She was married to Mr. Ouellette in 1870. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was taken to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

BAGLEY—Lillian Bagley, aged 1 year, 4 months and 15 days, beloved daughter of Police Officer Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, died this morning at the home of her parents, 61 Hampshire street. Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers and one sister.

FUNERALS

HATCH—The funeral of Jerome B. Hatch took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his son, John E. Hatch, 281 Walker street. The services were conducted by Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Baptist church. The bearers were Messrs. Joseph McEwen, William J. Moreau, Charles E. Faine and Louis K. Swan. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the

Saunders' Market

159 GORHAM STREET

TELS. 3890-3891-3892-3893

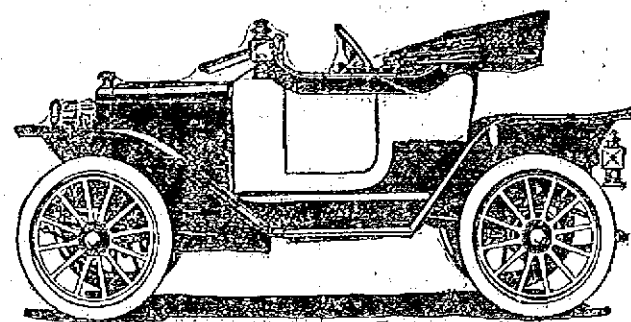

GIVEN AWAY FREE!
$12,800.00 Worth of Premiums

1 Automobile, 1 Thomas Howard $750 Player-Piano, 3 Thomas Howard $450.00 Pianos, 1 Single Cylinder Motor Cycle

5-$500.00 Certificates Good on a Thomas Howard $750.00 Player Piano. 20 $25.00 Certificates Good on a T. Howard Co. $450.00 Piano.

30 DOZEN ASSORTED PIECES OF SILVERWARE GIVEN AWAY DURING CONTEST

R-C-H 2-passenger Roadster, 110-inch wheelbase, 32x3 1/2-inch Tires, High Tension Magneto, 25-gallon gasoline tank, Trunk with capacity for two suit cases; Trunk Cover, Tire Holder. Completely equipped with latest type high grade Acetylene.

Gas Headlights, with Prest-O-Lite Storage Tank or Generator, Oil Side and Tail Lamps; Electric Lighting by Special Arrangement; High Grade Speedometer, Demountable Rims, and One Extra Rim, "Jiffy" Curtains, Horn, Top, Top Cover, One-piece Windshield, Tool Kit, Tire Repair Outfit and Jack.

1. Any person can become a contestant and receive 5000 votes free.
2. Name will not be published or made known.
3. A number will be assigned to each contestant.
4. Contestants failing personally to record votes for 4 weeks will be dropped and their number assigned to any other person.
5. Color of votes changed monthly and unless recorded in time are valueless.
6. To participate in the weekly prizes, only votes personally recorded will count.
7. No clerk or person directly or indirectly interested in this newspaper will be allowed to participate in this contest.
8. Votes must be recorded every Wednesday.
9. Votes must not be written on.
10. Tie votes in packages, assorting them and write on top slip only, contestant's number and amount of votes therein.
11. Refer all disputes to Contest Manager, whose decision shall be final.

SAUNDERS' MARKET

Voting Contest

Good for 100 Votes if presented Oct. 29

Get Into the Contest Now!

BECOME A CONTESTANT AND WIN A PRIZE

To Voters of 8th Senatorial Dist.

In a local Sunday paper, Oct. 26, 1913, MR. CHARLES KILLPATRICK wrote: "I have never voted for or against any man or measure unless I thought I was voting right and for the best interests of all the people."

LOOK AT HIS RECORD

He VOTED to raise salaries of watchmen in State Prisons over Governor's plan.

He VOTED to increase the salary of the Board of Gas and Electric Light Commissioners.

He VOTED for the TROLLEY MERGER BILL.

He voted AGAINST allowing Street Railways to carry freight and express.

He voted AGAINST compelling Street Railways to equip their cars with life-line hooks.

He voted AGAINST the BILL to provide for the use of fenders on Street Railways cars.

He voted AGAINST the election of Railroad Commissioners BY THE PEOPLE.

He voted AGAINST the election of U. S. Senators BY THE PEOPLE.

He voted AGAINST the BILL to require the Fire Insurance Companies, in cases of total loss by fire to pay full amount of the policy and family.

CITIZENS. Mr. Killpatrick says he thought he was voting right and for the best interests of all the people on the above bills. He now thinks he ought to be elected on his record.

And now, FELLOW CITIZENS, of all parties, races and creeds, can you not agree with me as much with YOUR VOTE for Senator as YOU do as your doctor for yourself and family?

GIVE ME A CHANCE to get a Political Record and YOURSELF A SENATOR who will HONOR YOUR DISTRICT and be a credit to your intelligence as a good citizen with the welfare of the community at heart.

Respectfully yours,

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

—Lieutenant-Governor Walsh declared that the violation of a party platform by representatives of the party was the highest form of POLITICAL TREASON.

—SENATOR HENRY J. DRAPER, Eighth Middlesex District, has the distinction of being the first senator who violated his pledge by voting for the so-called TROLLEY MERGER BILL.

—Mr. Walsh says these "PLEDGE-BREAKERS OUGHT TO BE DEFEATED."

—AGAIN, Mr. Draper VOTED FOR the Washburn Railroad Bill over the governor's veto.

—Two sections of this bill radically amended the BANKING laws of the State and it is a crying example of Corporation Control.—Boston Transcript.

—The REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CANDIDATES BOTH HAVE POLITICAL RECORDS AS YOU HAVE SEEN.

—HATCH—The funeral of Jerome B. Hatch took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his son, John E. Hatch, 281 Walker street. The services were conducted by Rev. Raymond G. Clapp, pastor of the First Baptist church. The bearers were Messrs. Joseph McEwen, William J. Moreau, Charles E. Faine and Louis K. Swan. Burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

—MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the

—BAGLEY—The funeral of Lillian Bagley will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, 61 Hampshire street. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—JESSIE MOCHRIE, aged 44 years, Oct. 26, died at her home, 84 Florence avenue. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—OUELLETTE—Mrs. Emilie Ouellette died yesterday at her home, 643 Merrimack street, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arenault, Mrs. Elsie Giguere and Mrs. Marie Giguere, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giguere, the first two of Langston, Mass. The late Mr. Ouellette was a member of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ouellette was born in Maine and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giguere. She was married to Mr. Ouellette in 1870. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

—ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was taken to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

—BAGLEY—Lillian Bagley, aged 1 year, 4 months and 15 days, beloved daughter of Police Officer Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, died this morning at the home of her parents, 61 Hampshire street. Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers and one sister.

—MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the Boothby hospital in Boston last Friday was held at the chapel in the Edson cemetery yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The bearers were Messrs. J. A. Garmen, Russell Fox, C. Oliver Barnes and C. O. Wheeler. Mr. Carlson read the committal service at the grave and the burial was in the family lot in the Edson cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

LARSON—The funeral services of Mrs. Fanny M. Larson were held yesterday afternoon at her home, 105 Agassiz street, and were largely attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. Sven P. Hammarlof, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, officiated. There were many beautiful flowers, including pieces by the following: The family, Carl Hedlund and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sundborn and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wickstrom, Smiths room, Waterford, Miss M. E. Johnson, M. Erickson, Ida Lindstrom and Tor Johnson, Mrs. Burman and Mrs. Nystrom, Mrs. and Mrs. Salstad, Mr. and Mrs. Lundstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bergsten, Mrs. E. Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson, Gustaf Hedstrom, Miss H. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Magnusson, George Lindquist and Gus Johnson, Anne and Monaca, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Mrs. C. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Anderson.

ELLINGWOOD—The funeral of George B. Elingwood took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Raymond G. Clapp. William North, Judge A. F. and A. M. of which Mr. Elingwood was for many years in large delegation, members of which acted as bearers. The Masonic committal service was exemplified at the grave. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

KING—The funeral of the late Frank T. King, a well known resident of Edson, took place this morning at 9:30 o'clock from his home, 83 Chestnut street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church, where at 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Owen McQuaid, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Patrick J. Phelan, O. M. I., a deacon and Rev. John O'Brien, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. Rev. Lawrence Tighe, O. M. I., and Rev. John Flynn, O. M. I., were present in the sanctuary. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes, including pieces from William King and family, Dr. John H. King of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuade, Col. and Mrs. Carmichael, employees of the Union market, the boys, members of the Immaculate Conception choir, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCosker, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cheney, Mrs. Margaret K. Riordan, the Misses Walker, Mrs. Edward Dalton and the Misses McSweeney. The bearers were Walter and William King, Thomas McCosker, Edmund Cheney and John and Thomas Brennan. At the grave Rev. Fr. McQuaid, assisted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, read the committal prayers, and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. G. O'Donnell & Sons.

PRICE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary F. Price took place this morning at 8:15 o'clock from 1975 Lakeview avenue, and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church where at 2 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among them being a pillow from the husband of the deceased; wreaths from the Price family, Harrington family, Mrs. Roddy and family, the commission of funeral, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. C. N. Eaton and Mrs. A. A. Wright and others. The bearers were Messrs. David Price, Joseph Price, William Scammon, Edward Kennedy, Michael Finnegan and Fred Kennedy. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Sullivan, O.

NATURE'S REMEDY FOR DISEASE
Every fall in olden times the family medicine chest was replenished with roots, herbs and barks, nature's remedy for disease—Scullay's for nervousness, Pennyroyal for colds, Clover Blossoms for the Blood, Thoroughwort for Colds, Wormwood and Balm of Gilead Buds for Sprains, and so on. It is interesting to note that the most successful remedy for female ills the world has ever known, had its origin nearly 50 years ago, from roots and herbs, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made today in immense quantities from these same roots and herbs with extreme accuracy care and cleanliness. The standard remedy for female ills.

—BAGLEY—The funeral of Lillian Bagley will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, 61 Hampshire street. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—JESSIE MOCHRIE, aged 44 years, Oct. 26, died at her home, 84 Florence avenue. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—OUELLETTE—Mrs. Emilie Ouellette died yesterday at her home, 643 Merrimack street, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arenault, Mrs. Elsie Giguere and Mrs. Marie Giguere, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giguere, the first two of Langston, Mass. The late Mr. Ouellette was a member of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ouellette was born in Maine and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giguere. She was married to Mr. Ouellette in 1870. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

—ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was taken to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

—BAGLEY—Lillian Bagley, aged 1 year, 4 months and 15 days, beloved daughter of Police Officer Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, died this morning at the home of her parents, 61 Hampshire street. Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers and one sister.

—MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the

—BAGLEY—The funeral of Lillian Bagley will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, 61 Hampshire street. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—JESSIE MOCHRIE, aged 44 years, Oct. 26, died at her home, 84 Florence avenue. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—OUELLETTE—Mrs. Emilie Ouellette died yesterday at her home, 643 Merrimack street, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arenault, Mrs. Elsie Giguere and Mrs. Marie Giguere, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giguere, the first two of Langston, Mass. The late Mr. Ouellette was a member of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ouellette was born in Maine and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giguere. She was married to Mr. Ouellette in 1870. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Anderson.

ELLINGWOOD—The funeral of George B. Elingwood took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Raymond G. Clapp. William North, Judge A. F. and A. M. of which Mr. Elingwood was for many years in large delegation, members of which acted as bearers. The Masonic committal service was exemplified at the grave. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

KING—The funeral of the late Frank T. King, a well known resident of Edson, took place this morning at 9:30 o'clock from his home, 83 Chestnut street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church, where at 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Owen McQuaid, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Patrick J. Phelan, O. M. I., a deacon and Rev. John O'Brien, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. Rev. Lawrence Tighe, O. M. I., and Rev. John Flynn, O. M. I., were present in the sanctuary. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes, including pieces from William King and family, Dr. John H. King of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuade, Col. and Mrs. Carmichael, employees of the Union market, the boys, members of the Immaculate Conception choir, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCosker, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cheney, Mrs. Margaret K. Riordan, the Misses Walker, Mrs. Edward Dalton and the Misses McSweeney. The bearers were Walter and William King, Thomas McCosker, Edmund Cheney and John and Thomas Brennan. At the grave Rev. Fr. McQuaid, assisted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, read the committal prayers, and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. G. O'Donnell & Sons.

PRICE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary F. Price took place this morning at 8:15 o'clock from 1975 Lakeview avenue, and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church where at 2 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among them being a pillow from the husband of the deceased; wreaths from the Price family, Harrington family, Mrs. Roddy and family, the commission of funeral, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. C. N. Eaton and Mrs. A. A. Wright and others. The bearers were Messrs. David Price, Joseph Price, William Scammon, Edward Kennedy, Michael Finnegan and Fred Kennedy. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Sullivan, O.

NATURE'S REMEDY FOR DISEASE
Every fall in olden times the family medicine chest was replenished with roots, herbs and barks, nature's remedy for disease—Scullay's for nervousness, Pennyroyal for colds, Clover Blossoms for the Blood, Thoroughwort for Colds, Wormwood and Balm of Gilead Buds for Sprains, and so on. It is interesting to note that the most successful remedy for female ills the world has ever known, had its origin nearly 50 years ago, from roots and herbs, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made today in immense quantities from these same roots and herbs with extreme accuracy care and cleanliness. The standard remedy for female ills.

—BAGLEY—The funeral of Lillian Bagley will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, 61 Hampshire street. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—JESSIE MOCHRIE, aged 44 years, Oct. 26, died at her home, 84 Florence avenue. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—OUELLETTE—Mrs. Emilie Ouellette died yesterday at her home, 643 Merrimack street, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arenault, Mrs. Elsie Giguere and Mrs. Marie Giguere, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giguere, the first two of Langston, Mass. The late Mr. Ouellette was a member of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ouellette was born in Maine and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giguere. She was married to Mr. Ouellette in 1870. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

—ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was taken to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

—BAGLEY—Lillian Bagley, aged 1 year, 4 months and 15 days, beloved daughter of Police Officer Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, died this morning at the home of her parents, 61 Hampshire street. Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers and one sister.

—MURPHY—The funeral of Miss Annie Murphy, who passed away at the

—BAGLEY—The funeral of Lillian Bagley will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Patrick H. and Margaret M. Cassidy Bagley, 61 Hampshire street. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—JESSIE MOCHRIE, aged 44 years, Oct. 26, died at her home, 84 Florence avenue. Burial in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

—OUELLETTE—Mrs. Emilie Ouellette died yesterday at her home, 643 Merrimack street, aged 61 years. She is survived by her husband, William, three daughters, Mrs. Anna Arenault, Mrs. Elsie Giguere and Mrs. Marie Giguere, and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Giguere, the first two of Langston, Mass. The late Mr. Ouellette was a member of the First Baptist church. Mrs. Ouellette was born in Maine and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giguere. She was married to Mr. Ouellette in 1870. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

—ZAHON—Elliot Zahon, aged 22 years, died today at the Lowell hospital. The body was taken to the funeral parlors of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

and Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Anderson.

ELLINGWOOD—The funeral of George B. Elingwood took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Raymond G. Clapp. William North, Judge A. F. and A. M. of which Mr. Elingwood was for many years in large delegation, members of which acted as bearers. The Masonic committal service was exemplified at the grave. Burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

KING—The funeral of the late Frank T. King, a well known resident of Edson, took place this morning at 9:30 o'clock from his home, 83 Chestnut street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church, where at 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was sung by Rev. Owen McQuaid, O. M. I., assisted by Rev. Patrick J. Phelan, O. M. I., a deacon and Rev. John O'Brien, O. M. I., as sub-deacon. Rev. Lawrence Tighe, O. M. I., and Rev. John Flynn, O. M. I., were present in the sanctuary. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes, including pieces from William King and family, Dr. John H. King of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuade, Col. and Mrs. Carmichael, employees of the Union market, the boys, members of the Immaculate Conception choir, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCosker, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cheney, Mrs. Margaret K. Riordan, the Misses Walker, Mrs. Edward Dalton and the Misses McSweeney. The bearers were Walter and William King, Thomas McCosker, Edmund Cheney and John and Thomas Brennan. At the grave Rev. Fr. McQuaid, assisted by Rev. Fr. Tighe, read the committal prayers, and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. G. O'Donnell & Sons.

PRICE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary F. Price took place this morning at 8:15 o'clock from 1975 Lakeview avenue, and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to the Immaculate Conception church where at 2 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O. M. I. There were many beautiful floral offerings, among them being a pillow from the husband of the deceased; wreaths from the Price family, Harrington family, Mrs. Roddy and family, the commission of funeral, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. C. N. Eaton and Mrs. A. A. Wright and others. The bearers were Messrs. David Price, Joseph Price, William Scammon, Edward Kennedy, Michael Finnegan and Fred Kennedy. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Sullivan, O.

NATURE'S REMEDY FOR DISEASE
Every fall in olden times the family medicine chest was replenished with roots, herbs and barks, nature's remedy for disease

THE B. I. C.

The Clipper A. C. of Lawrence is out with a challenge for a game with any fast Lowell team which does not show up.

of last year's Riverside team, which was not beaten during their entire season. Managers can arrange games by communicating with Fred Tuckett, 1442 W. 2nd street, Lawrence.

Well, Saturday held several surprises for football fans. Although the majority of the game's followers realized that the Green team was a better playing unit than that of the Tigers they also knew the tough luck which has followed the team in this game has not passed few years and the victory was not expected. Dartmouth had the better team and richly deserved to win.

The wet and slippery football sur-strates the fact that some real bathers took place at Franklin field. Football experts who took in the game at that it was one of the greatest contests ever played.

Lowell High will meet Malden High on the Malden gridiron tomorrow. The game was postponed last Saturday on account of the rain. Next Saturday Jack Cullen's men will travel to Arlington where they will line up against the high school team. Malden's very strong but the Arlington team seems to be in for a sure defeat. Malden also will have to show better form tomorrow than she has demonstrated thus far.

show their open game, Saturday. Harvard could not have been denied in any event but, under different weather conditions the game would have proved much more interesting from the spectators' viewpoint.

draw decision with the Washington Redskins and Jefferson team. The Blue coaches are indeed blue after their team's showing Saturday and lucky it is for the college players. They have an opportunity to demonstrate their skill in the games is not a very far cry from the record for Yale, to date and with the Hubey Baker lost his chance for the All-America team by his mediocre showing Saturday. The Princeton captain was not in evidence when the final punch was needed to send home a winner and proved a big Logan seems to have clinched his hold on the Harvard quarter back position by his play yesterday. Until this game the position was in doubt, and the coaches were undecided what to do. Without an able quarter back football even is like a ship without a rudder and the uncovering of Logan is looked upon with more appreciation than the great showing of the rest of the team as a whole.

others think that they do, will have a difficult time explaining the reason why Dartmouth beat Princeton. Look back over your slate, old boy, and find out how the last half dozen games stand before classing these two teams as separate divisions.

The University of Pittsburgh eleven is the sensation of the season. Cornell was looked upon as a winner as the coaches were drilling their charges in a all of the plays by which Pittsburgh scored a win on the Indians. The state Pittsburgers had something else to be proud of, however, and sprung a surprise and a victory on the Ithacans.

Miller, the Penn. state quarter, is also a baseball player of ability. He is touted as one of the best infielders ever turned out of the Pennsylvania college and this is saying a great deal for Penn. State is noted for the number of professional baseball players who take part in her athletics.

Hoggsett, the Dartmouth captain and left end, is another player whose name will remain fresh in the minds of the students at the New Hampshire college. Hoggsett comes from Cleveland and was picked as inter-scholastic quarter back when in prep. school. His work under pants Saturday may give him an All-America berth.

HUNTER KILLED BY BOY
GUILFORD, Me., Oct. 27.—The first fatal case since the fall hunting season was reported yesterday from the Abbeville Herkshire district.

GIANTS WIN, 6 TO 2
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 27.—The New York Giants defeated the Chicago Cubs.

arrived yesterday afternoon by Morris Crockett, agent of the Abbotts and died four hours later.

Foster, and Joseph Smith were watching for deer in a field beside the main road when the Crockett boy came along. In the growing dusk he misled Foster for a deer, he said, and fired a charge of buckshot into his body.

JOE MORGAN IS ILL

Charley Shepard of New York will meet Gus Lenney in Place of Manchester Box—Other Hunts

Charley Shepard of New York and Gus Lenney of Boston will appear in the main bout of an amateur show at the Lowell A. C. Friday night. Shepard has been substituted for Joe Morgan of Manchester, who is suffering from boils, and the substitution is a good one, owing to the fact that Shepard, according to reports, gave Morgan a beating in Manchester, although he lost the decision. Shepard has met Lenney before.

The first baseman of the Sox, lined out a three-bagger in the sixth, drove in two men and saved the team from a shutout.

ON THE ALLEYS

The Making Room defeated the Lasts' Ring Room in an inter-room contest between these two departments of Phillips' shoe shop. The Lasters did not last very long although they did pretty well to win one string. O'Brien of the winners was high man with 260. The score:

MAKING ROOM
	1	2	3	Tls
O'Brien	36	84	30	250
McLaughlin	36	84	30	250
DeAlan	53	106	67	326
Germain	77	92	69	338
Bourgeois	75	75	76	225
Totals	405	443	300	1233

LASTING ROOM

ney are to appear in a 12-round encounter, both aver that a winner will be determined. In the other bouts	Sullivan	50	105	81	276
Young Brennan of Lowell will meet Eddie Carr of Beaumont, Larry Burns of Lawrence will tackle Tommy McFarland of Boston, and Billy Brooks will meet	Wagner	85	50	74	233
	LaBanche	62	75	73	210
	Gathe	50	53	75	237
	Totals	352	423	402	1207

At Soldiers' field: Harvard 29, Pennsylvania State 0.

10c CIGAR

Thirty-nine years' continuous increased sales tells its own story. Factory, Manchester, N. H.

and Jefferson D.
At Princeton: Dartmouth 6, Princeton 0.
At Philadelphia: Pennsylvania 7,
Carleton 7.
At West Point: West Point 2, Tufts
0.
At Providence: Brown 36, Springfield
7. M. C. A. college 6.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Week of
Oct. 27

America's Favorite Celtic Comedian
CHAS. MACK & COMPANY
—PRESENT—

"Come Back to Erin"

An Idyl of the Emerald Isle

Miller and Lyles Colored Comedians "Grapho" Pictures That Move	McDermott and Wallace A Hit of Noisance Ed. Morton That Philadelphia Cop
--	--

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ELWYN & CO.
Presenting the Unique Comedy
"SUPPRESSING THE PRESS"
—A Pantomime Novelty—
"KING HEROD'S DREAM"
Introducing the
12—ORIENTAL GIRLS—12

Journal of Management Studies, 36(7), 809–824.

THE SUN CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

TO LET

ONE-HALF OF DOUBLE HOUSE TO 2 rooms, modern conveniences, furnace, set tubs. Inquire 687 Rogers st. Tel. 1497-B.

COTTAGE TO LET. ROOMS IN REPAIR. Eight minutes' walk from bridge at front low, call and see 57 Seventh st.

FRONT ROOM TO LET AT POWELL'S, with steam; also double rooms with light housekeeping. Durand, 231 Central st.

IF YOU WANT A NEAT TENEMENT two rooms, entirely separate, within short distance of depot for $2 per week, call at 61 Central st. T. H. Blott.

UPPER TENEMENT OF SIX ROOMS, entry and bath, set tubs, coal on the first floor; $15. At 712 Gorham st.

NICELY FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET, centrally located; for gentlemen only; in private family. Tel. 2164.

LODGING HOUSE TO LET. 20 year old, 12 rooms, hot and cold water, bath, light and of condition. Call at No. 19 Tyler st.

TWO ROOM TENEMENT TO LET. Clean, warm and cozy; extra large kitchen, toilet and shed on door. Geo. Brown, 79 Chestnut st.

2 AND 3 ROOM FLATS TO LET. 50 Central st. Cottage and 3 room flat, 31 Maple st. 3 room flat, 13 Prospect st. 4 room flat, 115 Maple st. 3 and 4 room flats, 115 Cushing st. Jos. Ryan, 71 Chapel st.

STEAM HEATED FURNISHED ROOMS to let; bath on same floor; use of telephone. 181 East Merrimack st.

UP-TO-DATE 6 ROOMS, UPSTAIRS and downstairs tenements, to let; hardwood floors, piazzas, large room, newly repaired, $19 and $16. 201 Wilder st. Apply 44 Robbins st. Tel. 465-W.

I HAVE SOME FINE FLATS TO LET at $10 and $15. Dr. McCarty, 71 Central st.

5 ROOM TENEMENT TO LET AT 25 and 26 Second st.; gas, water and coal; newly papered and painted inside and out. Apply on premises.

6 ROOM FLAT TO LET. BATH, piazza, set tubs, $12. Inquire Hogan Bros., 95 Concord st.

COTTAGE TO LET; 1 ROOMS, BATH, kitchen, furnished, with without boarders. Tel. 5635-31, or write 011, Sun Office.

ROOM SUITABLE FOR BARBER shop or business office, to let, on second floor of the Harrington building, 52 Central st.

MY HOUSE AND STABLE AT 233 Westworth avenue, to let. Chas. A. Evelyn, Lowell fall.

TO LET

TENEMENT OF SIX ROOMS TO LET at South Whipple st. Inquire 583 Lawrence st.

UPSTAIRS SIX-ROOM TENEMENT to let; bath, hot and cold water, furnace heat, telephone, 255 Forsyth st. Tel. 135-31.

SIX-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, bath; store connected; separate entrance; 40 Fulton st. Apply 67, Coral street.

FIRST CLASS FURNISHED ROOMS to let, all conveniences, $1.25 to $3 per week; 32 Bridge st. Telephone 3194-W.

STORE WITH TENEMENT TO LET, terms reasonable, in front of St. Peter's school. 231 Gorham st.

NICE NEWLY PAINTED ROOM TO LET. 187 Grand st.

ROOM HOUSE TO LET AT 987 Lakeview avenue, cor. Ottawa st. bath and pantry, open plumbing, set tubs, furnace heat, good condition. Cars pass every 15 minutes. Inquire on N. Lowell, 1235 Mammoth road. Tel. 2732.

ROOMS TO LET, FURNISHED OR unfurnished, steam heat, electric lights, bath, telephone, etc. Edge of Highlands. A. W. Dows & Co.

THE PREMISES NUMBERED 1320 Gorham st., house of seven rooms, with all modern conveniences; stable and large lot of land to let. Apply to Michael Corbett, 32 Highland st.

MODERN TENEMENT TO LET. 23 Moore st., rent $12. Store on Gorham st., near Moore, rent $10. Inquire at 531 Gorham st.

FLAT OF FOUR ROOMS TO LET at 216 Thorndike st. Inquire, Bennett Silverblatt, 71 Central st., or Tel. 1332.

DRESSMAKERS—TAKE NOTICE. Rooms to let on second floor, Associate bldg. Apply to Janitor.

HALL TO LET FOR MEETINGS, at Associate bldg. For terms apply to Janitor.

PLEASANT TENEMENT OF SIX ROOMS, to let, in Pawtucketville, with bath, gas and open plumbing. Served by two car lines. Inquire 59 Varum ave.

WE WILL PAPER YOUR ROOMS FOR $2.00. And furnish the wall paper. Dealer in wall papers at very lowest prices, also paperhanging, whitewashing, and painting. Estimates given. Large or small jobs. All work guaranteed. MAX GOLDSTEIN, 155 Chestnut st. Tel. 2897. If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

SPECIAL NOTICES

GREENALL'S OINTMENT IS GOOD for rheumatism and pains. Only 25c. Sold at Goodale's, Lowell Pharmacy and Wilson's drug-store.

M. J. CARROLL, SLATING AND JOBBING. Repairing roofs of all kinds. 10 Chestnut st. Tel. 2468-M.

LAWLESS NOONEN'S HAIR STAIN, black, brown, blue, 25c. Lowell Pharmacy, Noonan's, Storey's, Dows' (wholesale).

CHARLES HANSHETT, PLUMBING and heating, 201 Summer st. Telephone.

CASH PAID FOR SECOND HAND furniture of all kinds, large or small lots. F. E. Muldoon, 505 Central st.

STOVE REPAIRS, LININGS, GRATES, centers and other parts for all stoves and ranges carried in stock; work done at lowest prices. Bring name and size of stove, telephone 1717. Quinn Furniture Co., 169 Middlesex st.

PIANOS AND ORGANS TUNED AND REPAIRED. Tuned by J. Kershaw, 130 Cumberland road. Tel. 511-3.

BENT'S NO. 1 KILLS LICE ON children. Excellent for brownish moth itching; by poison, flies, mango, lice, etc., falling hair. 25 cents at Falls & Burkhawshaw.

LIQUOR CO. CHIMNEY EXPERTS. Chimneys swept and repaired. Healdence 1123 Bridge st. Tel. 915-W.

THE SUN IN BOSTON—THE SUN IS on sale every day at both news stands of the Union station in Boston. Don't forget this when taking your train for Lowell.

FOR SALE

MUST SELL AT ONCE—STRICTLY new first class piano bought recently for $250; will sell for one-third price. Also the full octaves square piano, good make, in best of condition, inside and out, cost new $100; will sell for $20 or less. For particulars address P. O. Box 334, Lowell.

GOOD SIZED PARLOR STOVE, nearly new, for sale cheap. A. W. Cogswell, 593 Bridge st.

ONE UPRIGHT PIANO, ONE graphophone, for sale; bargain if taken at once; party leaving town. 55 Dover st.

CHEST FOR SALE, SUITABLE for storage of fish, etc. Inquire D. Belleville, cor. West Sixth st. and Allen ave.

DESIRABLE LODGING HOUSE FOR sale, on upper Merrimack st.; very nice, modern, Apply H. B. Lambert & Co., 337 Bridge st. Tel. 308-S.

ONE UPRIGHT PIANO, ONE graphophone, for sale; bargain if taken at once; party leaving town. 55 Dover st.

HELP WANTED

SMART BOYS WANTED. APPLY 152 Broadway.

EXPERIENCED LADY TAILOR wanted at once for alterations; steady position; guaranteed. Apply United Clothing & Suit Co., 123 Central st.

KITCHEN GIRL WANTED. APPLY 8 Dutton st.

AGENTS—SOMETHING NEW. 200% profit. Sample and full particulars, 10c. Precision Sales Co., 103 St. Paul st., Rochester, N. Y.

MEN WOMEN—GET GOVERNMENT jobs. $50 month, 15,000 appointments coming. Write for list of positions, Franklin Institute, Dept. 165 L, Rochester, N. Y.

TWO YOUNG MEN WANTED. OF good education, one as clerk and the other as stenographer and typewriter. Apply "Write for list of positions," Franklin Institute, Dept. 165 L, Rochester, N. Y.

IRONER WANTED. NEW ENGLAND Steam Laundry, 20 Saunders st. Opposite Standard Bottling Co.

LADY REPRESENTATIVES WANTED; whole or part time; our famous Kirtlet form fitting petticoats assure good immediate, permanent income, sell on sight; experience unnecessary; prompt reply secures exclusive territory. No dealer competition. Spellman & Co., Chicago.

LEGAL NOTICES

Under authority of Section 10, Chapter 590, of the Acts of 1902, I, Jennie Craig, of Lowell, Mass., do hereby give notice that I have made written application to the Lowell Institution for Savings, Lowell, Mass., for a duplicate deposit book of Account No. 107817, standing in my name, and which said deposit book is lost or destroyed.

JENNIE CRAIG.
Lowell, Mass., Oct. 16, 1913.

Under authority of Section 40, Chapter 590, of the Acts of 1902, I, Omega K. Wade, of North Chelmsford, Mass., do hereby give notice that I have made written application to the Lowell Institution for Savings, Lowell, Mass., for a duplicate deposit book of Account No. 106490, standing in my name, and which said deposit book is lost or destroyed.

OMEGA K. WADE.
Lowell, Mass., Oct. 20, 1913.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex ss. Probate Court. To the creditors under the will and all other persons interested in the estate of Mary McMahon, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased. Whereas John F. McMahon, executor of the will of said deceased, has presented to said Court his petition for license to sell at private sale, in accordance with the order named in said petition, all the real and personal estate of said deceased, and in the said petition has alleged that the whole of certain parcel of the real estate of said deceased for the payment of debts, legacies and claims of administration and for other reasons set forth in said petition.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the sixth day of November, A. D. 1913, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is ordered to give this citation by delivering a copy thereof to each person interested in the estate fourteen days at least before said Court, or by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court, this twenty-first day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

PROF. EHRLICH'S "606" SALVARSAN

Administered in the veins at Dr. Temple's Lowell office. NO LOSS OF TIME. Cures bladder, blood, skin, malaria, lousiness, ataxia and various forms of skin diseases arising from blood poison.

It solves the problem of the centuries and rid the world of the WORST SCOURGE that the human race has known. RESULTS IMMEDIATE. Cures venereal diseases, gonorrhea, also treats cancer, tumors, all acute and chronic blood and nervous diseases of men and women, hydrocele, varicocele, stricture, prostatic diseases, piles, fistula, fissures, ulcers and rectal diseases, WITHOUT THE USE OF THE KNIFE. Diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat, skin, stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, bowels and rectum, epilepsy, and all nervous diseases.

Terms always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated methods and terms. Lowell office, 97 Central street, Mansur block. Hours, Wed., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8. Sundays, 10 to 12.

Consultation, Examination, Advice FREE.

Baby Carriage Tires Put on, 25c up. Prompt service and good work.

GEO. H. BACHELDER POST OFFICE SQUARE

Bright, Sears & Co. WYMAN'S EXCHANGE Bankers and Brokers SECOND FLOOR

INNERSOLE SORTER Man capable of sorting flexible and pigskin on McKay work. Derry Shoe Co., Derry, N. H.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

ROOMERS AND BOARDERS WANTED. $2.50 for ladies, $3.00 for men; rooms up stairs, steam heat. Apply 50 Lee st.

WOMAN WISHES TO CARE FOR children. Must not be under two years old. Mrs. J. Galignani, Nassau st., New York.

LADY LIVING IN A QUIET HOME want elderly lady to board and room and care for. Address C. B. Sun Office.

YOUNG MEN AND ROOSTER wanted. R. J. Heds or Plymouth Rock, Tel. 568-2.

WANTED—A MAN WITH A SMALL amount of capital who can repair and sell shoes, to take a small store in an ideal location for that business; must furnish good references. Owner will help with establishing trade. Write 0-26, this office.

WORK WANTED. SCROUBING, oil cleaning, to women with three sons. Call or write, 181 Adams st., Lowell.

FURNITURE REPAIRING AND upholstering wanted by skilled man; work done at your own home; low cost; will call anywhere and give estimates. References. J. W. Emery, 3 Tyler st.

Wanted Six coal shovellers, Tuesday morning. North Billerica Depot. Inquire for R. W. Kearney.

WANTED ROOMERS AND BOARDERS WANTED. $2.50 for ladies, $3.00 for men; rooms up stairs, steam heat. Apply 50 Lee st.

WOMAN WISHES TO CARE FOR children. Must not be under two years old. Mrs. J. Galignani, Nassau st., New York.

LADY LIVING IN A QUIET HOME want elderly lady to board and room and care for. Address C. B. Sun Office.

YOUNG MEN AND ROOSTER wanted. R. J. Heds or Plymouth Rock, Tel. 568-2.

WANTED—A MAN WITH A SMALL amount of capital who can repair and sell shoes, to take a small store in an ideal location for that business; must furnish good references. Owner will help with establishing trade. Write 0-26, this office.

WORK WANTED. SCROUBING, oil cleaning, to women with three sons. Call or write, 181 Adams st., Lowell.

FURNITURE REPAIRING AND upholstering wanted by skilled man; work done at your own home; low cost; will call anywhere and give estimates. References. J. W. Emery, 3 Tyler st.

BOYS' PIG CLUB

Department of Agriculture Organizes a New Branch

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 27.—The department of agriculture has its Boys' Corn Club and its Girls' Canning Club and now comes the Boys' Pig Club, being organized in the south for the purpose of increasing the supply of pork and encouraging good breeding of hogs. Already clubs have been organized in Alabama and Louisiana, and a club organization has been started in Georgia. It is the purpose of the officials of the department to organize clubs in every southern state.

The idea of the organization started with the Farmers' co-operative demonstration branch of the department and has been carried on by the cooperation of the animal husbandry division of the bureau of animal industry. The organization is an offshoot of the boys' corn club which has an organization in every southern state and which has been the means of producing record-breaking yields of corn. The pig club, when thoroughly organized, will, it is expected, work hand in hand with the corn club. The boys of the latter will produce the corn and the boys of the newly organized association will see to it that the pigs are produced to eat the corn.

In connection with the organization of the pig club the department makes the following statement: "In organizing the Boys' Pig Club it is the purpose of the department to establish clubs in every southern state. The animal husbandry division is co-operating with the farmers' co-operative demonstration office in the bureau of plant industry and has already established clubs in Alabama and Louisiana, and the movement is under way in Georgia. The organizing is being done by the officials of the farmers' co-operative demonstration force, and the animal husbandry agents are instructing and demonstrating how to handle the stock and to breed a superior type of pigs.

"It is the purpose of the department to have every member of the club encourage not only an increased production of the swine family but a better breed of pigs than is being raised at present. It is a serious purpose of the officials of the department are engaged in one that is aimed at the high cost of living.

"The production of pork is not keeping pace with the increased population and something must be done to harmonize these two elements. If each member of the club—and they will be growing it is expected all the time—will see to it that one more pig and a better pig is produced each year then a long step will have been taken in meeting the ever growing chasm between pork production and increased population.

LABOR

Is Urged by Morrison I. Swift as Weapon to Fight Capital

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Labor is always a long step behind capital in evolving warlike measures for the great capital-labor struggle. As yet labor has constructed nothing parallel in power to the trust. Any labor or political union yet formed falls far short of it. A trust of labor unions will have to be formed, with the sympathetic strike and the ballot for its instruments, before labor will be on a fighting par with capital.

Proposing the immediate formation of such a trust of all present labor unions, Morrison I. Swift addressed the Humanist Forum in Franklin union, Berkeley street, yesterday afternoon on "The Sympathetic Strike as Labor's Next Weapon."

"Capitalists bitterly assail the sympathetic strike," continued Mr. Swift, "and that is convincing proof of its virtue. If the sympathetic strike is immoral, trusts are twice as immoral. Trusts are double-bladed sympathetic strikes of capitalists. They hit labor and they hit the consumers, who are the whole public.

"Trusts are a monopoly of products and of the machinery for producing products, and they strike in sympathy with each other against labor by fixing wages and hours of labor and backing each other in labor battles, and they strike against the public by fixing prices at the figure determined by their wish, and by sympathetically forcing the public to pay or go without.

"Capitalists form great funds to fight labor and defeat strikes; they also contribute large sums to political parties to defeat pro-labor laws. There are acts of sympathetic capitalistic unity. They are sympathetic strikes. Yet these same capitalists say to labor, 'It is uneconomic and immoral for you to unite and strike on a large scale sympathetically.'

"Labor must unite on a scale as big as united capitalism, and strike sympathetically on a scale as big as united capitalism, or it is down and let the steam roller of capitalism crush it. A sympathetic strike is an act of economic necessity. The capitalists unite into a trust of the dreadnought size; are the workers to fight it with a strike of the wooden warship size? The capitalists combine all the trusts by mutual understandings and intermarried directorates, thus forming the immense capitalist super-dreadnought machine. Can the working class fight this if they do not form a similar massive construction of all labor?

"Furthermore, the sympathetic strike is an agency for public welfare. Capitalists are but a small fraction of the public, whereas the laboring class is a very large fraction. The working class is also fighting the cause of social emancipation for all from the capitalist, and its success will liberate the middle class. In every strike the middle class should therefore support the workers' side, who against great odds are breaking middle class chains. The sympathetic strike is one of the most potent instrumentalities for industrial freedom."

MARRIES GERMAN DUKE

Miss Nancy Leishman, Daughter of Former American Ambassador to Germany Married Today

GENEVA, Switzerland, Oct. 27.—The civil marriage ceremony between Miss Nancy Leishman, daughter of John G. Leishman, former American ambassador to Germany and the Duke of Grey, was performed today by a minister in the town hall in the village of Vevey on the lake of Geneva, about four and a half miles to the north of this city.

BANK FAILURE AND WORSE

The Sermon Subject of Rev. C. A. Lincoln at Kirk Street Church

Reference to 'Waste of Physical and Moral Resources'

Rev. C. A. Lincoln, pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church delivered an interesting sermon at his church last night, the reverend gentleman taking for his text "Bank Failure and Worse."

The preacher compared the citizen who is indifferent to public affairs when he should be active, with the stockholders of a bank whose solvency has been questioned, and who fails to make good. However, the clergyman did not cast reflection on any local bank, and he explained at the outset that he was not sufficiently familiar with the facts in connection with the recent failure of the Traders National bank to criticize, but nevertheless he drew an interesting lesson from bank failures.

"We have recently experienced in Lowell a keen disappointment," said Rev. Mr. Lincoln, "and I suppose the fact of the Traders' bank failure has been communicated all over the land. Men are quick to note what takes place in financial life, particularly that which is detrimental. The resources of a bank must be abundant if it is to stand the test which reverses place upon it just as the resources of the bank of human life must be ample to meet all the demands made upon it, and yet many men deliberately impair their resources physically, mentally and spiritually, and become helpless cripples—human derelicts.

"Think of the men who are indifferent to their physical well being. Every morning before the mill gates swing open to admit the workers, there is evidence of this disregard in the rush for the saloon. The physical and mental resources are suffering as such conditions are noted. And the utter lack of consideration for health with respect to immortality is another derelict to the resources of the human institution. By over-drawing in this reckless fashion, man is crippling one of his greatest assets in life; he is bringing on physical bankruptcy.

"Another method of impairing one's resources is in false wisdom. The world has no use for a liar. When Sulzer failed to take the stand and meet the charges against him, he established in the world as a liar, and thereby impaired his spiritual credit among men.

"When a bank begins business, it is not supposed to remain stationary. It is expected to progress, and as time passes its credit is increased and its power strength to meet all demands made upon it. Something is wrong when this condition is not present. So it is with man in his spiritual life. Either he goes forward, or he goes backward. All of us have failed at times, and it is for us to study our failures, even as a bank is made the subject of study when it fails in order that the conditions present may be corrected.

"When a bank fails, regardless of the strength of other banks, comes a feeling of uneasiness for a time, and

SCENE OF WRECK

Trains Running Over Western Tracks Today—Remove Debris

WESTERLY, R. I., Oct. 27.—Trains were running today over the tracks near Bradford where about 35 people were injured in the wreck of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Gilt Edge express Saturday night. The last of the damaged cars and debris was removed this forenoon and workmen were grading off the side of the tracks where it had been ploughed up by the cars.

Mrs. D. M. Strous of Boston, who was one of the most seriously injured of the passengers, was said today to be in practically the same condition. It is not expected that her injuries will prove fatal.

STUDY SEX HYGIENE

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Sex hygiene as a part of the regular curriculum in the Chicago high schools was inaugurated today with six lectures on the subject.

Physicians have been appointed to deliver the lectures. Four of today's talks were for boys and two for girls.

ITALY ELECTIONS

Held Yesterday—Some Disorders—One Death—Clergymen Vote

ROME, Oct. 27.—General elections were held throughout Italy yesterday. The disorders were not so grave as expected, although one person was killed and many were wounded. Numerous arrests were made in various quarters.

The balloting was light, because, on account of spring-like weather, the people chose to go on excursions rather than to the polls.

Results will not be definitely known until late today, but already the government is assured of a large majority.

Giovanni Giolitti, the premier, has been re-elected almost unanimously with the other members of his cabinet. Others elected include ex-premiers Baron Sidney Sonnino and Luis Tuzi, the ex-governor of Erythraea; Ferdinando Martini, the socialist leader; Leonida Bisolati-Bergamaschi, the republican leader; Signor Barzilai and the former minister of public instruction; Nuzio Nasi, who served a term in prison for embezzlement, and later was elected several times to the chamber of deputies, only to have his election annulled.

In a hundred constituencies a fierce struggle was waged, especially between the socialists and Catholics, and in these a second ballot will be taken next Sunday.

In some constituencies, particularly in the Venetian provinces, ecclesiastics voted openly. At Cesena the bishop was the first to go to the polls.

So far as returns have been received, out of 305 constituencies 151 liberals or ministerials have been elected as well as 23 moderate, 17 socialists, 11 republicans and 10 clericals.

Prince Scipione Borghese and Prince Teano, both radicals, failed to re-election in their Rome constituencies. Sig. Turati, the socialist leader, was re-elected.

TO VISIT PANAMA

The Former Members of Crew of Famous Oregon Want to Enlist

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—Fifty former members of the crew of the famous battleship Oregon have petitioned the secretary of the navy for permission to enlist for a period of 60 or 90 days when the ship is sent through the Panama canal in 1915. These men live in this city and all are desirous of again treading the decks of the warship on which they made a forced run from the Pacific to the Atlantic in 1905 and arrived off Cuba in time to play an important part in the destruction of the Spanish fleet.

Inasmuch as the volunteers are now men of families some means will be worked out to raise funds for the support of their dependents in the event of the limited enlistment being granted.

STONY BROOK RAILROAD

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders and Officers Chosen for the ensuing Year

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Stony Brook R. R. corporation was held in the office of the treasurer, Lowell Gas Light company building, this morning at 10 o'clock. The following directors were elected: Jacob Rogers, Alexander C. Cinnick, George S. Motley, Edward N. Burke, Arthur G. Dunbar, Harry G. Pollard, Frank E. Pollard.

Subsequently a meeting of the directors was held, and the following gentlemen were named as officers for the ensuing year: Jacob Rogers, president; Frank E. Dunbar, treasurer; and Harry G. Pollard, clerk.

OVERSEER WILLIAM HALL Leaves the Merrimack Woolen Mills to Go to His Home in Worcester—His Departure Regretted

William Hall, overseer of the finishing department at the Merrimack Woolen mill in Braintree, severed his connection with this firm after being in its employ for the past five years. Mr. Hall will leave sometime this week for his home in Worcester, where he will spend some little time. His departure from the Merrimack woolen mill will be keenly regretted by Mr. Hall, who created quite a reputation for himself, and was held in high esteem by both his employers and employes.

7 PERISH IN FIRE

In a Milwaukee Store Which Causes Loss of $500,000—20 Hurt

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 27.—The toll of death from last night's fire which destroyed the store of the Good-year Rubber Co. and adjoining buildings in East Water street and wrought other damage to property within the block still remains at seven this morning. The monetary loss is estimated at half a million dollars. A revised list of the known dead follows:

JOHN J. DOYLE, captain of Engine 4. JOHN FENSKEN, pipeman. GEORGE J. CLAUSEN and TIMOTHY DWYER, pipemen. MAX FLASCHKE, driver. WILLIAM L. GRAFF. WALTER FRIETAG.

The toll of injury is a critical condition. Seventeen others are injured but it is not expected serious results will follow.

WEATHER FORECAST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Weather below normal, with rain fairly distributed throughout the country, featured the weekly forecast of the weather bureau last night.

A disturbance over the Mississippi valley yesterday will advance eastward with rains in the eastern states Monday night or Tuesday followed by decidedly colder weather overspreading the eastern states Tuesday and Wednesday.

A general fall in higher temperatures will set in over the plains states Monday. A disturbance in the Far West Tuesday will move eastward, preceded by rising temperatures and attended by general precipitation. This will cross the eastern states Friday or Saturday.

ACQUIT WOMAN

Charged With Murder of Husband—Man in the Case Given 4 Years

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 27.—The jury in the trial of John Burton and Mrs. George Gottschalk, charged with the murder of the woman's husband, today brought in a verdict acquitting Mrs. Gottschalk and giving Burton four years for manslaughter.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

Southern Div.		Portland Div.
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.
8:43 5:50	8:43 5:50	8:43 5:50	8:43 5:50
6:03 7:30	6:03 7:30	6:03 7:30	6:03 7:30
6:47 7:55	6:47 7:55	6:47 7:55	6:47 7:55
6:57 8:00	6:57 8:00	6:57 8:00	6:57 8:00
7:21 8:23	7:21 8:23	7:21 8:23	7:21 8:23
7:56 8:57	7:56 8:57	7:56 8:57	7:56 8:57
8:22 9:49	8:22 9:49	8:22 9:49	8:22 9:49
8:56 9:57	8:56 9:57	8:56 9:57	8:56 9:57
9:19 10:34	9:19 10:34	9:19 10:34	9:19 10:34
9:46 10:34	9:46 10:34	9:46 10:34	9:46 10:34
10:00 11:14	10:00 11:14	10:00 11:14	10:00 11:14
10:58 12:49	10:58 12:49	10:58 12:49	10:58 12:49
11:13 12:15	11:13 12:15	11:13 12:15	11:13 12:15
12:12 1:03	12:12 1:03	12:12 1:03	12:12 1:03
1:45 2:25	1:45 2:25	1:45 2:25	1:45 2:25
2:31 3:21	2:31 3:21	2:31 3:21	2:31 3:21
3:59 4:49	3:59 4:49	3:59 4:49	3:59 4:49
4:51 5:41	4:51 5:41	4:51 5:41	4:51 5:41
5:51 6:41	5:51 6:41	5:51 6:41	5:51 6:41
6:41 7:31	6:41 7:31	6:41 7:31	6:41 7:31
7:31 8:21	7:31 8:21	7:31 8:21	7:31 8:21
8:21 9:11	8:21 9:11	8:21 9:11	8:21 9:11
9:11 10:01	9:11 10:01	9:11 10:01	9:11 10:01
10:01 10:51	10:01 10:51	10:01 10:51	10:01 10:51
10:51 11:41	10:51 11:41	10:51 11:41	10:51 11:41
11:41 12:31	11:41 12:31	11:41 12:31	11:41 12:31
12:31 1:21	12:31 1:21	12:31 1:21	12:31 1:21

Sunday Trains

Southern Division		Portland Division
To Boston	From Boston	To Boston	From Boston
Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.	Lve. Arr.
8:43 5:50	8:43 5:50	8:43 5:50	8:43 5:50
6:03 7:30	6:03 7:30	6:03 7:30	6:03 7:30
6:47 7:55	6:47 7:55	6:47 7:55	6:47 7:55
6:57 8:00	6:57 8:00	6:57 8:00	6:57 8:00
7:21 8:23	7:21 8:23	7:21 8:23	7:21 8:23
7:56 8:57	7:56 8:57	7:56 8:57	7:56 8:57
8:22 9:49	8:22 9:49	8:22 9:49	8:22 9:49
8:56 9:57	8:56 9:57	8:56 9:57	8:56 9:57
9:19 10:34	9:19 10:34	9:19 10:34	9:19 10:34
9:46 10:34	9:46 10:34	9:46 10:34	9:46 10:34
10:00 11:14	10:00 11:14	10:00 11:14	10:00 11:14
10:58 12:49	10:58 12:49	10:58 12:49	10:58 12:49
11:13 12:15	11:13 12:15	11:13 12:15	11:13 12:15
12:12 1:03	12:12 1:03	12:12 1:03	12:12 1:03
1:45 2:25	1:45 2:25	1:45 2:25	1:45 2:25
2:31 3:21	2:31 3:21	2:31 3:21	2:31 3:21
3:59 4:49	3:59 4:49	3:59 4:49	3:59 4:49
4:51 5:41	4:51 5:41	4:51 5:41	4:51 5:41
5:51 6:41	5:51 6:41	5:51 6:41	5:51 6:41
6:41 7:31	6:41 7:31	6:41 7:31	6:41 7:31
7:31 8:21	7:31 8:21	7:31 8:21	7:31 8:21
8:21 9:11	8:21 9:11	8:21 9:11	8:21 9:11
9:11 10:01	9:11 10:01	9:11 10:01	9:11 10:01
10:01 10:51	10:01 10:51	10:01 10:51	10:01 10:51
10:51 11:41	10:51 11:41	10:51 11:41	10:51 11:41
11:41 12:31	11:41 12:31	11:41 12:31	11:41 12:31
12:31 1:21	12:31 1:21	12:31 1:21	12:31 1:21

References

a Via Bedford.	b Via Salem Jct.
c Via Wilmington.	d will not run on holidays.

LOCAL NEWS

Best printing: Tobin's, Asso. bldg.

Jedolin, optometrist, 441 Merr'k st.

Watch repairing, Pettier, 413 Merr'k.

Interest begins Saturday, Nov. 1 at the Central Savings bank.

Dr. Wilfrid I. Burke, osteopath, removed to 211 Sun Bldg.

Dr. A. Louis Gramlich has moved his office from 302-10 Wyman's Exchange.

The gas main in the Boston road is being extended to the residence of Charles Ready, in Hall road.

Mr. J. A. Hunnewell of the Lowell Electric Light Corp. is attending the electrical exhibition in Chicago.

Miss Catherine Lynch of Fulton street will spend the next few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. William Finnan, in New York city.

There will be an anniversary mass Wednesday morning at St. Margaret's church at 7:30 o'clock for the late Wm. F. Foye.

The band concert which was scheduled to be held on the South common yesterday afternoon was again postponed on account of stormy weather. If the weather is favorable next Sunday the musical program will be carried out.

The Florence Social club of Dracut was reorganized Saturday evening and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Leo Campbell, president; John Collins vice president; Michael Sullivan, financial secretary and treasurer; Walter Dingley, recording secretary; and Leo Sherlock, marshal.

A special meeting of the board of trade of Westford will be held tonight relative to the dropping of the late cars on the Lowell and Fitchburg line. At the present time the last car leaves this city for Ayer shortly before 10 o'clock except Saturday night. The Lowell board of trade has already asked that the late cars be again put on the schedule.

A small blaze was started in the partitions of St. Patrick's parochial residence in Suffolk street, the cause being crossed electric wires. It had gained little headway when discovered and promptly extinguished. The principal damage was caused by the water. Rev. Mgr. O'Brien and the other clergymen were at supper at the time.

It was found after the meeting of the board of registrars at Chelmsford Centre on Saturday evening that a total of 45 names have been added to the list of voters for the four meetings held during the week. They were distributed as follows: Precinct 1, 17; precinct 2, 23; precinct 3, 3; precinct 4, 2, making a total of 215 registered voters in the town.

Mr. Jas. O'Sullivan in behalf of the Meagher guards of the Irish National Brotherhood of this city has accepted a challenge from the Springfield guards of Div. 26, A. O. H., of Boston to engage in a competitive drill. The drill will take place on Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, A. O. H. night at St. Mary's school hall, Stillman street, Boston. The Lowell division will have a full company and will be met at the North station by a delegation of the Springfield men. It is a most opportune time for the holding of the drill for one of the greatest church bazaar ever held in Boston will be in progress at St. Mary's school hall. The judges will be the officers of the Ninth regiment, Infantry, M. V. M., and they will present a loving cup to the winning company.

At the invitation of William J. Shanley, executive of Ward 2 democratic committee, an informal gathering of members elect of wards 2 and 3 was held at the Jolly Five camp yesterday and after a social interchange of ideas regarding the political situation. It was decided, since there was a full delegation present from each ward, that an organization be formed for the ensuing year. The officers were chosen as follows: Ward 2, Chairman Redmond Sullivan; executive William Shanley; secretary John J. Connors; Ward six, chairman Florence Murray; executive John A. Gately; secretary Miles J. Thompson. A most delightful afternoon was passed, a musical program being rendered and refreshments served. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, October 30.

CATHOLIC PARISH NEWS

DIOCESAN CONCURSUS TOMORROW AND WEDNESDAY—REV. FR. CURTIN CONDEMNS NEW DANCES

Tomorrow the pastors of Lowell Catholic churches and others throughout the diocese will convene in conference at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston for the customary semi-annual concursus at which ecclesiastical matters in general are to be discussed. His Eminence Cardinal O'Connell will preside. On Wednesday, the other priests of the diocese, curates and assistants will assemble at the same cathedral for a similar conference.

These conferences are held twice each year, and are important events in the diocese. Every priest in the diocese who can possibly do so attends the concursus to take part in the discussions. His eminence, the cardinal, appoints subjects for discussion by the clergy. These subjects are connected with ecclesiastical topics in general and do not bear any strict relation to local affairs of the diocese. They are in a way, a sort of examinations for priests, in which the latter are given an opportunity to take part in and hear a discussion of general matters of the church, the faith and doctrine, etc. The event is a most interesting one to all.

Tomorrow the pastors of Lowell will go to Boston to attend the opening of the concursus and on Wednesday the other priests will attend.

Sacred Heart Church

Last evening at the church of the Sacred Heart, there were receptions into the Holy Rosary sodality for the married women of the parish and also into the sodality of the Children of Mary, and each of these societies was augmented by a large number of new members. The services attending this reception were most impressive and a large congregation was in attendance. The opening of the ceremonies consisted of the usual service in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Rev. Fr. Flynn, O. M. I., led the recitation of the rosary, and Rev. Fr. Phelan, O. M. I., of the Church of the Immaculate Conception preached an eloquent sermon on the Blessed Virgin.

The reception of the new members took place and was followed by a procession of the members of the sodalities of the Holy Rosary, the Children of Mary, the altar boys, the sanctuary choir and the clergy. The procession moved through the aisles of the church, the choir rendering appropriate hymns. Solemn benediction concluded the service. The celebrant was Very Rev. T. Wade Smith, O. M. I., provincial of the Oblate order, and he was assisted by Rev. Fr. Flynn, O. M. I., as deacon and Rev. Fr. Fletcher, O. M. I., as sub-deacon.

On Tuesday evening, the members of the Holy Name society of the Sacred Heart parish will hold a smoke talk to which their friends will be invited. The affair is to take place in the spacious school hall and an excellent program has been provided for the entertainment of those who attend.

On Friday evening, there will be a Halloween party, including a suitable entertainment and dance, the former to include several seasonal novelties. This is to be held under the auspices of the parish in general and a committee has completed the final arrangements.

At St. Patrick's

Rev. Joseph A. Curtin preached a very eloquent and impressive sermon at the high mass at St. Patrick's church yesterday morning, in which he condemned the practice among young people of attending cheap theatres and dance halls, and of engaging in the immoral dances which have of late claimed so widespread attention and discussion. The preacher dwelt upon the danger of attachments of this kind, the corrupting influences of these resorts and the evils resulting from their influence. He urged upon the parents the necessity of care in this matter and of preventing their sons and daughters from indulging in such amusements with all the consequent dangers. Rev. Fr. Curtin's words were listened to with close attention by the large congregation and his sermon was a topic of general conversation among those who heard it, the people being open in their commendation of the priest's attitude in this matter.

SOUND RIOT CALL

Free for All Fight in Sullivan Sq. Boston - 7 Men Arrested

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—A free fight between a number of workmen caused a scare among the crowds of passengers at the Sullivan square elevated station this afternoon. Two wagonloads of policemen were sent to the scene in response to a riot call and seven men were arrested. Two persons were injured. The fighting grew out of an argument over labor matters.

RETURNS LATE

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—The returns of yesterday's elections may possibly be known within a week but it is more likely that a fortnight will elapse before the result is placed before the public. Not even a prognostication as to who was placed at the top of the pole can be made at the present moment since in many cases the returns are lacking to the faulty communications with various sections of the republic.

In the federal capital itself the result may be determined within a day or two but even this is not certain. Telegrams received today by the department of the interior showed that the elections at Guadalajara and Toluca passed off in an orderly manner, but that a similar light vote was recorded there as in other places.

SEN. LODGE TAKES RIDE

NABANT, Oct. 27.—Senator Lodge returned today from his home here to Swampscott and return, this being his first automobile ride since he underwent an operation for gastric ulcer about a month ago. Senator Lodge will not do any active work until he has fully recovered and will remain at home until then.

OVATION FOR UNDERWOOD

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 27.—Oscar Underwood of the house of representatives, arrived late at the breakfast given in honor of President Wilson here today and was greeted with a ovation.

One of the features of the entertainment of President Wilson was a trip up and down the harbor this morning. As the revenue cutter Windom with the president and party aboard proceeded up the harbor a steamer flying the Mexican flag was noticed lying near a British freighter. No acknowledgment of the presence of the president was shown by the Mexican vessel. The British steamer, however, dipped her flag as the revenue cutter passed.

COMPERS CASE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Attorneys for Samuel Compers and the other labor leaders under sentence for contempt of court asked the supreme court today to advance the case for early hearing.

Friday Night, October 31, 1913

HALLOWEEN PARTY

AT PAGES' NEW RESTAURANT

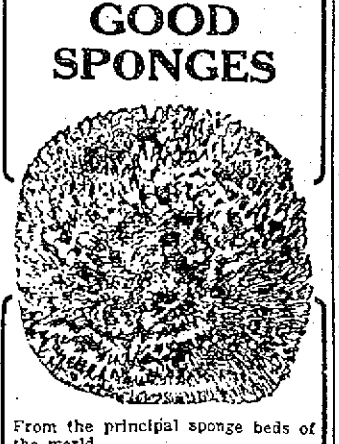

Music, Songs, Souvenirs, Special Decorations.

Broiled Live Lobster All for 75c a Plate

SOME TIME

Dinner will be served at 10 p. m. Reserve your table now. Tel. 4130.

GOOD SPONGES

From the principal sponge beds of the world.

Cup Sponges 10c

Mediterranean Bath Sponges, 75c to $4.50

Large Carriage Sponges.....$2.00

Special Painters' Sponges, for washing off whitewash and like of that 25c

Free City Motor Delivery

C. B. COBURN CO.

63 MARKET STREET

sorts and the evils resulting from their influence. He urged upon the parents the necessity of care in this matter and of preventing their sons and daughters from indulging in such amusements with all the consequent dangers. Rev. Fr. Curtin's words were listened to with close attention by the large congregation and his sermon was a topic of general conversation among those who heard it, the people being open in their commendation of the priest's attitude in this matter.

SOUND RIOT CALL

Free for All Fight in Sullivan Sq. Boston - 7 Men Arrested

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—A free fight between a number of workmen caused a scare among the crowds of passengers at the Sullivan square elevated station this afternoon. Two wagonloads of policemen were sent to the scene in response to a riot call and seven men were arrested. Two persons were injured. The fighting grew out of an argument over labor matters.

RETURNS LATE

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—The returns of yesterday's elections may possibly be known within a week but it is more likely that a fortnight will elapse before the result is placed before the public. Not even a prognostication as to who was placed at the top of the pole can be made at the present moment since in many cases the returns are lacking to the faulty communications with various sections of the republic.

In the federal capital itself the result may be determined within a day or two but even this is not certain. Telegrams received today by the department of the interior showed that the elections at Guadalajara and Toluca passed off in an orderly manner, but that a similar light vote was recorded there as in other places.

SEN. LODGE TAKES RIDE

NABANT, Oct. 27.—Senator Lodge returned today from his home here to Swampscott and return, this being his first automobile ride since he underwent an operation for gastric ulcer about a month ago. Senator Lodge will not do any active work until he has fully recovered and will remain at home until then.

OVATION FOR UNDERWOOD

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 27.—Oscar Underwood of the house of representatives, arrived late at the breakfast given in honor of President Wilson here today and was greeted with a ovation.

One of the features of the entertainment of President Wilson was a trip up and down the harbor this morning. As the revenue cutter Windom with the president and party aboard proceeded up the harbor a steamer flying the Mexican flag was noticed lying near a British freighter. No acknowledgment of the presence of the president was shown by the Mexican vessel. The British steamer, however, dipped her flag as the revenue cutter passed.

COMPERS CASE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Attorneys for Samuel Compers and the other labor leaders under sentence for contempt of court asked the supreme court today to advance the case for early hearing.

Friday Night, October 31, 1913

HALLOWEEN PARTY

AT PAGES' NEW RESTAURANT

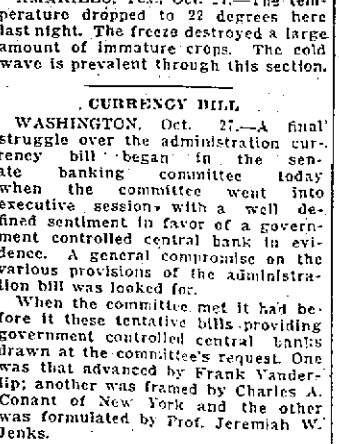

Music, Songs, Souvenirs, Special Decorations.

Broiled Live Lobster All for 75c a Plate

SOME TIME

Dinner will be served at 10 p. m. Reserve your table now. Tel. 4130.

GOOD SPONGES

From the principal sponge beds of the world.

Cup Sponges 10c

Mediterranean Bath Sponges, 75c to $4.50

Large Carriage Sponges.....$2.00

Special Painters' Sponges, for washing off whitewash and like of that 25c

Free City Motor Delivery

C. B. COBURN CO.

63 MARKET STREET

NOW IS THE TIME TO SELECT

Your New Fall Suit

1800 Suits representing the very latest efforts of New York's leading designers are shown here. We have now the reproductions from early expensive foreign models at prices that you can afford to pay.

SUITS AT $14.75 SUITS AT $18.75

At this popular price 200 suits. They represent the high water mark of style and value. They are in serges, mixtures and wide wale.

New styles every day. You owe it to yourself to get the best for your money, that is why our name is in every woman's mouth who wants to look her best.

MONDAY NIGHT, 7-TO 9.30
50 Suits selling at $13.75 and $15.75. $10.75
Choice

MORE FOR LESS HERE

New York Cloak & Suit Company
CHERRY & WEBB
12-18 JOHN ST.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

ON FACE OF RETURNS OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON BASED JUSTIFICATION FOR POLICY OF U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—On the face of the meagre returns from the Mexican elections and the apparent indication that a president had not been chosen officials in Washington today based justification for the policy of this government in declining in advance to recognize the elections as legal and fair.

Although nothing official had come to the authorities here the prevailing opinion was that Huerta would retain his authority and a new congress would proclaim the election null and void. Definite announcement from the Huerta government of the election outcome is not looked for here for several days. A few despatches were received by Secretary Bryan from Mexico City as to the votes cast for president but all asserted that the vote everywhere throughout the republic had been light. The reports were communicated to President Wilson at Mobile.

JEROME LEAVES BOSTON

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—William Travers Jerome, special deputy attorney general of New York, who has been stopping here, left for Concord, N. H., today in expectation that the conference of counsel at Rochester this afternoon would result in a decision on the date when the extradition proceedings in the case of Harry K. Thaw would be concluded.

COLD WAVE IN TEXAS

AMARILLO, Tex., Oct. 27.—The temperature dropped to 23 degrees here last night. The freeze destroyed a large amount of immature crops. The cold wave is prevalent through this section.

CURRENCY BILL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—A final struggle over the administration currency bill began in the senate banking committee today when the committee went into executive session with a well defined sentiment in favor of a government controlled central bank in evidence. A general compromise on the various provisions of the administration bill was looked for.

When the committee met it had before it these tentative bills providing government controlled central banks drawn at the committee's request. One was introduced by Frank Vandenberg; another was framed by Charles A. Conant of New York and the other was formulated by Prof. Jeremiah W. Jenks.

FIRE RESIDENCE

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Militant suffragettes this morning set fire to and burned to the ground Till house, a beautiful residence at Bramshot, 12 miles from Aldershot, belonging to T. McKenna, a brother of Home Secretary Reginald McKenna. A quantity of suffrage literature and several kerosene cans were found lying on the ground, together with the notification that the "arson squad" had set fire to the mansion as a protest against the forcible feeding of imprisoned "suffs."

Worms are Enemies of Children

Worms are one of the most dreaded diseases of children. There is nothing better than Dr. Tru's Elixir to expel worms of all kinds and to keep the stomach in good order. First manufactured by my father in 1851. Our mothers and grandmothers used this remedy and found it to be ideal for its purpose.

Some of the signs of worms are: Deranged Trade Mark Stomach, furred tongue, belching, variable appetite, increased thirst, acid or heavy breath, nausea, enlarged abdomen, variable bowel action, pale face of leaden tint, bluish rings around eyes, itching of nostrils, languor, irritability, disturbed sleep, grinding of teeth, irregularity of pulse.

If your child is not one of the robust kind, start in to use Dr. Tru's Elixir, the Family Laxative and Worm Expeller, today. 50c, 50c and $1.00. Advice free. Write me.

Auburn, Maine. Dr. Tru

GRAY ANGORA KITTEN LOST. Return to Mrs. Dodge, 150 Pine St. Tel. 1875-B. Reward.

3-ROOM TENEMENT TO LET. 23 Marchant st. bath and ash chute on by floor. First class repair. $12. See it at once. Bram Bros. 97 Central st.

DANCING

Every Tuesday Evening at Higgins Hall, 5 Hanover St.
QUINN'S ORCHESTRA
Gents 25c. Ladies 15c.

HEADACHE and EYESTRAIN

Eyestrain is the direct cause of over 25% of headaches and nervous derangements. It probably is the cause of more pain than any other ailment. The sufferer may notice loss of the power of vision or pain in the eyes themselves, nevertheless the little straining muscles cause untold misery. Glasses are the only cure. I have relieved hundreds of these cases. I can do the same for you.

Most complete equipment for eye examination in the city. It will cost you nothing for examination and the proper glasses may be had at prices 30% lower than elsewhere. Graduate of the Philadelphia Optical college. Six years successful practice with over seven thousand satisfied patients.

S. H. Needham, O. D.

Optometrist & Optician

303 SUN BLDG. PHONE 4250

Open Evenings

FURNITURE SALE AT KEYES' COMMISSION ROOMS, OLD B. & M. DEPOT, THURSDAY, OCT. 30th, AT 1.30 O'CLOCK.

Goods consist in part of: 6 tapestry rugs, 9x12; 2 velvet rugs, 9x12; 6 brass beds, 1 single brass bed with mattress; No. 8 Household range, hot water front and hot water tank, practically new; 2 oak dressers, small oak sideboard, oak dining table and 6 dining